THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

MEETING WITH CONGRESSMAN GUY MOLINARI (R-NEW YORK), MRS. MAXINE TURON AND MRS. LOURDES AVILES OF THE CHILDREN'S LIVER FOUNDATION

DATE: Monday, March 12, 1984
LOCATION: The Oval Office
TIME: 4:30 p.m. (5 minutes)
FROM: M. B. Oglesby, Jr. Bo

I. PURPOSE

To honor the request of Congressman Guy Molinari that an event be held to increase public awareness of children's liver disease.

II. BACKGROUND

Guy Molinari is a second term Republican from New York's Fourteenth District (Staten Island). He has been involved with children's liver disease organizations for a number of years and attended the signing ceremony for National Children's Liver Disease Awareness Week last July. At that time he discussed with the President the thought of having a public event on this topic.

Accompanying Congressman Molinari will be two officials of the Children's Liver Foundation (CLF). CLF is a non-profit, volunteer organization which supports children's liver disease research; provides support systems for families; and provides educational material for the public and medical community. CLF was founded in 1975 and now has seventeen chapters throughout the country. The Foundation helped to underwrite the cost of the U.S. Surgeon General's workshop on solid organ procurement which took place last year at Project Hope, Virginia.

Mrs. Maxine Turon is the founder and current President of the Foundation. Mrs. Turon had a daughter born in 1972 with biliary atresia and was given only one year to live. She and her husband looked all over the country for some support organization, and found none. With another couple, they formed the Children's Liver Foundation in 1975.

Mrs. Lourdes Aviles is the immediate past President of CLF and has worked with Congressman Molinari on individual cases and the overall issue of children's liver disease.

Mrs. Aviles has an eight year old daughter who is waiting for a donor to be located so that a transplant can be performed.

III. PARTICIPANTS

The President

Congressman Guy V. Molinari
Mrs. Maxine Turon, Founder and Current President of CLF
Mrs. Lourdes Aviles, Immediate Past President of CLF

White House Staff:

M. B. Oglesby, Jr.

IV. PRESS PLAN

MEETING WITH SENATOR BILL ARMSTRONG (R-CO) AND NANCY DEMOSS

DATE: Monday, March 12, 1984
LOCATION: Oval Office
TIME: 4:50 p.m. (5 minutes)
FROM: M. B. Oglesby, Jr. AO

I. PURPOSE

To accommodate a request of Senator Bill Armstrong (R-CO) for a brief meeting with the President for Nancy DeMoss. Mrs. DeMoss wants to discuss an aspect of the Year of the Bible observance that she has initiated.

II. BACKGROUND

As part of the observance of the Year of the Bible, Nancy DeMoss launched a television campaign that was sponsored by the DeMoss Foundation. This television campaign invited people to send for the Power of Living book which encourages systematic Bible study. A number of prominent personalities appeared in the newspaper and television ads which appeared throughout the country. Senator Armstrong has stated that there are many heartwarming stories of individuals whose lives have been changed as a result of this book.

Mrs. DeMoss wants to present the President with a bound volume containing a video tape cassette of the commercials, a brief explanation of the advertising campaign and a list of the stations on which the campaign appeared.

MEETING WITH SENATOR CHARLES MATHIAS (R-MARYLAND) AND
MRS. ELSIE MILLER

DATE: Monday, March 12, 1984

LOCATION: The Oval Office

TIME: 4:55 p.m. (5 minutes)

FROM: M.B. Oglesby, Jr. MO

I. PURPOSE

To respond to Senator Charles Mathias' request for a photo opportunity for Mrs. Elsie Miller, who is 101 years old.

II. BACKGROUND

Last summer, Senator Charles Mathias requested an opportunity to bring Mrs. Elsie Miller to the White House to meet you. Mrs. Miller celebrated her 101st birthday on November 9, and according to her grandson, Stuart Peterson, her one wish is to meet you. Mr. Peterson asked the Senator for his assistance in accommodating this wish.

Elsie Miller is a life long Republican. Because of her residency in the District of Columbia for many years, she was not allowed to vote in national elections until recent years. She currently lives in Westminster, Maryland.

Mrs. Miller will be accompanied by her grandson and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Peterson.
