WASHINGTON

MEETING WITH A BIPARTISAN GROUP OF SENATORS
CONCERNING SCHOOL PRAYER

DATE: Friday, March 16, 1984
LOCATION: Oval Office
TIME: 10:30 a.m. (15 minutes)

FROM: M.B. Oglesby, Jr. MB

RR

I. PURPOSE

To seek the support of this bipartisan group of Senators for S.J. Res. 73, your school prayer amendment on which the Senate will vote next Tuesday, March 20 at 3:00 p.m.

II. BACKGROUND

The Senate has completed its second week of debate on school prayer. Senator Baker called up your proposed voluntary oral school prayer amendment, S.J. Res. 73, as the vehicle for debate. For several days, Senator Baker actively consulted with his colleagues concerning possible language changes which would encourage additional votes for a voluntary oral prayer amendment. After considerable discussion, the final vote next Tuesday at 3:00 p.m. will be on S.J. Res. 73 as modified by the Senate Judiciary Committee to prohibit Federal or state officials from composing the words of any prayer to be said. Therefore, despite considerable debate about other language, the Senate ultimately will vote on your amendment as modified in Committee. Two votes occurred during this past week. The Senate first voted 96-0 to adopt the Committee amendment. Yesterday, the Senate voted to table, by a vote of 81-15, Senator Dixon's silent prayer/equal access amendment. This substantial vote in favor of tabling resulted from a coalition of those who support oral prayer and those who oppose any prayer amendment whatsoever. The consensus is that S.J. Res. 73 remains several votes short of the requisite two-thirds needed for passage of a constitutional amendment. In order to achieve passage in the Senate, most of the Senators at this meeting will have to vote in favor of S.J. Res 73 on Tuesday.

SUGGESTED TALKING POINTS FOR MEETING WITH BIPARTISAN GROUP OF SENATORS ON SCHOOL PRAYER

- I am pleased that you all could be here today to talk about school prayer and the upcoming vote next Tuesday on S.J. Res. 73.

- Howard, I am pleased that the Senate has devoted a considerable period of time to debate this issue of great importance.

- As you all know, I have advocated for many years the return of oral voluntary prayer to public schools. The amendment which I suggested, S.J. Res. 73 on which you will vote on Tuesday, merely permits oral voluntary prayer in public schools. It specifically states that no one will be required to participate. It is written in such a way as to permit significant latitude to school systems, parents and students as to what form, if any, school prayer might take.

- As you know, every poll indicates that the majority of Americans favor the reinstatement of school prayer. I think it is very important for the Senate and the House to pass this proposed constitutional amendment and then let the state legislatures decide ultimately whether it will become a part of the constitution.

-- Howard, the Senate has been debating this issue now for two weeks, and I would like to turn to you for any comments you might have.

-- I would like to hear what the rest of you have to say.
