Dear General:

Thank you very much for your letter and for your very generous words. I am most grateful. Nancy and I were greatly honored to have you participate in the Inaugural ceremonies. It is we who are indebted to you. Nancy sends her very best regards and please give our regards to Kitty.

Again, let me say how honored we were and how wonderful it was to see you both here, and we look forward to our paths crossing again -- the sooner the better.

Sincerely,

Ron

Dear Dr. Perry:

I have just received the poem that you wrote and wanted to write a line to thank you very much, not only for writing and sending it, but for the kindness with which you treated me in your verse. I am most grateful.

Sincerely,

Ronald Reagan

Dear Bill:

I know, of course, that things are pleasant in Kabul and life is serene, but don't you think you should have adequate protection when you go to Switzerland? After all, out there in the world away from the backwaters of Kabul, terrorists are often found. If you really carry through on that book that the communists are the bad guys, what kind of a review are you going to get in many of our respected journals?

I appreciate the tip about the Socialist International and am passing the word on to Bill Casey. It certainly figures when you look now how the socialist-leaning groups in all of Europe have rallied to the Sandinistas' cause in El Salvador.

Nancy and I are still overwhelmed by the fact that you and Pat would take that long trip to be here for our party. You honored us greatly, and we shall always remember it. Thank you, too, for your prayer at the Inaugural. Nancy sends her love and give it from both of us to Pat. I may make it twenty divisions.

Best regards,

Sincerely,

Dear Bill:

I know of course, that things are pleasant in fair and that it seems, but don't you think we should have business protection what you go to Switzerland. After all, our share in the world away from the backpackers of Kabul, terrorists and drug lords. If you really carry through on that bank that the computer are the had guys, that kind of a fever are you going to get in any kind of a fever?

I appreciate the trip about the Socialist International and the passing the word on to Bill Casey. It certainly figures when you look now how the Socialist-Labor groups in all of Europe have rallied to the Socialist cause in El Salvador.

Nancy and I are still overwhelmed by the fact that you and the world take that long trip to be here for our party. You honored us greatly, and we shall always remember it. Thank you, too, for your travel at the Institute. Nancy wants pictures and give it back to us so fast. I am sure it really did.

Sincerely,

Dear Glenn:

I know that I'm saying thank you to your thank you, but it was so nice to get your letter.

It's been a long time, really, since we've ever had a chance to properly visit so I just felt like communicating. I know we've shared some meetings, but that isn't the same as in those old days when we were fellow regents. I miss that. I know this schedule back here, or at least I hope it will settle down to something more normal. But, so far, it really has been busy. Sometimes it seems that I'm a juggler with at least fifteen balls in the air and one hand is tied behind my back. On the other hand, it feels good to really be dealing with some of the things we all talked about for so long.

Nancy sends her best and please give our regards to Rita. Thank you both for all that you've done and for your offer of continuing help.

Sincerely,

Ran

Dear Glenn

I am sorry I'm saying thank you to you thank you but it was so nice to get your letter.

It's been a long time, really, since we've ever had a chance to properly visit as I just felt like or something. I know we've shared some experiences, but that isn't the same as in those old days when we were facing together. I miss that. I know this sounds like a bad idea, or as least I hope it will be a little better to something and normal. But, so far, it really has been heavy. Sometimes it seems that I'm a juggler

Dear Ray:

I know you told me not to write, but I don't think I can get the mention on national TV so I'm writing anyway. The happy little character you sent me is sitting here on my desk hitting moles on the head and ticking off the moments which, incidentally, tell me it's almost bedtime -- not where you are but where I am. And I'm homesick. If we do make it a "better world," can I come home?

Nancy sends her love and please give our love to Fran.

Sincerely,

Ray

Dear Mrs. Beyer:

Nancy Reynolds kindly passed your letter on to me, and I just want to thank you for taking the time and trouble to write. You were very kind.

The only thing I know about that Napier connection is that an old family bible tells of a daughter who married a poor soldier, I believe, from the Boer War. It goes on to tell of a lady in a carriage bearing the crest of the Napier family coming to call many times and of a few pieces of silver bearing that crest in the daughter's home. Unfortunately, that family bible was destroyed in one of California's numerous brush fires -- the one that got out of control and burned my brother's home along with some 400 others several years ago.

Again, I thank you for your kindness and for the additional information that you provided on the two Napiers.

Sincerely,

Ronald Reagan
