Dear Mr. President:

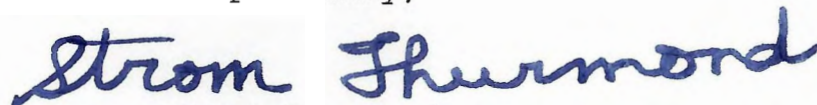

I want to express my appreciation for your kindness in sending me a pen which you used in signing S. 1212, a bill for the relief of sixteen employees of the Charleston Naval Shipyard.

This new private law relieves these South Carolinians of any liability to the United States that resulted wholly from an administrative error on the part of the Department of the Navy. Your signing of this bill will provide much deserved relief for my constituents.

Again, many thanks for your thoughtfulness in remembering me in such a nice way.

With kindest personal regards and best wishes,

Respectfully,

Strom Thurmond
Chairman

Dear Bob:

As you know, on April 10 I signed into law H.R. 4072, the Agricultural Program Adjustment Act of 1984. This important legislation will reduce Federal spending by $3.2 billion over the next three fiscal years and at the same time will help improve conditions for farmers. This new law will also help reduce excessive wheat supplies, and by establishing more reasonable target price levels, will keep the production of other major crops from increasing too rapidly.

Your efforts on behalf of this legislation were crucial to the passage of this bill and I would like to present you with a ceremonial signing pen in commemoration of this occasion.

Sincerely,

Ronald Reagan A

Dear Mr. President:

I want to express my deep appreciation for your kindness in sending me a commemorative pen from the May 21, 1984 signing ceremony of H.R. 3635, the Child Protection Act of 1984.

This important legislation will afford needed protection to the children of this Country. It is time to put an end to the exploiters and abusers within the vile child pornography industry that would prey upon our children. The young people of America are our greatest resource. We must protect them at all costs. Your enactment of this legislation is an important first step.

Again, many thanks for your thoughtfulness in remembering me in such a nice way.

Respectfully,

Dear Dennis:

On April 25, 1985, I was pleased to sign into law Senate Joint Resolution 15, designating May 7, 1985, as Helsinki Human Rights Day. This year marks the 10th anniversary of the signing of the Final Act of the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe, known as the Helsinki Accords. A meeting of human rights experts convened in Ottawa, Canada, on May 7, to discuss the issues of human rights and fundamental freedoms as embodied in the Helsinki Accords.

The Helsinki Accords offer hope to those who seek a freer, more just and more secure life, and we and our Atlantic allies will continue to strive to see that these commitments are someday fully honored in all of Europe.

Nations that signed the Helsinki Accords committed to "recognize the universal significance of human rights and fundamental freedoms, respect for which is an essential fact for the peace, justice, and well-being necessary to ensure the development of friendly relations and cooperation" among all nations. S.J. Res. 15 reaffirms the U.S. commitment to these rights and freedoms and urges all signatory nations to abide by their obligations under the Accords.

In recognition of your efforts in behalf of this legislation, I am pleased to present you with an original pen, which I used to sign S.J. Res. 15 into law.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Dennis DeConcini

WASHINGTON

Dear Tom:

On April 25, 1985, I was pleased to sign into law Senate Joint Resolution 15, designating May 7, 1985, as Helsinki Human Rights Day. This year marks the 10th anniversary of the signing of the Final Act of the Conference on Security and Cooperation in Europe, known as the Helsinki Accords. A meeting of human rights experts convened in Ottawa, Canada, on May 7, to discuss the issues of human rights and fundamental freedoms as embodied in the Helsinki Accords.

The Helsinki Accords offer hope to those who seek a freer, more just and more secure life, and we and our Atlantic allies will continue to strive to see that these commitments are someday fully honored in all of Europe.

Nations that signed the Helsinki Accords committed to "recognize the universal significance of human rights and fundamental freedoms, respect for which is an essential fact for the peace, justice, and well-being necessary to ensure the development of friendly relations and cooperation" among all nations. S.J. Res. 15 reaffirms the U.S. commitment to these rights and freedoms and urges all signatory nations to abide by their obligations under the Accords.

In recognition of your efforts in behalf of this legislation, I am pleased to present you with a pen, commemorating the signing of S.J. Res. 15 into law.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Tom Lantos
House of Representatives

Dear Bill:

On May 14, 1985, I was pleased to sign into law House Joint Resolution 195, designating the month of May 1985 as "Older Americans Month."

The traditional designation of the month of May as "Older Americans Month," appropriately recognizes that older Americans have contributed many years of service to their families, their communities, and the Nation; that the country has a significant percentage of older Americans who represent a wealth of knowledge and experience; and that these individuals should be acknowledged for their continuing contributions to their communities and the Nation.

In recognition of your sponsorship of H.J. Res. 195 and your leadership on behalf of older Americans, I am pleased to present to you the pen I used to sign the legislation.

Dear Bob:

As you know, on May 14, 1985, I signed into law Senate Joint Resolution 128, designating May 7, 1985, as "Vietnam Veterans Recognition Day."

Your leadership in Congress to ensure that the Nation's attention is focused upon recognizing the 3.4 million men and women who served in Vietnam is well known and was instrumental in obtaining the enactment of this important measure. It is without dispute that those who served did so selflessly, and with honor and distinction, as we sought to stifle Communist aggression and secure freedom for people in a distant land. It is fitting that on the tenth anniversary of the end of American conflict we should pay tribute to the patriotic Americans whose service in the Vietnam theatre deserves our recognition and gratitude.

I was proud to sign this resolution into law, and in recognition of your leadership efforts in behalf of the designation of May 7, 1985, as "Vietnam Veterans Recognition Day," I am pleased to present to you this pen which I used to sign the legislation

MEMORANDUM FOR M. B. OGLESBY, JR.

THRU: DENNIS THOMAS

FROM: THOMAS DONNELLY

SUBJECT: Signing Pen Letter for H.J. Res 567, designating
1984 as Year of the St. Lawrence Seaway

Attached is a draft signing pen letter for Carl Pursell, sponsor of H. J. Res 567.

July 27, 1984

Dear Carl:

On July 11, 1984, I signed into law House Joint Resolution 567 (Public Law 98-356), which designates 1984 as the Year of the St. Lawrence Seaway and June 27, 1984 as St. Lawrence Seaway Day.

The St. Lawrence Seaway is a 2000 mile testament to cooperation between the United States and Canada and to engineering excellence. This recognition of the 25th Anniversary of the St. Lawrence Seaway is also a tribute to those who have made possible the more than one billion tons of cargo shipped via this valuable waterway.

In recognition of your sponsorship of House Joint Resolution 567 and your leadership in assisting its passage in the Congress, I am pleased to present you with the enclosed ceremonial signing pen.

Sincerely,

July 27, 1984 ← I think 27th

Dear Carl:

On July 11, 1984, I signed into law H<sup>ouse</sup> J<sup>oint</sup> Res<sup>olution</sup> 567 (Public Law 98-356), which designates 1984 as the Year of the St. Lawrence Seaway and June 27, 1984 as St. Lawrence Seaway Day.

The St. Lawrence Seaway is a 2000 mile ~~testimate~~ to cooperation between the United States and Canada and to engineering excellence. This recognition of the 25th Anniversary of the St. Lawrence Seaway is also a tribute to those who have made possible the more than one billion tons of cargo shipped via this valuable waterway.

In recognition of your sponsorship of H<sup>ouse</sup> J<sup>oint</sup> Res<sup>olution</sup> 567 and your leadership in assisting its passage in the Congress, I am pleased to present <sup>you with</sup> the ~~accompanying~~ <sup>enclosed</sup> ceremonial signing pen.

Sincerely,

RWR

This is in followup to our conversation last Thursday regarding Congressman Frank Annunzio's request that a signing pen be given to Norman Lelo for H.R. 29.

Your initial indication was that a pen should be sent to Mr. Lelo. If you have an address for Mr. Lelo and think he is the only individual who should get a pen, I will take care of sending out the pen.

Thanks and please call if you have any questions.

Dear "E." :

I was delighted to learn that the President signed into law today H.R. 29, providing a Federal Charter for the Polish Legion of American Veterans, U.S.A.

In this regard, the National Commander of the Polish Legion of American Veterans, Norman Lelo, telephoned my office to inquire about the possibility of securing the pen which the President used to sign this bill into law for the archives of the Polish Legion of American Veterans.

Therefore, on behalf of the National Commander of the Polish Legion of American Veterans, I would be deeply grateful if you would look into this matter and let me know if it may be possible to accede to Commander Lelo's request.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Brody, David

Partly as a result of your efforts, the new Civil Rights Commission is doing an excellent job of providing leadership on behalf of America's commitment to the cause of civil rights. You understand that commitment very well; it is that no American should be denied the equal protection of our laws because of race, religion, sex, national origin or handicap. In essence, this describes the dream on which our nation was founded, and you can be certain that this Administration's commitment to that dream is as strong and unwavering as you have shown yours to be.

The Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith was an important force in seeing that the Civil Rights Commission did not expire when Congress became deadlocked on

THE WHITE HOUSE

Dear John:

On Tuesday, June 6, 1944, General Dwight D. Eisenhower made a dramatic announcement from London:

"People of Western Europe: A landing was made this morning on the coast of France by troops of the Allied Expeditionary Force... The hour of your liberation is approaching."

On that day and in the ensuing weeks, the soldiers, sailors, and airmen of the assault forces, and the men and women who supported the landing, displayed great skill, unwavering tenacity, and courage. The Americans who landed at Omaha Beach wrote an especially brave and noble chapter in the military history of the United States.

The great battles of 1944 that followed hold a place of highest honor in the tradition of the United States Armed Forces. The brave, often heroic deeds of our fellow Americans and others in the Allied Armed Forces set in motion the liberation of Europe and brought unity and pride to all free people.

Welded by the experiences of war, the old world and the new formed an enduring alliance which shared the rebuilding of Europe and forged a shield that has kept the peace in Europe for almost forty years. A common dedication to remain strong can continue that peace which these brave men and women fought so hard to secure.

In recognition of the fortieth anniversary of this historic event, on May 31, 1984, I was pleased to

Dear President Reagan,

Thirty years ago my grandfather started a collection of pens and pencils. When he passed away several years ago his collection had amassed over 5,200 pens and pencils from all over the world. He had received pens from the previous three Presidents which he cherished dearly, as well as those he received from Queen Elizabeth and Pope Paul.

I would appreciate if you could spare a pen or pencil with your name or signature on it, as I would like to continue his collection for him.

Thank you for your time.
