SUBJECT: Enrolled Resolution S.J.Res. 356 - The United States
Committee for the Battle of Normandy Museum
Sponsors - Sen. Mathias (R) Maryland and 13 others

Last Day for Action

August 12, 1986 - Tuesday

Purpose

Recognizes and supports the efforts of the United States Committee for the Battle of Normandy Museum to encourage American awareness and participation in development of a memorial to the Battle of Normandy.

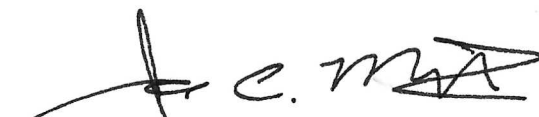

Agency Recommendations

Department of State	Approval (Informally)

Discussion

The French people are creating a memorial museum and study center in Normandy to commemorate the Allied effort in the Battle of Normandy and provide future generations an opportunity to study and understand the causes of World War II and the role played by the Allied Governments and military forces in winning the war. A United States Committee for the Battle of Normandy Museum has been created to inform the American people about the significance of this battle and to encourage support for the museum and study center.

S.J.Res. 356, which passed both Houses of the Congress by voice vote, states the Congress' support for the creation of the museum in Normandy, France, and for the efforts of the United States Committee for the Battle of Normandy Museum to encourage Americans to understand and support the memorial.

RESPONSE:

United States Department of State

Washington, D.C. 20520

AUG 1 1986

Dear Mr. Miller:

This letter is in response to your request for the Department of State's comments and recommendations regarding S.J.Res. 356, a Joint Resolution of Congress to recognize and support the efforts of the United States Committee for the Battle of Normandy Museum to encourage American awareness and participation in development of a memorial to the Battle of Normandy.

The Department of State endorses the objectives outlined in the bill. The Department believes the efforts of the United States Committee for the Battle of Normandy Museum, of which U.S. Ambassador to France Joe M. Rodgers is a member, support our policy of maintaining and furthering good relations between the United States and France. The resolution to recognize the Committee's work would incur no costs on the part of the United States Government. The Department of State consequently recommends approval by the President.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "J. Edward Fox".

J. Edward Fox
Assistant Secretary
Legislative and Intergovernmental Affairs

The Honorable
James C. Miller III
Director,
Office of Management and Budget
