MEMORANDUM FOR MICHAEL K. DEEVER

FROM: JAMES W. CICCONI JWC
SUBJECT: Meeting with LULAC Officials

In my opinion, it would not be productive for the President to meet with LULAC leaders on the immigration issue. Instead, I would suggest they be referred to Attorney General Smith, who has been the President's point-man on immigration. There are several reasons for this recommendation:

1. LULAC is trying to assert its primacy among the various Hispanic groups. Since they are one of the most hostile to this President, it is not in our interest to enhance their credibility.

2. While we have had some private discussions with Mario Obledo, he is clearly under the influence of more liberal board members. One example of his dealings with us: Obledo was invited to sit at the President's table during our luncheon for the Hispanic Leadership Conference. He told us he was "uncertain" whether he could make it, and never regretted. We found out later that he had held a press conference, denounced the President, and said he would rather have a hamburger with poor people than lunch at the White House.

3. The immigration issue is one that cuts both ways politically. It is thus better to keep the President distanced from it (as we have done so far).

4. LULAC is entering the immigration debate very late, and they have not been influential with the Hill. For two years, they refused to participate in drawing up legislation, and opposed any balanced proposals that were put forward. Now that Simpson-Mazzoli has passed the Senate, and with O'Neill promising floor action in the House, LULAC has scrambled to get in the game. The result is a proposal which is so costly and ineffectual that it does not even have support of the full Hispanic Caucus on the Hill.

Frankly, any meeting with Hispanics on immigration, whether with LULAC or our own supporters, would develop into an attempt to back the President away from his support of Simpson-Mazzoli. Since he cannot do that, I feel it would be best not to have a meeting on the subject.

GOV. KERRY ON REAGAN RECORD

DOUGLAS, Wyo. (UPI) -- President Reagan is relying on the short memories of the nation's voters to claim success for his administration's programs, Nebraska Gov. Bob Kerrey told Wyoming's state Democratic convention Saturday. Addressing the more than 600 Democrats gathered in Douglas, Kerrey said, if Reagan were a Democrat, impeachment papers would be drawn up against him as a result of the huge spending deficits his budgets have included.

REAGAN HAS FRIENDS, FCES AMONG HISPANICS

(UPI - Analysis) -- Hispanics throughout the United States are divided on Reagan. Some say they are enthralled by the president's communication abilities and admire Reagan for his leadership. Others think he has been a do-nothing president who has led Hispanics through the peaks and valleys of the economy without making any institutional changes to improve the lot of the nation's 18 million Spanish-speaking people.

"The last three years have been years of supreme sacrifice for Hispanics," said Arnold Torres of Washington, D.C., national executive director of the League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC), who has adopted the latter view. Torres, visiting El Paso, Texas to meet with local committees on the upcoming LULAC national convention next month, said Reagan has been invited to address delegates, along with Democratic presidential hopefuls, Mondale, Hart and Jackson. "There is a mentality in the White House that it is good politics to turn down an invitation from groups who are not supporters," he said. "That's wrong. There are many who disagree with Reagan, but he is president of all of us and we want to hear him."

MEMORANDUM TO THE PRESIDENT

FROM: MICHAEL K. DEEVER Mike

You asked me to look into the newclip story that LULAC (Hispanics) had invited you to speak to their group and we turned them down.

In fact, they wanted to come in and talk to you about the immigration issue and we properly so, referred them to Justice.

If you have any further questions, I've attached Jim Cicconi's memo.

Let me know if you want to pursue further.

Dear President and Mrs. Reagan,^{*}

Enclosed is a copy of our town annual report with a picture of our daughter Jamie on the front cover. We thought you might enjoy seeing how she is doing since that liver transplant operation in the Fall of 1982. We support your effort to bring help and hope to those many transplant patients and families that are currently awaiting surgery. Our hope is that all these patients can experience the same positive results that Jamie enjoys. Needless to say she and her brother Daren continue to keep us busy with the "normal" happenings of a 2½ and 4 year old.

We wish you good health and many blessings.

Sincerely,

Nancy and I were happy to see you at Pt. Mugu and to learn of your appointment to the Academy. I don't know about you, but it hardly seems that long ago that you stole the show in the Cabinet Room in Sacramento. I'll keep your invitation (1988) in mind, but won't make any definite plans this far ahead.

Thank you for your kind words and your vote. I'll be very proud to have it. Nancy sends her very best and please give our regards to your family.

Dear Mr. President:

I would like to express my deepest thanks to you and Mrs. Reagan for taking the time to see me and my family at Point Lugo on Easter Sunday morning. I was honored to speak with you both again and to inform you of my appointment to the Naval Academy.

I am overjoyed with my appointment and I look forward to the challenge of Annapolis. I feel it is my duty and I will consider it an honor to be able to serve my country. I am personally hoping that it will work out that you will be the one to give the commencement address to my class, the Class of 1988. Somehow that seems appropriate since that day in Sacramento when I was three years old!

I thank you for the fine job you are doing, Sir. Congratulations on your trip to China. I will be voting for the first time this year and you can be assured of my vote. It will indeed be my honor to vote for you. I wish you the very best of luck in November. Our country needs your outstanding leadership and I feel you have done an excellent job, both domestically and worldwide. You have brought honor and dignity back to America -- where it belongs and you have given hope to those who have sacrificed so much for this country in the past. For all of this, I thank you.

Please give my best to Mrs. Reagan. She is a very special lady. I do hope that I will be able to see you both again. May God keep you and bless you both always.

Respectfully yours,

Dear President Ron:

Early in your Presidency, I sent you a copy of Vol. I of the two-language (German & English) book, Those Wonderful Men in the Cactus Starfighter Squadron. There was no way of knowing then whether there would be a Vol. II when the 25-year long German pilot training program in this country would be completed, BUT now there is. Since you helped greatly by your upfront participation (Pages 8-11), I think it only right that you have the first copy off the press. I hope you enjoy this chronicling of a great foreign policy achievement, this 'chapter' having ended during your time in office. We're having the big 'book launch party' May 26th at the Kastens Hotel in Hannover, where there's to be a whopper whoop-up in the form of a Luftwaffe reunion, which my colleague, Tom Rhone, and I are attending to give autographs as is the custom.

Then, quick switch: Vada and I will be among the attendees of the "40-Years After D-Day" observances as part of the United Press War Correspondents Association tour. What a contrast, as when the Luftwaffe showed up four decades ago, we all hunted for a hole or a rock fence!

I don't know how close we'll be to where you are in that D-Day remembrance, but we'll be part of the approving claque contributing to your noisy welcome.

What a grand, grand spectacle that was in the Peoples' Republic of China. Congratulations for doing it so well.

Our affectionate regards to Nancy and yourself,

Barney

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

RE: PRESIDENTIAL HANDWRITING

Kathy Osborne, the President's secretary, sent a number of Presidential documents to ORM in this envelope.

On the face of it, the envelope has little historical value. Yet it does reveal something of the President's attitude regarding "recycling." While he certainly could have used a clean envelope, he chose to reuse this one.

Evidently, he first wrote "From" and "To Judge Clark", then changed his mind, scratched through this and wrote "Return to" with an arrow to K. Osborne.

A small human interest anecdote.

Dear Mr. President and Mrs. Reagan, *

Although this week has almost ended, the joy which your visit brought to our elderly residents and to all at Our Home has scarcely begun to diminish.

As Little Sisters of the Poor, there is a great deal for which we are thankful. We deeply appreciated your words of encouragement in our work of service to the elderly poor. We were delighted by your willingness to share Mother's Day, and your happy memories of your own dear mothers, with us.

As precious as were the moments during which each of us was able to personally come to know you, perhaps the relaxed gift of yourselves, made to the most infirm among our Aged, will remain our most treasured remembrance of the day. The intimacy of those encounters, permitted by the absence of reporters, revealed the compassion and deference to persons which you both bring to the service of our entire nation.

Thank you for your personal contribution to our Home. We will use it to maintain the home-like atmosphere which the God-given dignity of every human person, even those with diminished financial resources, gives the right to enjoy.

There is very little we might offer you in return for the gift you have given to each of us, except the assurance of our prayerful remembrance. Now that you have shared a part of your lives with us, we will not cease to ask Our Lord to give you the gifts of His wisdom, peace and joy.

As you continue to serve Him in the complex days that are totally given for our nation and world, you may be certain of the support of our daily prayers, and of our esteem for you both.

Respectfully,

Sr. Mary Agnes, l.s.p.

Dear Mr. President:

Thank you for making our nation aware that we are in the midst of a struggle for survival.

International Communism established a base ninety miles from our shores from which it has been successfully organizing against the United States throughout Latin America.

From my experience as United States Ambassador to Cuba during the Castro-Communist Revolution 1957-59, I concluded that this need not have happened. That it did happen was, to a surprising degree, due to the policy of many in critical positions in the State Department and due to the liberal press and members of Congress. The test with them is not what is beneficial to the United States but what fits their doctrinaire views of the future world. Nicaragua was Cuba all over again.

With the respect and affection of Lesly and myself for both Nancy and you,

Earl E. T. Smith

Dear Paul:

It was good to hear from you. Thanks for writing. You are so right. The Soviets shoot down a plane, they walk out of the disarmament talks, boycott the Olympics and the press asks, "why don't we do something?" Actually, we have done everything we could quietly to let them know the door is open. We do have one reservation. We won't make some offer that would look as if we were rewarding them for walking out. Just between us, I think they are going to be this way until after the election.

I am enclosing a clipping for you I thought you might enjoy. You probably haven't seen it in a long while. (Your father was also very handsome + you resemble him in this photo)

I hope your trip to Asia is successful. I understand that you will be going to Ballyporeen, Ireland in June? I hope that it will be a fun trip at least it should be interesting to visit your "roots". They'll probably give you a copy of your family tree! It should make interesting reading for the trip home. I hope the trip proves to be enjoyable.

Dear Ron:

Rancheros, Bustardos and I thank you for all your kindness towards all of us. Your gifts (Thank you too, Kathy) arrived in time and were more than appreciated. They were worshipped. Too bad the Russians don't recognize your class. Mmmm...rethinking that comment, methinks perhaps they do.

Review one of my old letters in which I told you they would pull out of the Olympics.

Now, news from all over the U.S. and the globe from Rancheros, from talks around the fires...I listen well.

1. The Russians are using Nazi ideas of conquest, except Fifth Column Subversion is first. Through this ploy, the Russians have conquered or enslaved over half the globe. Little people in the street don't understand this.
2. The role of the U.S. Government is to protect the people, not to give up in the face of danger. Carter let our protection slip badly.
3. If Russia is worried about their own protection, why do they continue to gobble up their neighbors as Nazi Germany did. History repeats itself.
4. The Pope card being played by you through Bill Wilson is a smashing one. Either Communist or Catholic, you can't be both. A Communist is an atheist. That's all. Catholics world wide will listen now.
5. The people cared little about your China visit. It was silly to tire you and Nancy out like that. Also, the Chinese appeared to benefit more than the U.S. (However, as I saw it, you twisted the bear's tail again.)
6. The Russians were the Nazi's allies during World War II and only we stand in their way of world wide domination.

President Ronald Reagan
Page 2.
May 18, 1984

7. Mexico still feeds Cuba and Nicaragua oil and food and other supplies. They must commit to stop helping the Communists, get the Russians out of Cuba and then and only then will you move out of Central America.
8. When loaning new money to foreign countries on bail-outs, get collateral - a call on supplies in the ground at today's prices committed to us so that we could intervene should our interests be attacked. An end run around Tip and Teddy and Baker and Bush.
9. The House of Representatives is not trusted. A home for the Fifth Column. Fellow travellers and hoodwinked liberals of the Neville Chamberlain mold. This is not my thinking but Rancho talk.
10. Be sure and tell the U.S. public that you need men around you to help your programs. Vote Republican or for the most conservative of the men running for the House or Senate. (I'll be doing this with Antonio Aguilar.)

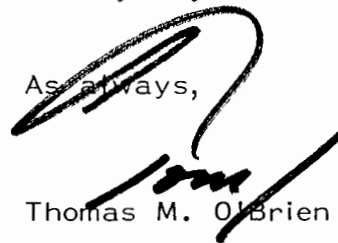

In closing, I too use a yellow pad to put down my thoughts to be typed. (Now I'm doing it.) Everybody I was with on the Ride was comparing themselves to you..."I've got a hat like Reagan's." "A shirt or a horse like Ron's, etc., etc." "I know how Ron feels, I feel the same way." Come to think of it, I guess all of us put our boots on the same way...one at a time?? Is that how you do it??

Had a great visit with the Judge. Got a super picture from Bill Wilson of he and His Holiness. Do put me on the list for a picture of you and Nancy on the Great Wall of China. My aunt is there now. She sent me a postcard on the 12th of May. I received it in Scottsdale on the 15th of May. Phoenix mail sometimes takes five days to reach me. Hire that Chinese postmaster, he's a worker.

Sorry for the length. Take care of yourself, eat well, take the vitamins and get lots of rest before election. I know the checkup came out positive. All our best to Nancy. (She looked lovely on the trip.) And God bless you both. Believe me when I tell you you are loved and cherished.

Dear Mr. President:

How warm and welcome your note about my mother was!

Angie led a fine, full life.
And, at 95, I suppose we should have been prepared.

Ms. P. 10/17

But right to the end when, comfortably but unexpectedly, she fell asleep for the last time, she was alert and bright - and a vital part of our lives. That made it hard for us to accept, even at her age.

Your lovely thoughts and the sympathy you and Nancy extended were a great comfort to me and Douglas.

We send you and Nancy our heartfelt thanks and our warmest regards.

Sincerely,

you will forgive me. It was a wonderful occasion and I was especially touched by your kindness in giving us such a grand toast. I was much moved as was Mary, and we do thank you most sincerely indeed for your kindness, and thoughtful words.

Please know that our thoughts are with you and Nancy, and we were pleased to read this morning (Saturday) of your medical report, [How noisy the newspapers are!] and its good news. Do give Nancy our love and meanwhile
W.H. 128. congratulations and very best to you for everything you are doing for America - Faithfully yours - Dillon

Dear Mr. President;

I had intended before this to write you about the glorious dinner you and Nancy gave for the Regents and the "Establishment", members of the Cabinet on Mary 6th. However, before I could really do so Mary and I flew off to Greece, Italy and England on business and there was no appropriate time. I am full of apologies for my delay, as I wanted to express the pleasure and delight that we all felt at once, so I hope

Dear Mrs. Pulvari:

I'm sorry I never received your letter of November 19 last year but I'm glad you saw that I got a copy. My belated thank you for your holiday wishes and for your generous words. Incidentally, I now know we were born in the same year.

You wrote about the weapons we captured on Grenada. We put them on display in an airplane hangar, but I'm afraid it didn't seem important to many members of the press.

I've just had a meeting with President-elect Duarte of El Salvador. He's speaking to the Congress tomorrow. Maybe he can make them understand how important it is that we stop this Soviet-Cuban march on Central America.

Again, my thanks to you for all that you are doing.

Sincerely,

Ronald Reagan

Alexandria, Nov. 19. 1983.

Dear Mr. President,

I can not thank God enough that you are our President and He guided your decision in the rescue mission for the more than thousand Americans and the little island of Grenada. Your intention to avoid another Iranian hostage tragedy (and many times in numbers and magnitude) revealed and prevented an avalanche of communist occupation of the Caribbean Islands, and consequently Central America, Venezuela and Mexico.

I was born in Hungary in 1911 and almost died in the first world war, then with my three children I survived the second W.W., the German occupation, the Russian "liberation?" till we could escape miraculously and came to this blessed Land. That explains why I am more concerned to save it than many born Americans. I lost my Country but I have to fight for my adopted one and the homeland of my eight grandchildren.

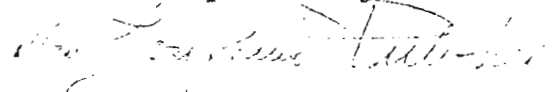

But now I am frightened by our media and very disappointed in our lawmakers. Where is our supposedly republican Senat majority? Not one single word of praise for what you did for the Western Hemisphere! When Ambassador Kilpatrick and you called it rightly a rescue mission - as the saved students did - there was only criticism on the Hill and media.

Dear Mr. President that is why I beg you to continue the display of the captured weapons and ammunition. People at the exhibition said: "my God I wish every American could see all this, so they understand how closely the Russians are breathing down on our neck." Please order to reopen the display in proper magnitude and let make videotapes with clear explanation what was the risk if the captured weaponry would be put to use while they would have 1,000 Americans as hostages. When it can reach civic organizations, schools, churches, it can counterbalance the illconceived Bishop's Pastoral and the movie "The Day After".

I hope you will take my plea to heart to wake up the complacent and misguided Americans to the reality that Lenin's "PLAN" promugated in 1923 is still the Credo of the Kremlin: "At first we take Eastern Europe, then the masses of Asia. We will encircle the United States, which will be the last bastion of capitalism. We shall not have to attack it will fall like an overripe fruit into our hands." As long as you are our President it can not happen, that is why we have to work with all means with the help of God for "FOUR MORE YEARS." For that I pray with my children and grandchildren.

Wishing you and Nancy a very blessed and happy Thanksgiving, with our love and prayers

Respectfully
