Judge,
I have checked and we do not have any outstanding letters to answer from Taiwan. This proposal from Don is a possible way for the President to go on the record again. John

March 17, 1982

NOTE TO: JOHN POINDEXTER

FROM: DON GREGG DG

SUBJECT: Presidential Message to Taiwan

Attached is a redo of 1551, changing what we are to give to David Kennedy from a letter to oral talking points. State's rationale for this change is attached hereto, in a note from Bremer. I have gone back at State on this, but they feel that they are on solid legal ground in taking this position. I would thus recommend that we proceed with the talking points. This approach is reflected in the attached package.
