~~SECRET~~

HOLD FOR RELEASE

CONTINGENCY PRESS GUIDANCE: UPON RELEASE OF HOSTAGES

Q. Was the release of the hostages part of a deal? Did we give guarantees that the prisoners held by Israel would be released?

A: --We gave no guarantees and made no concessions, nor did we urge others to do so. This is a firm policy which we shall continue to respect.

Q. What do we expect Israel will do now with the prisoners it is holding?

A: --Israel's policy on returning its prisoners to Lebanon is a matter of record. Israel has stated that its policy is to release the prisoners as the security situation permits in South Lebanon.

Q: Have we suggested to the Israelis that they release their prisoners?

A: --Our position is clear; there is no linkage between the two matters. We have not made deals nor did we urge other to do so. Israel's policy for the release of the prisoners predates the hijacking. They have said they would do so as a function of the security situation in southern Lebanon.

Q: Can you comment on the Israeli television report that Israel and the U.S. reached an understanding that Israel will release its 737 Lebanese prisoners only after the 39 American hostages are released? Wasn't there a linkage?

A: --The GOI formally denied the report to which you refer.

Q: If there was no deal of linkage, then why do you think the hostages are being released? What were the key elements?

A: --We think there finally was a recognition that U.S. patience was not unlimited and that America will not make deals with terrorists. Also, there was growing outrage of this act of terrorism by nations around the world, including Arab states. We were in touch with a number of parties and countries, including Algeria and Syria, and we think these efforts on a number of fronts all helped.

--The Administration is determined to do everything possible to bring an end to such terrorist acts, which are a threat to the entire international community. The U.S. will continue to work to help eradicate this menace to civilized behavior and we call upon the international community to cooperate fully in this effort.

Q. Now that the prisoners are being released, is the U.S. going to retaliate for the hijacking?

A. -- This is not the time or place to comment on that. There is a general recognition however that steps must be taken to get to the root of terrorism. There is also a growing recognition that Beirut airport should not remain a safe haven for aircraft pirates who prey upon civil aviation in the entire region.

Q. What are we doing about the seven Americans who were kidnapped earlier in Lebanon?

A: --They have not been forgotten. We are continuing to work for the release and again call upon the kidnappers to release them. The kidnappings of these Americans and nationals of other nations are acts of terrorism which not only fail to gain sympathy for the cause of the perpetrators but are criminal acts which deserve the condemnation of the entire international community.

Talking Points White House will use to Notify Senators Dole & Byrd, Congressmen O'Neil & Michel at 0700 EDT, 29 June 1985

At 0300 EDT this morning the 39 TWA hostages left Beirut by truck enroute to Damascus. There was a Syrian military escort. The hostages should be arriving in Damascus right about now. We expect the Syrians to turn them over to us in about two hours after they have rested at the Sheraton Hotel in Damascus. The U.S. will then receive the hostages and fly (not certain whether military A/C or not, check in AM) them to Frankfurt, FRG where a reception team from USG will meet them for onward processing. No definite arrangements have been made for their return to US but will be done as rapidly as possible.

The President will make a statement at 0900 this morning as the hostages leave Damascus. Unfortunately, the other seven American hostages have not been returned yet. The President will address this and the continuing efforts to free them. We need to keep the pressure on to get them back.

We'll have more details for you later.
