THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

June 15, 1987

Dear Mr. President:

Thank you for your very thoughtful letter to President Reagan regarding perceptions of change in American policy in Southeast Asia. I have been asked to respond to the important issues you raised.

The United States remains deeply concerned by the continuing tragedy of Cambodia. Like you, we believe that a settlement will only be possible when the Socialist Republic of Vietnam realizes it must withdraw its troops from Cambodia and begin serious negotiations. To encourage Hanoi to take these essential first steps, we have made it clear to Hanoi and all concerned that we will only consider normalizing relations with Vietnam in the context of an acceptable Cambodian settlement which provides for the withdrawal of Vietnamese troops.

Let me assure you, Mr. President, that there has been no change in this fundamental United States policy.

We share your concern that recent bills introduced in the House and Senate would, if enacted, potentially send erroneous signals to Hanoi concerning the United States Government's resolve on Cambodia. For this reason, we oppose these measures in their current form and are confident that they will not be enacted.

Mr. President, the American people have the greatest admiration for the Cambodian Non-Communist Resistance and the valiant struggle for a free and independent Cambodia. You can be assured of our continuing support.

Sincerely,

Frank C. Carlucci

MEMORANDUM FOR FRANK C. CARLUCCI

FROM: JAMES KELLY JK

SUBJECT: Reply to President Son Sann

President Son Sann of Khmer People's National Liberation Front (KPNLF) has written to the President expressing his concerns over recent legislation introduced in the House and Senate concerning Vietnam. He specifically refers to the Hatfield proposal for technical resolution offices for humanitarian issues to be established in Hanoi and Washington and the Dannemeyer proposal for a broad increase in people to people exchanges between Vietnam and the United States.

We need to reassure Son Sann of our fundamental commitment to current Cambodian policy while ensuring we have future flexibility in those areas not directly related to foreign policy concerns as we move towards a Vessey mission to Hanoi.

State sent a proposed reply (Tab II) that we modified slightly in discussion with State.

PRESERVATION COPY

His Excellency
President Ronald Reagan
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Your Excellency,

I am writing to you to express the deep concern I have in regards to the growing sentiment in Washington for improved US-Vietnam relations. As you can imagine, the proposed Senate and House measures for technical offices and bilateral exchanges were not welcomed by the Cambodian non-communist resistance. As a Southeast Asian, I can tell you that even weak signals from Washington are seen as highly significant ; Vietnam will certainly interpret the signals in these proposed measures as indications for moderation on the part of Washington without having to remove their forces from Cambodia or show genuine progress on the POW-MIA issue.

I urge Your Excellency to oppose any measure for bettering US-Vietnam relations at this time. Only when Vietnam removes its military forces from Cambodia should the US begin to consider mending its relations with Vietnam. Better relations at this time will only mean more suffering for Cambodia at the hands of the main Soviet proxy in Southeast Asia.

I thank you for your consideration, with my highest esteem and respect.

SON SANN

Dear Mr. Miller:

Thank you for your May 19 letter to President Reagan regarding normalization of relations between the United States and the Socialist Republic of Vietnam. I have been asked to respond.

The United States is not prepared to discuss normalization with Vietnam until an acceptable settlement is reached in Cambodia, a settlement that includes the withdrawal of Vietnamese troops. That policy was developed in response to Hanoi's 1978 attack on Cambodia, and to its continuing illegal occupation of that unfortunate country. Our efforts are made in concert with friends and allies in the region and throughout the world who are likewise committed to a free Cambodia. The strength of that position in the international community is illustrated by the most recent United Nations' resolution condemning Vietnamese actions in Cambodia and calling for an immediate Vietnamese withdrawal. The resolution, proposed by Vietnam's neighbors of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations, passed 115 yes, 21 no, and 13 abstaining.

We must disagree with your characterization of Vietnam as desiring to be non-aligned. The Socialist Republic of Vietnam is a Marxist-Leninist state committed to international revolution and allied politically, economically and militarily to the Soviet Union. The Soviet military base at Camh Ranh Bay is both evidence of this alliance and a potentially destabilizing factor in Southeast Asia.

Our posture on normalization reflects our concern with vital current problems, and our best estimate of how our interests can be served. It does not indicate any American animus toward the Vietnamese people lingering on from the war years.

We very much appreciate your interest and concern in America's policy regarding Vietnam and the region. We hope that Vietnam will quit its occupation of Cambodia and regain its place among nations pledged to respect the sovereignty of their neighbors.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey V.S. Millington

Dear Mr. President

The Biennial Assembly of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) in the Upper Midwest took action in its deliberative body to direct me to communicate with you its desire to normalize relations between Vietnam and the United States of America.

Our denomination, in 1975, voted to work for reconciliation between the Vietnamese and the American people and to urge our government to normalize relations with the Vietnam government.

The denomination has maintained a staff person on our Division of Overseas Ministries as an Indo-China consultant who has visited Vietnam a number of times since 1975 and has taken delegates of our denomination on some of these visits. Our Disciple delegation, out of their personal contacts and observations, and out of their Christian concern for the Vietnamese people, as well as concern for the American people, would like to see the United States trade embargo lifted and normalization take place for the following reasons:

Where families are divided with some members living in the U.S. and some in Vietnam, normalization would make reunification easier, and it would facilitate correspondence and transfer of funds among them.

It would help Vietnam meet the basic needs of its people as it recovers after decades of war in its land, and after long years as a French colony, by enabling them to purchase spare parts and other materials needed for tools and machinery necessary for food production, health care, transportation, and consumer goods.

It would allow for the exchange of news and other information, educational personnel and materials, and cultural groups between the two countries, and it would broaden Vietnam's access to new technology and commercial relationships.

It would encourage and facilitate communication and interchange between religious persons of both countries.

It could lead to reducing world tensions as the U.S. would be less isolated from what is actually happening in Southeast Asia; it could broaden the world views of both nations; and it could reinforce Vietnam in its desire to be a non-aligned nation in the world community.

It seems that all other major countries in the world have already reestablished diplomatic and trade relationships with Vietnam and it is now time for our nation to do so.

We urge you to work toward the lifting of the trade embargo to normalize relations with Vietnam. Thank you for giving this matter your consideration.

Sincerely

In the Senate of the United States,

May 1 (legislative day, April 21), 1987.

Whereas twelve years have passed since the end of the Vietnam War, yet thousands of Vietnamese remain held as political prisoners and many thousand more divided from their families in the United States and other countries;

Whereas the Government of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam has a responsibility to observe international standards of human rights;

Whereas the Government of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam has committed itself to releasing political prisoners to be resettled abroad; and

Whereas the Government of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam has signed an agreement with the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees to assist in the reunification of families: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That (1) the Government of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam should immediately release all political prisoners held as a result of their previous association with the Government of South Vietnam prior to 1975;

(2) the Government of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam should fulfill its commitment to negotiate their humane resettlement abroad or to rejoin family members outside of Vietnam;

and

(3) the Government of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam should immediately resume processing of family reunification cases under the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees' Orderly Departure Program.

S. Res. 205

In the Senate of the United States,

May 1 (legislative day, April 21), 1987.

Whereas twelve years have passed since the end of the Vietnam War, yet thousands of Vietnamese remain held as political prisoners and many thousand more divided from their families in the United States and other countries;

Whereas the Government of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam has a responsibility to observe international standards of human rights;

Whereas the Government of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam has committed itself to releasing political prisoners to be resettled abroad; and

Whereas the Government of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam has signed an agreement with the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees to assist in the reunification of families: Now, therefore, be it

Resolved, That (1) the Government of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam should immediately release all political prisoners held as a result of their previous association with the Government of South Vietnam prior to 1975;

(2) the Government of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam should fulfill its commitment to negotiate their humane resettlement abroad or to rejoin family members outside of Vietnam;

and

(3) the Government of the Socialist Republic of Vietnam should immediately resume processing of family reunification cases under the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees' Orderly Departure Program.

Ms. Karen Fuller
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Karen,

I have written to Frank Carlucci and have received no response. I hope that I will not be imposing upon you too much if I send these letters to President Reagan through you. I have three very important letters I would like for someone in a position to do something to see. I will thank you very much if you can help me. Tell anyone who will work with me that it will be on the same basis as it was with Pat. I do not publish my sources to anyone.

I also feel that there is someone up there who thinks they know more about the situation in Southeast Asia than anyone else. I would beg to disagree with them.

There is a lot of misinformation about General Vang Pao, the great Hmong leader from Laos. It is said that he is an opium war lord, that he is kept by the CIA, that he fled Laos with millions of dollars, that he lives off stipends he impresses off Lao refugees here in the US, that he lives in palatial splendor, and is chauffeured around in a Cadillac and Mercedes. The first time I saw Vang Pao was in 1960 in Laos when I worked out of Fort Bragg, NC, and he was not one of the opium war lords used by the CIA in the Golden Triangle. I know many members of his family, I have eaten in his home, which is a rented low middle-class, three bedroom, one bath house in Santa Ana, California. I have ridden in his one car, which is a seven or eight year old Oldsmobile and is usually chauffeured by one of his sons. As for the money he escaped from Laos with, I believe he brought less than $300,000.00, which much of it was spent on his people. All the money collected by the United Lao National Liberation Front (ULNLF) is used to support the resistance and refugees. Some say he is no longer a power in Laos among his people. Those people do not know the Southeast Asian people very well, and damned sure don't know the Hmong. General Vang Pao will be the leader of his people for as long as he lives, I don't care if he is in Laos, the US or on the moon. He will also be the one to make the decision on who will succeed him. By the way, he is in Thailand at present trying to do something about the problem of Thailand sending his people back to Laos at the request of the Pathet Lao. Those people sent back are killed or never heard from again, or they are attacked by the Pathet Lao and butchered.

Captain D. L. Hicks

There are not many people who know this, but General Vang Pao makes casset recordings that are sent to his people still in Laos and Thailand. They are taken around to the many camps in Thailand and Laos and formations are held for the men and women of each camp and village to here the General. I know this for a fact. So when some people in NSC, State or DOD tell you about General Vang Pao, they had better know all that I have told you or they know very little. Show this letter to anyone who will help me.

For those who think I don't know all of the people I say I do, I am sending a picture of me and Vang Pao taken last year.

The three letters I am sending deal with: One, Vietnamese Montagnards being held by the Khmer Rouge in Site 10 in Thailand; Two, the Hmong and other ethnic Lao minorities in Laos; Three, Thailand's closing of refugee processing centers by 30 June 1987.

Glad to see you have a new job. I hope it is a raise in position, which I am sure it is.

Hang tuff.

Sincerely,

President Ronald Reagan
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. President,

I wrote to you on 2 March 1986 about a group of Vietnamese Montagnard highland tribesmen that had made it across Cambodia and into Thailand. About 2,200 of them left Vietnam and fought their way across to Thailand. On the way, they were caught by Khmer Rouge in Cambodia and were forced to go with them. The Montagnards were forced to remain with the Khmer Rouge when they entered Thailand and the refugee camp system.

On 5 January 1985 when the Vietnamese attacked the refugee camps across the border in Thailand, over 200 Montagnards were able to escape to Site #2 in Thailand. On November 1986, those Montagnards were finally brought to the US through efforts of Don Scott, Major Jim Morris, US Army, Retired, and myself. They are now settled in North Carolina.

All of the Montagnards were not able to escape the Khmer Rouge. I have learned that over 200 are still being held under their protest by the Khmer Rouge in Refugee Camp Site #8, which is south of Site #2. This is a Khmer Rouge training camp.

Don Scott is in Thailand at present. Because of finances, I could not go with him. The Montagnards located in Site #8 has gotten word out that they wish to join their people in North Carolina, but the Khmer Rouge refuses to even let Don go up there. The Khmer Rouge use Montagnard women anyway they wish, and they use the young men as their porters.

Mr. President, the United States is looked upon by many of our allies and friends as not being trustworthy and living up to our word. I feel that we have not done what we told our friends we would do. And, Sir, we were not friends of the Khmer Rouge Communist at the time. We were friends and allied with the Vietnamese Montagnards, one tribes being the

Rhade, which I am adopted by. I owe them many things, including my life. I do not owe, and do not wish to owe, the Khmer Rouge anything.

The first time I talked to any of the Montagnards after they got to the States and I asked them about men I had worked with, they named individual after individual who had been killed, murdered or had died in Vietnamese "re-education" camps. All I could do was stand there and cry.

Sir, since the US gives the Cambodian resistance, including the Khmer Rouge, assistance, is it not possible for you to demand the Khmer Rouge to release those few remaining Montagnards they are holding? It would send a signal that we live by our word, and we will help loyal allies. There have been few allies who were as loyal to the US as the mountain tribesmen from South Vietnam.

Don Scott has informed me that he is getting no more support from the US Embassy than the last time until pressure was brought upon them from Washington. We urge you to give us assistance, because the Montagnard people are dying off quickly and only timely help will save them. Out of 2,200 to leave Vietnam, we can account for less than 500.

Hang tuff, Sir.

Respectfully yours,

President Ronald Reagan
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. President,

Several months ago I sent you pictures of a massacre of Laotian Hmong refugees in Thailand by the Pathet Lao. These people escaped from the brutal oppression of the Pathet Lao and Vietnamese Communist in their own country and set up a camp 10 kilometers inside Thailand. On 14 June 1986 the unarmed camp was attacked by the Pathet Lao and 6 men, 11 women and 15 children were killed, with 18 seriously wounded.

The Hmong and other ethnic Laotians are still having problems in Laos that are taking lives of these very pro-American people. The Vietnamese use the Pathet Lao as their killing teams and they butcher the ethnic minorities like animals.

On 27 January 1987, 1,500 Hmong escaped out of Laos and crossed into Thailand at Nam Poon. They were running from the Communist forces of Laos. Thailand Rangers ran them back across the border into Laos. The same group of Hmong again crossed into Thailand, and on 20 February 1987 Thai Rangers forced them back into Laos. In March 1987, the same 1,500 Hmong returned to the same area in Thailand. On 7 March, Thai Rangers again chased them back into Laos. Only this time, the Pathet Lao was waiting for them. In an ambush, two were known to be killed among the unarmed people, and the rest of them scattered. They are now located along the border inside Thailand in small groups.

General Vang Pao is in Thailand at present, trying to get the problem settled with the Thai Government. He is hoping to get the Thais to let his people remain in Thailand. These people will be killed if they are returned to Laos, or their women will continue to be used by the Pathet Lao and Vietnamese, and their young men used as porters. They are in a desperate situation.

PRESIDENT REAGAN / Hicks....2

I was at the 14 March meeting of Alamo Chapter XV, Special Forces Association and gave a talk to the men about the Lao resistance and refugee situation in Thailand. Some of us, myself included, have known the Lao and ethnic people since 1960. I have known some of the men in our Chapter since our involvement in Laos, where we worked with Colonel "Bull" Simons. My comrades and brother warriors are very unhappy with the problems in Thailand. They know that I personally know General Vang Pao and have his people, the Hmong, and the other ethnic groups at heart and support me. I will work and vouch for all Laotians, be they ethnic or Royal Lao.

Mr. President, I request that pressure be put on Thailand and request of them that they allow Lao refugees to enter their country for safe haven from Communist forces. There are no economic refugees in Thailand. Thailand owes us this favor from all the support we have given them over the years and are still giving them. We owe our loyal friends, the Lao Nationalist, even more.

I also request that you help in getting a bill passed in Congress to give the Lao Resistance the same support as we give Cambodia.

Mr. President, Laos is always on the back burner of US policies and scheme of things. But Laos is the most important strategic location in Indo-China. The French learned that in their war against the Viet Minh. We should have learned that lesson in the Vietnam War.

Sir, I know General Vang Pao, many other Laotians and their organization the United Lao National Liberation Front (ULNLF). Rick Wade and I have been assisting them. I have much information on the Lao problem that I would like to share with you. Please, call upon me.

Hang tuff, Sir.

Respectfully yours,

Dear Mr. President,

On behalf of the Vietnamese Armed Forces Veterans, presently residing in the United States and other free countries of the World; the Federation of the Vietnamese and Allied Veterans (FVAV) respectfully appeal to you to use your personal prestige and the influence of the U.S Government to intervene with the Hanoi authorities on the following humanitarian endeavors:

1./ The release from their so called Re-education Camps of all former Officers and Soldiers of the Republic of Viet Nam Armed Forces (ARVN) as well as former cadres of the Government of the Republic of Viet Nam interned since 1975, although the war was ended for over 12 years.

2./ To allow the departure of former members of the Vietnamese Armed Forces and Government Officials who choose not to live under the Communist regime; especially relatives of those who now residing in the United States.

The Federation of Vietnamese and Allied Veterans who represents all those presently held in the Vietnamese Communist detention Camps earnestly appeal to your compassion to try and put an end to their miseries and save them
