Mary:

Please call Margaret and let her know we are on the road and that you are looking for the photos, but that we probably won't be able to get them to them until I return. Try to find the pics
so we can show them to Mrs. R
when we get back.

Thanks

Elaine

Elaine:

I spoke with Margaret as per your note. Also I found the two attached photos in our files. The rest of the pictures she wants have been ordered and should be here "as soon as possible".

Mary,

Here are a few of the pictures you ordered recently. These are ones we had in our files; the others have been ordered.

Mrs. Reagan asked us some time ago not to make the old official portrait available for distribution. If you need one for your personal use, we might have one in the files, but otherwise you might substitute the newer one.

Please feel free to call if you have any questions.

Cheers, Benny Tennel

Dear Mary,

I spoke with Elaine Crispen yesterday, and she volunteered your services in helping us uncover six color photographs which are from the White House files. I've xeroxed the photos we would like, writing the news service captions and the corresponding dates on the back of each photo. Though I realize that you must be terribly busy right now, I would appreciate it if you would try to locate the photographs by the end of next week. Once we have all the photographs we plan to use for the book's interior, I will xerox the entire set of news service photos for your perusal. Elaine expressed her interest in seeing the other photos we plan to include in FIRST LADY, and we are happy to oblige.

Tom asked that I enclose a St. Martin' Press spring catalogue for you and Elaine to browse through. Please choose half a dozen books you would enjoy and ask Elaine to do the same. You have both been an invaluable help, and we greatly appreciate your assistance.

With best wishes,

Margaret Schwarzer

Elaine:

IN checking through the contact books for the chapter on the Assassination Attempt we do not have any more photos to send them. Only that shot of Pres. and Mrs. R. (he is in bathrobe) and ²⁾ his coming back to WH which we sent them.

Also, I called Barry F. in the photo office. He is going to go through his files for "honey" and "N.R. in politics" pictures. He said he would have some to us by the middle of next week (they are swamped right now in photo office). I ~~have not~~ called Margant at St. Martin's

Dear Elaine,

Thank you so much for sending along the photos. Most of them are superb and will be very useful. I am sure that with the other pictures you've ordered I will only need a handful of additional or substitute shots once we see how the chapters are organized. The manuscript is now on my desk, and I should be able to send a copy to you for review early next week. Not included at the moment is Chris Wallace's introduction, which will describe the making of the NBC special on the First Lady and, most particularly, what it is like to be a reporter covering the White House. That is not due in for several more weeks, but I will send you a copy when it arrives.

In the meantime, thank you for all of your help.
With all best wishes.

Sincerely,
