REQUESTS THE OPPORTUNITY TO TALK WITH YOU CONCERNING A "RUMOR THAT THE STATE DEPARTMENT HAS VIRTUALLY SIGNED OFF ON A DRAFT COMMUNIQUE TO BE ISSUED WITH RED CHINA THAT WOULD DO EVERYTHING BUT MAKE A TOTAL SELL OUT OF TAIWAN"

Doesn't to know about this?

Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mr. President:

Several good sources have brought to my attention the rumor that the State Department has virtually signed off on a draft Communique to be issued with Red China that would do everything but make a total sell out of Taiwan. My private and personal sources alerted me to this rumor even before the public news media reported the same thing, such as in Newsweek.

It has been suggested to me that if such a document exists, it would represent the effort of pro-Peking individuals at the State Department to circumvent and effectively abrogate the Taiwan Relations Act. A Communique would not be in the form of a treaty presented for Senate approval, nor would it be tied to a request for legislative amendment of the law. Thus, in the eyes of those who wish to abandon Taiwan, a Communique would be a sneaky way of setting government policy without any need for prior consultation with, or participation by, the Congress.

You know as well as I that the Taiwan Relations Act is the law of the land and that a mere Communique cannot repeal a Congressional statute, and if there is any truth at all in the rumors about a proposed joint Communique or statement with Red China, I would like very much to have an opportunity to talk with you about this before you reach a decision.

With best wishes,

Barry Goldwater
