Chief of Staff
The White House

SUBJECT: Robert H.B. Baldwin

Our mutual friend Robert H. B. Baldwin told me yesterday that he and his wife Dorothy have never been invited to a White House dinner. As you know, Bob is the recently retired Chairman of Morgan Stanley & Co., one of the world's largest and most distinguished investment banking firms after Merrill Lynch and Goldman Sachs, that is. He is a life-long Republican and for many years has been an active and effective fund-raiser for Republican causes, including the Reagan Campaign in 1980. He was Assistant Secretary of the Navy for a time in the Nixon Administration. I think it would be wise to put him on the list for an upcoming dinner. His address is: 791 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10020.

Dear Mr. Leader:

It seems that since you went to the White House all I have done is ask for favors of some sort.

I don't mean to cause you more trouble than you already have, but I would like you to consider the following request.

As you know, one of my principal clients is Federated Investors, Inc., of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. You met Jack Donahue who is President of Federated in my office. He is quite a remarkable man and a big supporter of the President and our party. Charles Morin, who you also know, since we have had dinner together, has been the counsel to Federated since it was founded.

Now for the request. I know that you don't have very many choices for guests at State Dinners and that you have a lot of friends that would like to attend these dinners. However, I would be most appreciative if you could consider trying to get Jack Donahue and his wife and Charles and his wife invited to a White House Dinner sometime before the end of this Administration.

I know this is asking a lot but it would mean a great deal to me if we could get it done. I have enclosed the pertinent information on both the Donahues and the Morins.

Many thanks.

Warm regards,
