Mr. Howard Baker
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington DC 20500

Dear Mr. Baker:

I listened to Senator Dole state that President Reagan's decision to choose you as Chief of Staff was a "first class" decision - and your acceptance is most sincerely appreciated.

I would like to commend you for setting aside your goal in running for president yourself - my sincere thanks for your help at this trying time.

I realize you, like Vice President Bush, ran against President Reagan in the past. And I trust you, like Vice President Bush, can put aside your personal policies and work to the fullest to bring those policies which elected President Reagan into effect - they are needed desperately.

My best wishes as you, along with many others, make the last act - two years - the very best of all.

Most Sincerely,

(Mrs.) Barbara E. Scrivner

Dear Mr. Regan:

I listened to Larry Speakes state today on one of the news programs that you who strongly urge all this problem come to the front - that you had received a "bum rap" - I am sorry.

I understand there was criticism of too much input, now too much isolation. It seems like one cannot win in public service. It is depressing and discouraging.

I also understand there was sharp criticism for former President Carter's detail - now for President Reagan's not enough attention to detail.

Many, like you, have worked to carry out the President's policy - I'm sure with great sacrifice. My sincere thanks.

Best wishes,

Dear Sir:

May I offer congratulations
and delight on your recent appointment.

A while ago I was organizing my Senator Baker
notes from your campaign
when you were running for the Presidential nomination;
in preparation for the next one.

I was on your staff
in June.

It was my pleasure to
meet Cissy several times;
also to host a "tea" when

Your son and daughter-in-law
were here.

Best wishes - now
will see some positive action.

The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Baker:

I cannot express in words how happy I am that once again you have agreed to serve your country in its hour of need.

This long and distasteful nightmare has hurt a President who, in my opinion, has done much for the nation in his White House years. I hope and pray that it will soon be resolved and that Mr. Reagan will emerge once again as the President and leader we have come to honor and respect in the past six years.

I can think of no one better than - or equal to - you as the President's closest advisor in these difficult times. Your honor, your honesty are known throughout this land. Your task will not be easy, but your fellow citizens are behind you.

Good luck and God bless you.

Dear Senator Baker,

Let me be among the first to thank you for your latest contribution to the welfare of this nation. With unflinching insight, you are going in where your talents are most needed and we, in the Hewitt-Riola family, view this move with a sense of relief. What this government needs unbiased professional-ism. And you are that "pro".

Whether or not you forego the presidency in '88, you will live in history far then more.

I have always said government should operate like a well-run household (of which there are too few these days) and that means an "aware" hand at the helm. Like a parent, you must guide and direct without seeming
to do so.

Good Luck

Dear Mr. Baker:

I just read the Los Angeles Times and I don't know when I have been so up lifted by the news there.

Congradulations on your new post as Chief of Staff! Between you and me though, I was hoping I would one day cast my ballot for you as President.

I want to tell you too, that you were truly missed during your absence. When you left as Senate Majority Leader, I and many others were dissipated, to say the least. I was afraid our nation had lost a really true, dedicated leader and our country can't have that. Welcome back!

Sincerly,

Nancy M. Soiset

Dear Senator:-

It is getting very hard to know how to address you these days. As you will note from the sticker attached I have saved the entire roll of "Baker for President" in my desk to have them ready for 1988.

I will continue to keep them for I have reason to believe that you will receive enough publicity from your new job that you can take the nomination without all the work ahead of time.

It speaks well of you to help our president right now and I am proud of you. It means a lot to people like myself who is a true Republican with a house filled with elephants.

Just thought you might like to hear from home.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Baker,

Please forgive the personal tone of this letter, but I am just writing to thank you. This is the first time in the five years I've been a mother that I've felt some bit of hope for my son's future. For what it's worth -- and I'm the epitomy of a political non-person -- I've felt a deep respect for you for many years.

There's a sense of decency and honest intelligence about you -- I guess just a basic goodness that makes me happy to tears that you're in the White House -- if not as President, at least in a position that can make major differences in the shape of things to come.

I've never written a letter like this to anyone before. But a feeling of well-being has been a rare treat in my lifetime, and that's exactly what the news of your appointment has given me.

God help you make some sense of it all, and give you strength to deal with the pressures.

Yours very truly,

Maggie Kleinman

Seneca said "you can tell the character of every man when you see how he receives praise." You have always been highly respected and we are just one who dearly loves and admires you. You are going to be an excellent Chief there is no doubt about it.

About ten years ago, I spoke to one of your secretaries at that time I asked her when you were going to throw your hat in the ring for the Presidency . she said she did not know. Well, that too, will come later.

Good luck and God bless you and your family.

PS I had 2 letters from you . one 1976 and a copy of the one in '78.

As you can see, we all loved Senator Dirksen ,, a GREAT man in every respect. If we could only go back to those days .. But then we have you and your family. We feel badly about Mr. Regan . he was not for the position you are now holding. Incidentally, Mr. Baker .. I am now 87 years young and I am out there trying to place all in the Health field . for 30 years . it beats sitting in a nursing home - for those people I truly feel sorry. Financially, we have had our ups and our downs . We tried for a small business loan and was turned down on several occasions. I guess the Government would rather help the Contros keep a war going. We love that part about the dragon!
Excuse errors . no one would hire me for my typing.

Dear Ms. Bowlby:

Thank you for your additional comments with respect to President Carter's performance.

With respect to the Bourne resignation, I believe the President's admonition was inadequate. If the White House does not act on this matter, I believe that either the Congress or the Justice Department should instigate further investigation.

I am concerned about the effect of all drugs -- including alcohol -- on the judgment and operating capacity of high-level officials. I simply do not believe that the reported "high incidence" of marijuana and cocaine use by White House staff members can be considered acceptable.

I completely share your concern with respect to Ambassador Young's most recent comments and believe these statements were both foolish and destructive to U. S. foreign policy. President Carter must be held responsible for this series of irresponsible remarks, as he appointed Mr. Young to this high office and has made no effort to remove him from it.

As you know, I intend to continue cooperating with the President in those areas which I consider to be in the nation's best interest; however, you may be sure that I will not hesitate to object to any Administration actions or suggestions with which I do not agree.

Again, thank you for your thoughtfulness in writing. Your interest and concern are certainly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Howard H. Baker, Jr.

To Senator Howard Baker:

As citizens with small, relatively unimportant voices, we want to join in what must surely be a chorus of "Well done, Senator Baker!"

When your President and our country were really in need, you sacrificed your own personal aspirations to help; at a time when others, allegedly loyal to the President, scurried about thinking only of themselves. (at least that's how it appears to us as outsiders).

You have restored our faith -- that in this most wonderful of countries, the spirit of sacrifice is alive and well.
