THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

2/9/81

JAB:

Marty Anderson wants to have lunch with his outside group of economists and a meeting with the President tomorrow. This would presumably be accompanied by press.

I understand from Rich Williamson that Reagan can go along providing the Cabinet cluster on economics is announced first. This in turn requires some understanding of:

- where the staffing of such a cabinet cluster will be (Treasury says at Treasury (similarly to State and DOD); I don't think that would work; going this way on economics prejudices how you go with State + DOD.
- how the economic group relates to other groups, e.g., international economic issues, resources, social, etc.

Marty asked me to help him organize a lunch at Blair House. But before this goes forward, we need to be sure that the other pieces are at a minimum not prejudiced.

Should you discuss with EM?
