MEMORANDUM TO: ED ROLLINS
FROM: JAMES A. BAKER, III
SUBJECT: David M. Barrett

Dave Barrett contacted me regarding his interest in lending his expertise to Reagan-Bush '84. He is a good Washington lawyer whom you may remember from the 1980 campaign.

While Dave is not a "must hire," I think that he would be a real asset to the '84 campaign. I would appreciate it if a member of your staff would at least contact him to see if you think something could/should be worked out on a volunteer basis.

Dave is with Barrett, Hanna, Daly & Gaspar, 2555 M Street, N.W., Suite 100, Washington, D.C. 20037 and his office phone number is 293-3204.

Thanks for looking into this.

Dear Mr. Marshall:

Thank you for your letter to Mr. Baker in which you enclosed your contribution for the 1984 GOP Victory Fund.

The White House Counsel's Office has informed us that as a matter of Federal law, we are prohibited from receiving your contribution for purposes of transmittal to the 1984 GOP Victory Fund. Section 607 of Title 18 of the United States Code prohibits the receipt of any contribution, within the meaning of 2 U.S.C. 431 (8), in any Federal building occupied for the discharge of official Government duties. Accordingly, your contribution is returned to you for direct forwarding, if you so desire, to the 1984 GOP Victory Fund.

Mr. Baker thanks you for your support and apologizes for any inconvenience that this may have caused you. However, I am sure that you understand that we must adhere to the White House policy of strict compliance with all Federal laws.

Sincerely,

Katherine Camalier
