FROM: ARTHUR B. CULVAHOUSE, JR.
COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Gaston Sigur's Testimony at the
Iran/Contra Hearings

Gaston Sigur is scheduled in the next few days to testify before the House and Senate Select Committees regarding Iran/Contra matters. Attached is an anticipatory summary prepared by Counsel's office outlining the potential areas of inquiry that may arise--based upon Mr. Gaston's prior testimony and documents available to us. Please note that this summary is classified and obviously should be very closely held. There is no present indication that Mr. Gaston's testimony will create problems for the President.

SUBJECT: ADOLFO CALERO--
Potential Testimony Subject Areas

Attached is a classified memorandum prepared under Bill Lytton's direction which summarizes the anticipated lines of inquiry which may be explored during Adolfo Calero's testimony at the Iran/Contra hearings. This analysis is based upon the documents available to The White House, prior testimony and publicly available information. There could well be other relevant documents (from other agencies and/or from private individuals) and other relevant information not available to us.

Robert Owen will continue his testimony today. Calero is expected to follow him. The likely following witnesses are General John Singlaub, some of the donors to the Channel groups, and Messrs. Gadd, Dutton and Rodriguez.

Note that the "diary" referred to in the attached summary is the official record of the President's schedule and is not the President's personal diary.
