THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 25, 1988

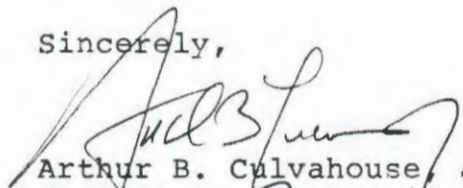

Dear Mr. Curry:

On December 11, 1987, the White House agreed to declassify over 30,000 pages of material by January 31, 1988, for the House Select Committee to Investigate Covert Arms Transactions with Iran. This agreement, although burdensome, was necessary to effect an acceptable resolution of several outstanding procedural issues of importance to the intelligence community. We succeeded in this monumental declassification task through the efforts of you and your colleagues on the Inter-Agency Review Committee.

I am enclosing for you a token of our appreciation for the dedication and professionalism you demonstrated in accomplishing this major undertaking.

Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

Arthur B. Culvahouse, Jr.

Dear Ms. Sirko:

On December 11, 1987, the White House agreed to declassify over 30,000 pages of material by January 31, 1988, for the House Select Committee to Investigate Covert Arms Transactions with Iran. This agreement, although burdensome, was necessary to effect an acceptable resolution of several outstanding procedural issues of importance to the intelligence community. We succeeded in this monumental declassification task through the efforts of you and your colleagues on the Inter-Agency Review Committee.

I am enclosing for you a token of our appreciation for the dedication and professionalism you demonstrated in accomplishing this major undertaking.

Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

MEMORANDUM FOR CLAIRE O'DONNELL

FROM: DIANNA HOLLAND dh

As you know, we have had a White House Inter-Agency Review Committee helping the Iran/Contra Task Force declassify approximately 30,000 pages of documents which were requested by the House Select Committee to Investigate Covert Arms Transactions with Iran. This was a mammoth task which was accomplished by these individuals putting in very long hours and every weekend in January. This group was made up of individuals from ten departments and agencies, and we would like to give them a token of appreciation. Would it be possible to get 17 charms and 23 tie clips for them?

Thank you.

MEMORANDUM FOR ARTHUR B. CULVAHOUSE, JR.

FROM: PATRICIA S. ARONSSON P.A.

SUBJECT: TOKEN OF APPRECIATION

Attached for your review and approval is a letter from you thanking the members of the White House Interagency Review Committee and the Iran-Contra task force, who were involved with declassifying 30,000 pages, requested by the House Select Committee to Investigate Covert Arms Transactions with Iran. All 40 people worked extremely long hours and many of them every week-end in January in order to meet the January 31 deadline. Without them, it would not have been possible to accomplish this monumental task.

I would very much like to show our appreciation for all their effort and hard work and thought it would be an appropriate gesture to send them a letter of thanks from you and enclose a memento from the White House -- tie clips for the men and charms for the women.

In order to give you a sense of what agencies were involved with this declassification project, I have listed them below. When you have approved the attached draft, the individual letters will be prepared for your signature.

- Central Intelligence Agency - 6 representatives
- Department of Defense - 1
- Department of Justice - 1
- Department of State - 7
- Drug Enforcement Agency - 2
- Federal Bureau of Investigation - 2
