Dear Mrs. Harrison:

Mr. Deaver forwarded to me your letter noting the comment made to your attorney by a staff member at the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, and requesting that the White House intervene in your case pending before the Commission. I very much appreciate your bringing the matter to our attention. I hope that the comment, as conveyed to you and as appeared in your letter, was not made by the General Counsel, or that if it was, it can be attributed to an innocent misunderstanding between the two parties to the telephone conversation. In either event, I sincerely regret that the incident has undermined your confidence in the public officials charged in the first instance with enforcement of laws relating to equal employment opportunity. Needless to say, confidence in Government officials is essential if Government is to discharge properly its obligations to the public, which it serves. Every effort should be directed toward securing and fostering that confidence.

With respect to your request that the White House intervene on your behalf, I am afraid that such intervention is prohibited by our standards of conduct. Members of the White House staff may not contact an agency that performs regulatory or adjudicative functions, such as the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, concerning any particular matter pending before that agency, when to do so might imply a request for preferential treatment or the use of political influence in the decision-making process. The purposes of this general policy are to avoid even the appearance of impropriety by members of our staff and to preserve the independence and integrity of the regulatory and adjudicative processes.

I am sorry that we could not be of more assistance at this time, but again, we do appreciate your letter.

Sincerely,

MEMORANDUM FOR FRED F. FIELDING

FROM: J. MICHAEL LUTTIG JML
SUBJECT: Correspondence from Ann Harrison

Michael Deaver's office asked that you prepare a draft response to Ann Harrison, who wrote Deaver to request that the White House intervene on her behalf in a case pending before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. (At first, because of reference to the TRO, I thought it was pending before a federal court, but decided upon further reading that it still is a matter within the Commission's jurisdiction.)

Attached for your review is a draft for Deaver's signature and a memorandum of transmittal for yours.

MEMORANDUM FOR FRED F. FIELDING

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS JGR

SUBJECT: Correspondence from [REDACTED] B6
[REDACTED] His EEOC Case

[REDACTED] has written the President to advise him that the EEOC has ruled in his favor, after a fourteen month delay. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] The letter states that [REDACTED] wrote the President about the case "some time ago." Central Files has no record of such a letter, although [REDACTED] writes the President frequently about whatever is on his mind. In his current letter, [REDACTED] states that the EEOC is "un-American" and that he will hold the President to his promise to get rid of it. B6

Rick Neal sent [REDACTED] an interim response and forwarded the incoming to Mike Uhlmann, who adroitly passed it to us. I see no reason to bother the EEOC about this matter. According to [REDACTED] the matter was resolved in his favor in 14 months -- not at all a lengthy period for an EEOC complaint. I have been unable to confirm that the President promised to abolish the EEOC. We should ignore that assertion in any event, as well as the assertion that the EEOC is "un-American," the truth of the matter notwithstanding. I have drafted a deliberately bland response for your signature. B6

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your letter to the President concerning your case before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. In that letter you noted that you obtained a favorable decision, but only after a delay of fourteen months.

As a general matter, the White House adheres to a policy of not becoming involved in or commenting upon particular matters before an agency that performs regulatory or adjudicative functions, such as the EEOC. This policy preserves the independence and integrity of the Commission's processes. I trust you will appreciate the need for us to adhere to this policy, and to refrain from comment upon your specific case.

We do, however, appreciate having the benefit of your more general views on the EEOC. They will be given every appropriate consideration.

One cannot tell from this remove whether the gentleman's complaint against EEOC is meritorious. The routine procedure in a matter like this is to request a report from EEOC, but the White House Counsel's office and not OPD should be the channel.

MEMORANDUM FOR FRED F. FIELDING

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS JGR

SUBJECT: Complaint Concerning Processing of a Case at the EEOC

Ann Harrison has written James A. Baker III to complain about delay in processing her case at the EEOC. Mrs. Harrison had a dispute with former EEOC General Counsel Michael Connolly last year, and wrote Mr. Deaver asking the White House to intercede at the EEOC on her behalf. You wrote back advising that the White House could not do so.

I recommend a brief reply to Harrison reiterating your previous advice that it would be inappropriate for the White House to become involved in a particular case before the EEOC. You can give her David Slate's name (she asked who replaced Connolly), and generally assure her that the Administration is fully committed to enforcing the civil rights laws.

bb  Harrison:

I am writing in response to your letter of April 1, 1983 to James A. Baker III. In that letter you expressed concern over the status of your case before the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

As I advised you in my letter of May 27, 1982, it would be inappropriate for any member of the White House staff to contact an agency that performs regulatory or adjudicative functions, such as the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, concerning any particular matter before that agency. Questions concerning the status of your case before the Commission may be directed to the new General Counsel, David L. Slate. I trust you will understand that the White House does not become involved in particular claims pending before the Commission to preserve the independence and integrity of the Commission's processes.

With respect to the more general concerns raised in your letter, I can assure you that the Administration is fully committed to vigorous enforcement of the civil rights laws, not only by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission but by all agencies charged with enforcement responsibility. Mr. Slate, of course, shares this commitment. I am confident your case will receive every appropriate consideration.

Sincerely,

Fred F. Fielding
Counsel to the President
