FIRE PREVENTION WEEK, 1985

- - - - -

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

Fire controlled is one of man's greatest friends; unchecked, it is our deadly enemy. Each year, millions of fires kill thousands of Americans and destroy billions of dollars of property.

Carelessness and apathy are fire's greatest allies. But an informed public aware of fire hazards and ways to prevent and combat fire can bring the problem under control.

Thanks to the efforts in both the public and private sectors, our annual fire loss has been declining in recent years. But we must not become complacent. We must build on the progress that has been made.

I urge every American to join the fight against fire. During Fire Prevention Week, communities should begin initiatives for fire prevention and control that can be implemented throughout the year. I encourage all citizens to join in local efforts to marshal the forces of the entire community -- local government, the fire service, business leaders, civic organizations, and service groups -- to redouble their efforts to prevent and control fire and minimize its toll of life and property.

One place we can all start is with this year's Fire Prevention Week theme, "Fire Drills Save Lives." Everyone should plan ahead noting the most convenient fire exits. Families should install and maintain smoke detectors in their homes to provide early warning of fire. Your local fire-fighters can provide you with more detailed recommendations and will be happy to do so. And let us not forget to thank them for the great job they do to protect us, our homes, our businesses, and our belongings. Daily they risk their lives to protect our communities. It is most fitting that the culmination of National Fire Prevention Week will be the observance of the National Fallen Firefighter Memorial Service in Emmitsburg, Maryland. The observance will honor the scores of brave firefighters who last year gave their lives in service to others.

We also must recognize and commend the efforts of all organizations concerned with fire prevention and control, and in particular the National Fire Protection Association, the International Association of Firefighters, the International Association of Fire Chiefs, the National Volunteer Fire Council, the International Society of Fire Service Instructors, the Fire Marshals Association of North America, and all the members of the Joint Council of National Fire Service Organizations.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RONALD REAGAN, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim the week of October 6, 1985, as Fire Prevention Week, and I call upon the people of the United States to plan and actively participate in fire prevention activities during this week and throughout the year.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this day of October, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and eighty-five, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and tenth.

MENTAL ILLNESS AWARENESS WEEK, 1985

- - - - -

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

At some time in their lives, millions of Americans in all walks of life suffer from some form of mental illness. The cost of such illness to society is staggering, totaling billions of dollars for treatment, support, and lost productivity each year.

The emotional costs to those who suffer, and the anguish it causes their families and friends, are beyond reckoning. Because of the unwarranted stigma too often associated with mental illness -- a by-product of fear and misunderstanding -- many victims do not seek the help they need.

But help is available. Treatment can bring relief to many. Scientific advances in recent decades have led to a variety of effective treatments, using modern drugs as well as behavioral and psychosocial therapies: the lows of a depressive disorder can be ameliorated; suicide prevented; hallucinations and delusions dispelled; and crippling anxieties eased. Those who suffer can be healed and again become productive members of society.

In recognition of the unparalleled growth in scientific knowledge about mental illnesses and the need to increase awareness of such knowledge, the Congress, by Senate Joint Resolution 67, has designated the week beginning October 6, 1985, as "Mental Illness Awareness Week" and authorized and requested the President to issue a proclamation in observance of this event.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RONALD REAGAN, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim the week beginning October 6, 1985, as Mental Illness Awareness Week. I call upon all health care providers, educators, the media, public and private organizations, and the people of the United States to join me in this observance.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this day of October, in the year of our Lord
nineteen hundred and eighty-five, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and tenth.

VETERANS DAY, 1985

- - - - -

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

Veterans Day is a special day for all Americans. It is a time to reflect on the many sacrifices and the great achievement of the brave men and women who have defended our freedom, and to salute them for their loyal and valiant service.

The blessings of liberty which our ancestors secured for us, and which we still enjoy, are ours only because, in each generation, there have been men and women willing to bear the hardships and sacrifices of serving in the military forces we need to preserve our freedom.

These fine men and women have not sought glory for themselves, but peace and freedom for all. They exemplify the spirit that has preserved us as a great Nation, and they deserve our recognition for everything they have done. With a spirit of pride and gratitude, we honor and remember our veterans today.

I ask all Americans to recognize the valor and sacrifice of our veterans through appropriate public ceremonies and private prayers.

I urge the families and friends of our sick and disabled veterans to visit them and extend to them a grateful Nation's promise that they will not be forgotten. I ask all Americans, whether or not a family member or friend is a veteran, to consider and to find ways to pay a special sign of respect to a veteran in their community on this day.

I also call upon Federal, State, and local government officials to display the flag of the United States and to encourage and participate in patriotic activities throughout the country. I invite the business community, churches, schools, unions, civic and fraternal organizations, and the media to support the national observance with suitable commemorative expressions and programs.

In order that we may pay meaningful tribute to those men and women who proudly served in our Armed Forces, Congress has provided (5 U.S.C. 6103(a)) that November 11 shall be set aside each year as a legal public holiday to honor America's veterans.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RONALD REAGAN, President of the United States of America, do hereby invite the American people to join with me in a fitting salute on Veterans Day, 1985, Monday, November 11, 1985. Let us resolve anew to keep faith with those whose love of country has placed their names on a well-deserved roll of honor.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this day of , in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and eighty-five, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and tenth.

SUBJECT: VETERANS DAY, 1985

Attached is the annual proposed proclamation for Veterans Day, 1985.

Although there is no statute which specifically calls for a Veterans Day proclamation, one has been issued each year since 1954.

The Administrator of the Veterans Administration, in his capacity as Chairman of the Veterans Day National Committee, requests issuance of this proclamation as soon as possible, in order to permit timely distribution of materials to schools, State Chairpersons, etc., who are arranging this year's observance.

The proposed proclamation was submitted by the Veterans Administration, and has been retyped in this office to reflect minor editorial changes and as to format.

ASSOCIATE COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Proclamation Entitled "Suspension of Entry as Non-Immigrants by Officers and Employees of the Government of Cuba or the Communist Party of Cuba"

Counsel's Office has reviewed the above-referenced draft proclamation. There is throughout the draft a persistent inconsistency in the choice of conjunctions in the phrase "officers and [or] employees of the Government of Cuba and [or] the Communist Party of Cuba." In the title the first conjunction is "and," the second "or." In the first paragraph both conjunctions are "and." In the second and third paragraphs both are "or." In the fourth paragraph the first is "and" and the second "or." Both in the interests of consistency and to avoid possible technical disputes, I recommend that the phrase "officers or employees of the Government of Cuba or the Communist Party of Cuba" be used throughout.

On page 2, line 2, "entering" should be added between "(a)" and "for;" as written the clause makes no sense.

On page 2, line 6 and line 11, "where" should be changed to "when."

SUBJECT: PROPOSED EXECUTIVE PROCLAMATION ENTITLED
"SUSPENSION OF ENTRY AS NONIMMIGRANTS BY OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES OF THE GOVERNMENT OF CUBA OR THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF CUBA"

SUMMARY. This memorandum forwards for your consideration a proposed Executive proclamation, submitted by the Department of State, that would suspend, on an immediate basis, the entry into the United States of officers and employees of the Government of Cuba or the Communist Party of Cuba.

BACKGROUND. The proposed proclamation would suspend the entry into the United States of officials of the Government of Cuba and the Communist Party of Cuba, except for the purpose of conducting official business in narrowly defined circumstances, or in such circumstances as the Secretary of State or his designee determines that entry would be appropriate.

The Department of State believes that the proposed suspension of entry would be consistent with our embargo of all transactions with Cuba. Furthermore, the Department believes that the suspension of entry for the limited class of Cuban Government and Communist Party officials would be an appropriate and timely response to Cuba's recent suspension of normal migration procedures under a bilateral agreement.

None of the affected agencies has objected to the proposed Executive proclamation.

RECOMMENDATION. I recommend that you sign the proposed Executive proclamation.

Dear Mr. Attorney General:

Enclosed, in accordance with the provisions of Executive Order No. 11030, as amended, is a proposed Presidential Proclamation entitled "Suspension of Entry as Nonimmigrants by Officers and Employees of the Government of Cuba or the Communist Party of Cuba", submitted by the Department of State, that would suspend, on an immediate basis, the entry into the United States of officers and employees of the Government of Cuba or the Communist Party of Cuba.

The proposed proclamation would suspend the entry into the United States of officials of the Government of Cuba and the Communist Party of Cuba, except for the purpose of conducting official business in narrowly defined circumstances, or in such circumstances as the Secretary of State or his designee determines that entry would be appropriate.

The Department of State believes that the proposed suspension of entry would be consistent with our embargo of all transactions with Cuba. Furthermore, the Department believes that the suspension of entry for the limited class of Cuban Government and Communist Party officials would be an appropriate and timely response to Cuba's recent suspension of normal migration procedures under a bilateral agreement.

Your staff may direct any questions concerning this proposed proclamation to Mr. Charles E.M. Kolb of this office (395-5600).

This proposed proclamation has the approval of the Director of the Office of Management and Budget.

SUSPENSION OF ENTRY AS NONIMMIGRANTS BY
OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES OF THE GOVERNMENT
OF CUBA OR THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF CUBA

- - - - -

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
A PROCLAMATION

In light of the current state of relations between the United States and Cuba, including the May 20, 1985, statement that the Government of Cuba had decided "to suspend all types of procedures regarding the execution" of the December 14, 1984, immigration agreement between the United States and Cuba, thereby disrupting normal migration procedures between the two countries, I have determined that it is in the interest^s of the United States to impose certain restrictions on entry into the United States of officers and employees of the Government of Cuba and the Communist Party of Cuba.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RONALD REAGAN, by the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and laws of the United States of America, including section 212(f) of the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952, as amended (8 U.S.C. 1182(f)), having found that the unrestricted entry of officers or employees of the Government of Cuba or the Communist Party of Cuba into the United States would, except as provided in Section 2, be detrimental to the interests of the United States, do proclaim that:

Section 1. Entry of the following classes of Cuban nationals as nonimmigrants is hereby suspended: (a) officers or employees of the Government of Cuba or the Communist Party of Cuba holding diplomatic or official passports; and (b) individuals who, notwithstanding the type of passport that they hold, are considered by the Secretary of State or his designee to be officers or employees of the Government of Cuba or the Communist Party of Cuba.

Sec. 2. The suspension of entry as nonimmigrants set forth in Section 1 shall not apply to officers and employees of the Government of Cuba or the Communist Party of Cuba: (a) for the exclusive purpose of conducting official business at the Cuban Interests Section in Washington; at the Cuban Mission to the United Nations in New York; or at the United Nations in New York where, in the judgment of the Secretary of State or his designee, entry for such purpose is required by the United Nations Headquarters Agreement; (b) in the case of experts on a mission of the United Nations and in the case of individuals coming to the United States on official United Nations business as representatives of non-governmental organizations where, in the judgment of the Secretary of State or his designee, entry for such purpose is required by the United Nations Headquarters Agreement; or (c) in such other cases or categories of cases as may be designated from time to time by the Secretary of State or his designee.

Re: Proposed Proclamation entitled "Suspension of Entry as Nonimmigrants by Officers and Employees of the Government of Cuba or the Communist Party of Cuba"

The attached proposed Proclamation was submitted by the Department of State and has been forwarded for the consideration of this Department as to form and legality by the Office of Management and Budget with the approval of the Acting Director.

The proposed Proclamation will suspend the entry into the United States of three classes of nonimmigrant Cuban nationals: officers and employees of the Government of Cuba or the Communist Party of Cuba holding diplomatic or official passports and individuals who, regardless of the type of passport they hold, are considered by the Secretary of State or his designee to be officers or employees of the Government of Cuba or the Communist Party of Cuba. In order to meet our obligations under international law and the United Nations Headquarters Agreement, the ban does not apply to Cubans who are traveling on official business to the United Nations, the Cuban Mission in New York, the Cuban Interests Section in Washington, D.C., or to those traveling on official business for the United Nations as experts or as representatives of non-governmental organizations. The President is authorized to exclude classes of aliens by 8 U.S.C. § 1182(f).

The proposed Proclamation is acceptable as to form and legality.

SUSPENSION OF ENTRY AS NONIMMIGRANTS BY
OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES OF THE GOVERNMENT

- - - - -

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

In light of the current state of relations between the United States and Cuba, including the May 20, 1985, statement that the Government of Cuba had decided "to suspend all types of procedures regarding the execution" of the December 14, 1984, immigration agreement between the United States and Cuba, thereby disrupting normal migration procedures between the two countries, I have determined that it is in the interest of the United States to impose certain restrictions on entry into the United States of officers and employees of the Government of Cuba and the Communist Party of Cuba.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RONALD REAGAN, by the authority vested in me as President by the Constitution and laws of the United States of America, including section 212(f) of the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952, as amended (8 U.S.C. 1182(f)), having found that the unrestricted entry of officers or employees of the Government of Cuba or the Communist Party of Cuba into the United States would, except as provided in Section 2, be detrimental to the interests of the United States, do proclaim that:

Section 1. Entry of the following classes of Cuban nationals as nonimmigrants is hereby suspended: (a) officers or employees of the Government of Cuba or the Communist Party of Cuba holding diplomatic or official passports; and (b) individuals who, notwithstanding the type of passport that they hold, are considered by the Secretary of State or his designee to be officers or employees of the Government of Cuba or the Communist Party of Cuba.

Sec. 2. The suspension of entry as nonimmigrants set forth in Section 1 shall not apply to officers and employees of the Government of Cuba or the Communist Party of Cuba: (a) for the exclusive purpose of conducting official business at the Cuban Interests Section in Washington; at the Cuban Mission to the United Nations in New York; or at the United Nations in New York where, in the judgment of the Secretary of State or his designee, entry for such purpose is required by the United Nations Headquarters Agreement; (b) in the case of experts on a mission of the United Nations and in the case of individuals coming to the United States on official United Nations business as representatives of non-governmental organizations where, in the judgment of the Secretary of State or his designee, entry for such purpose is required by the United Nations Headquarters Agreement; or (c) in such other cases or categories of cases as may be designated from time to time by the Secretary of State or his designee.

Sec. 3. This Proclamation shall be effective immediately.

NATIONAL LUPUS AWARENESS WEEK, 1985

- - - - -

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A PROCLAMATION

Systemic lupus erythematosus (also known as lupus or SLE) is a potentially serious, complicated, inflammatory connective tissue disease that can produce changes in the structure and function of the skin, joints, and internal organs. More than 500,000 Americans are estimated to have lupus; approximately 90 percent of these are women. One of the most frequent serious disorders of young women, lupus is characterized by periods when the disease is active alternating with periods of remission.

In recent years, the outlook for lupus patients has become progressively brighter as a result of advances from biomedical research. Positive findings have emerged from such diverse projects as studies of the immune system; research on genetic and environmental factors; investigations of hormonal effects; and evaluations of the course and treatment of the disease and its complications. The Federal government and private voluntary organizations have developed a strong and enduring partnership committed to research on lupus. Working together, our objective must be to eradicate lupus and its tragic consequences.

In order for us to take advantage of the knowledge already gained, and to increase public awareness of the characteristics and treatment of lupus, and to point up the urgent need for continuing research, the Congress, by Senate Joint Resolution 57, has designated the week beginning October 20, 1985, through October 26, 1985, as "Lupus Awareness Week" and authorized and requested the President to issue a proclamation in observance of this event.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RONALD REAGAN, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim October 20 through October 26, 1985, as Lupus Awareness Week. I urge the people of the United States and educational, philanthropic, scientific, medical, and health care organizations and professionals to observe this week with appropriate ceremonies and programs.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this day of October, in the year of our Lord
nineteen hundred and eighty-five, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and tenth.

A PROCLAMATION

She remains a Wonder of the World -- an uncanny fusion of art and engineering. She is the result of a unique collaboration between two freedom-loving Frenchmen with a profound affection for America: a great sculptor, Frederic-Auguste Bartholdi, and the greatest structural engineer of his time, Alexandre Gustave Eiffel. Next year she will be 100 years old.

1986 marks the Centennial of the Statue of Liberty. Originally called "Liberty Enlightening the World," the Statue was a generous gift from the people of France to the people of the United States. It represents the close and cordial relationship that traditionally has existed between our countries and our common devotion to freedom and democracy.

She rises majestically 151 feet above the magnificent base designed by Richard M. Hunt, the preeminent American architect. But she is much more than her awesome dimensions and her physical splendor. For millions of anxious immigrants, the forebears of countless millions of today's Americans, she was the first glimpse of America. She was assurance of journey's end, safe harbor reached at last, and the beginning of a new adventure in a free and blessed land. For them she was a dream come true, the Lady with the Lamp, a warm welcome to a new world and a new life.

The gifted American poet Emma Lazarus, hailing her as the "New Colossus," put the message of the Statue of Liberty in unforgettable words:

Keep ancient lands, your storied pomp...
Give me your tired, your poor,
Your huddled masses yearning to breathe free,
The wretched refuse of your teeming shore.
Send these, the homeless, tempest-tossed, to me.
I lift my lamp beside the Golden Door.

opportunity to welcome millions of immigrants and visitors from foreign lands. From that time she has been one of the proudest symbols of the American ideal of liberty and justice for all.

Today, the Statue of Liberty and nearby Ellis Island are being restored from the ravages of time and weather by the Statue of Liberty-Ellis Island Centennial Foundation, Inc.

The United States will celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of the Statue of Liberty through commemorative events scheduled to take place during the Fourth of July Weekend in 1986 and on October 28, 1986.

In recognition of the importance of the Statue of Liberty to the American people, the Congress, by House Joint Resolution 407, has designated the twelve-month period ending on October 28, 1986, as the "Centennial Year of Liberty in the United States" and authorized and requested the President to issue a proclamation in observance of this occasion.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RONALD REAGAN, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim the twelve-month period ending on October 28, 1986, as the Centennial Year of Liberty in the United States, and I call upon the people of the United States to observe this year with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this day of , in the year of our Lord
nineteen hundred and eighty-five, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and tenth.
