Dear Dr. Beckman

I want to acknowledge your very generous gift to the National Academy of Sciences and the National Academy of Engineering for the establishment of a West Coast conference center. This is a contribution to the scientific and technological vitality of the nation, and is all the more significant for coming at a time when we depend increasingly upon our scientific and technological resources for national security and economic well-being.

Your distinguished career and this generous act combine to make you a sterling example of two essential American qualities: the entrepreneurial spirit and the public spirit. Nancy and I, on behalf of all Americans, join your many friends and colleagues in expressing gratitude for your vision and initiative.

Sincerely,

(1) Dr. Frank Press, Science Advisor to President Carter and currently president of the National Academy of Sciences, has requested a Presidential letter to Dr. Arnold Beckman, a prominent scientific entrepreneur and philanthropist, on the occasion of his donation of 20 million dollars to the Academy for the establishment of a conference center in Irvine, California. A dinner announcing the donation will be held this coming Sunday, November 3rd. I have attached a suggested draft, approved by Dr. Keyworth. Dr. Press would like to deliver the letter in person, so if you could get the final version to me by mid-day tomorrow, I'll see that it gets to Dr. Press.

(2) On November 10, Japanese businessman Kazuo Inamori is giving the first annual Kyoto Prizes for achievement in basic research, applied sciences, and the expressive arts. These are international awards, with a substantial monetary prize, comparable to the Nobel Prizes. Both of the scientific winners are Americans. We feel a message of congratulations from the President would be appropriate. I have attached a suggested draft. An associate of Dr. Keyworth's in the private sector will be attending the awards presentation and could deliver the message himself. Here again, if you can get the final to me a couple of days in advance, I'll see that it gets into the right hands.

As ever, thank you for your kind assistance.

Dear Dr. Beckman:

I wanted to acknowledge personally your most generous gift to the National Academy of Sciences and the National Academy of Engineering for the establishment of a West Coast conference center. More than simply a donation to these important institutions, this is a contribution to the very scientific and technological vitality of the nation--all the more significant for coming at a time when we depend increasingly upon our scientific and technological resources for our national security and economic well-being.

This endeavor recognizes both the integral role of California and the West in research and development, and the importance of a forum for scientific communication to our continued technological prowess and preeminence.

Your distinguished career and this act of selflessness make you a sterling example of those two essential American qualities seldom found in one individual: an entrepreneurial spirit and a public spirit. Nancy and I, on behalf of all Americans, take pride and pleasure in joining your many friends and colleagues in the scientific and technological community in expressing our gratitude to you for your vision and initiative.

PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGES

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS
ASSOCIATE COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Congratulatory Letter to Waverly
Asset Management Company, London

You have asked for our views on a proposed message from the President, congratulating the managing director of Federal Finance and Securities, Ltd., of Great Britain, for launching a unit investment trust comprised of GNMA mortgage-backed securities. The message should not be sent.

The Waverly Asset Management GNMA Unit Investment Trust is clearly a commercial enterprise, and as you know White House policy precludes Presidential endorsement of such commercial enterprises. Under no circumstances should the President be put in the position of endorsing a particular offering in the securities area, whether here or abroad.

Dear Mr. Rallo:

I congratulate you and your associates on pioneering the first British unit investment trust comprised solely of securities guaranteed by the Government National Mortgage Association (GNMA).

The creation of this trust shows great innovation within British financial markets and creates a new international dimension for GNMA mortgage-backed securities. Our two nations will be the beneficiaries of an idea championed by you and your associates.

We believe that the Waverly Asset Management GNMA Unit Investment Trust will help dissolve barriers to investment in the United States housing market, thus making housing more affordable for many Americans.

I wish you continued success in the future and, again, my sincere congratulations.

On Wednesday, September 18, 1985 the Waverly Asset Management Company of Edinburgh, Scotland will launch a GNMA unit investment trust in London.

This is extremely noteworthy because it is the first time a trust of this kind has ever been approved to be collateralized by anything other than British Treasury bonds. It is also the first such trust to be denominated in dollars. The initial amount of the trust is $500 million.

This is a milestone in efforts by this Administration to attract foreign capital for the funding of the United States homeownership. It culminates a long period of cooperation between Waverly and GNMA.

A formal launching ceremony will occur in London on September 18 with representatives of Waverly, GNMA and our Embassy present.

Dear Mr. Rallo:

I wish to congratulate you on the inauguration of the Waverly Asset Management Government National Mortgage Association (GNMA) Unit Investment Trust. That this trust is comprised solely of Government National Mortgage Association mortgage-backed securities rather than British Gilts is a historic first in British financial markets. I fully realize that this accomplishment is due in no small part to your concern, effort and foresight.

As you may be aware, the Department has been interested for some time in attracting foreign capital to the United States housing market. Your unit investment trust of Ginnie Mae securities is a significant step toward this end. Your insight and ability to turn an idea into reality can help to make housing more affordable for many Americans.

Please accept my personal thanks, and my best wishes for your continued success.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Secretary:

It was a pleasure seeing you again and having the opportunity to introduce to you the other members of our team. They were all very pleased to have met you personally and to have had the opportunity to update you on our progress and plans.

As we mentioned in our meeting, we are all involved in three very historic firsts in the British financial markets: 1) the first non-British Government security unit trust with the same ranking as a British Gilt unit trust; 2) the first Ginnie Mae backed unit trust in England (and the first outside the United States); and, 3) the first U.S. Dollar denominated unit trust ever in England.

I am sure that eventually it will not go unnoticed that these firsts were not achieved by any of the major American or English securities houses, but rather by an American expatriot and a small group of men who had an idea whose time had come and who had the perseverance to realize it. Entrepreneurialism lives!

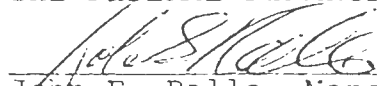

At the same time, however, we recognize that we could not have succeeded in our efforts without your support and the timely assistance of Dr. Gasper.

We also recognise that while not being a major force in the market we have nevertheless the two fold responsibility of promoting the unit trust and educating the marketplace about Ginnie Mae's.

To that end we respectfully submit for your consideration our request that you examine the possibility of arranging for Dr. Gasper to make a one day trip to London for the launch of the unit trust. His presence there would draw greater attention to the explanation of Ginnie Mae's and go a long way in announcing to the financial markets that GNMA and the Department are committed to making Ginnie Mae's an internationally traded financial instrument.

Once again, thanking you for your continued support and encouragement, I remain,

Very sincerely yours,
 THE FEDERAL FINANCE AND CREDIT CORPORATION LIMITED

Attention: Sgt. Wilbur Williams

Mobile, Alabama 36602

I extend best wishes to all participating in the 53rd National Robbery and Homicide Conference. I am deeply thankful for your untiring efforts to improve law enforcement and criminal justice.

Varied and complex problems face today's criminal justice system, but through the exchange of ideas and techniques among police professionals we can begin to solve many of these problems and make major strides toward improving the system. Nothing could be more urgent because the violent crimes you deal with keep Americans from feeling secure on the streets and in their homes.

Over the last few years, this Administration has launched several initiatives to help fight crime in the nation. They include: stronger judicial appointments; strengthened cooperation with state and local law enforcement agencies; an all-out offensive against illegal drug traffic; programs aimed at organized crime; task forces that have produced sound anticrime recommendations; and efforts to assist the victims of crime.

Although these programs have moved us forward, the fight against crime is far from over. Much more needs to be done to rid our nation of crime.

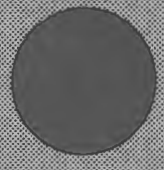

You have my best wishes for a successful and productive meeting.

SUBJECT: Presidential Message Request for and by Marilyn Lewis

You have asked for our views on a Presidential Message requested for and by Marilyn Lewis, to congratulate her on her selection by City of Hope (Professions and Finance Association) as its 1985 Woman of the Year. In her request Mrs. Lewis noted that the message would be reproduced in a "Grand Book of the Evening."

We have no strictly legal objections to this request. Mrs. Lewis is associated with Hamburger Hamlets, but if you decide to provide a message it should discuss only the civic and charitable activity for which she as an individual is being honored. Like you, I was somewhat taken aback that Mrs. Lewis requested a message of congratulations for herself, but that does not raise any legal problems. Whether as a matter of policy you decide to respond to such self-generated requests is up to you.

Date Due: ASAP

Date of Event: NOVEMBER 23

Subject: Presidential Message request for Marilyn Lewis who is being honored as "Woman of the Year" by the City of Hope Hospital, Professions and Finance Association.

Requested by: Marilyn Lewis

Background:

It seems there might be some problem here, since (A) she herself is asking for a Presidential Message, not the group honoring her (which is quite irregular), and (B) this would seem to be a rather direct involvement of the President in puffery for a commercial enterprise, Hamburger Hamlets, Inc., of which she has been chairman of the board for the past 36 years. Her mentioning that she wants a photo and plans to publish the President's tribute suggests that considerable use of this message to promote Hamburger Hamlets is contemplated.

May we have your ruling on this as soon as possible, since the event will take place on November 23.

Dear Jim:

Thank you so much for making my Dad so very happy! He received President Reagan's Get Well card and truly, I think it encouraged him to feel better and better and better. I personally thank you for seeing to it that my request was granted.

Now this is the last request, I promise. On November 23rd, CITY OF HOPE (Professions and Finance Association) is honoring me as their Woman of the Year 1985. To whom may I write to ask President Reagan if he might send a letter of congratulations to me, along with his picture, so that it may be featured as Page 1 in the Grand Book of the Evening (2,000 people will receive this book). The book will go to press at the end of this month.

Knowing how President Reagan feels about the American dream, i.e. the spirit of the entrepreneur and people who make it on their own, well, aside from being a Republican Eagle, that American spirit describes my life for the past 36 years as Chairman of the Board of Hamburger Hamlets Inc., located in Los Angeles, Chicago, and Washington, D.C. A close friend and former colleague of mine will be completing his term in office in Delaware County, Pennsylvania where he has served for the past twelve years as Sheriff. He is a most enthusiastic supporter of the President and would be thrilled to receive a note from him. Please find enclosed a proposed draft letter.

His friends in the County will be honoring Sheriff John Taylor at a testimonial dinner on November 21. The letter can be sent to his secretary at the following address.

Miss Margaret H. Zebley
Secretary to
John W. Taylor, Jr.

Dear Faith;

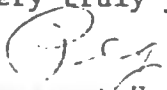

Enclosed please find a notice of a testimonial for Sheriff Taylor. I know personally how the two of you were and are very good friends and I am sure that if in fact you were in the area that you would attend. Sheriff Taylor has been a very loyal Republican Sheriff and has indeed served his county well for the past twelve years. He will be surely missed by all in Delaware County.

If at all possible I was wondering if you in fact could take a few minutes from your busy schedule to perhaps drop a note to Sheriff Taylor via myself that could be read to him or handled however you would prefer.

I know that you were a high-light in his career as Sheriff of this County and your friendship he treasures.

I will be looking forward to hearing from you real soon. Of course if you happen to be in the States at that particular time we would be honored to have you attend.

Very truly yours;

Margaret H. Zebley,
Secretary

Dear John:

Ambassador Faith Whittlesey has advised me that you are being honored at a dinner at the Alpine Inn on November 21 for your long and distinguished record of public service in Delaware County. Your skill, commitment to the highest standards of law enforcement, selfless concern for your family and others and your incomparable sense of fairness have inspired your friends to honor you on this festive and happy occasion.

Nancy and I send you our heartfelt congratulations on this well-deserved tribute.

Dear Mr. Danberry:

You know better than anyone that when the earthquake struck Mexico, visiting death and disaster on so many men, women, and children, Americans responded without hesitation and with an open-hearted generosity that should make all of us proud. Yet the response of Continental Airlines shines with a special luster. It is told that, without it, the generosity of so many individual Americans and American relief organizations would have been in vain. Without the assistance of Continental, the relief material they gave would never have reached the homeless and the hungry and those who had little more than the clothes on their backs.

I have before me some calculations of the Office of U.S. Foreign Disaster Assistance, which coordinates our government's international disaster relief. They show that Continental Airlines moved more than 400,000 pounds of relief materials to Mexico from throughout the United States. Of itself this is a splendid achievement, and it was done at no cost whatsoever to the government or to the private relief agencies.

Some names have been singled out to me, including yours and Tom Northern's, but I understand there were many other heroes in your office and elsewhere in Continental Airlines. My thanks go to each of them and of course to you and Tom and to Frank Lorenzo, Continental's Chairman of the Board.

To the old question, "Who is my neighbor," you have given an inspiring answer. You answered not just in words but in works of mercy. All Americans are proud of you and what you have done. God bless you.

Sincerely,

RONALD REAGAN

I am pleased to commend all those who are participating in the praiseworthy work of the M-2 Sponsors Program.

When I was governor this program was just a dream, so I am thrilled to see the great progress that you have made. All the participants of the M-2 Sponsors Program have been enriched through their generous participation, and because of this our nation is also enriched.

Nancy joins me in sending warm wishes for continued success. God bless you all.

MEMORANDUM FOR ANNE HIGGINS
SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT
DIRECTOR OF CORRESPONDENCE

FROM: JOHN G. ROBERTS
ASSOCIATE COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Avon 100th Anniversary Letter

Valerie Hnot, Director of Centennial Communications for Avon Products, has written you to ask if the letter sent over the President's signature congratulating Avon on its centennial celebration may be released to the press. You have asked this office for guidance in responding to the request.

Approval to release the letter should not be granted. Indeed, pursuant to our established policy with respect to commercial anniversaries, the letter probably should not have been sent in the first place. One reason for this policy is, as you know, to avoid creating the impression of Presidential endorsement of a particular commercial enterprise. The letter to Avon does just that, and should not be released.

Congratulations to the people of Avon on your Centennial Celebration. Throughout its 100 year history, Avon has given many people -- particularly women -- the opportunity to earn and grow, as they provided personal service to families across America and around the world.

Avon has also set an outstanding example of corporate good citizenship, both by generous financial Volunteer Action Awards, and by a policy of strongly encouraging its employees to take part in community volunteer programs. And you go further still by special recognition of outstanding volunteers.

I would also like to send special congratulations to the women and men who are Avon's top representatives. Many of you are successfully managing both family responsibilities and careers. As independent business people, you exemplify that American spirit that has made our country great -- a belief that you can meet any challenge through initiative, hard work, and dedication.

Nancy joins me in wishing everyone at Avon continued success as you move into your second century of helping make America beautiful.

With best wishes,

RONALD REAGAN
