Dear Mr. Beaumier:

Thank you for your recent message to the President regarding his nomination of Justice William H. Rehnquist to be Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court.

The President chose Justice Rehnquist to succeed Chief Justice Warren E. Burger because of his distinguished fifteen years on the Supreme Court as an Associate Justice and after a careful evaluation conducted by the Attorney General, the President's Chief of Staff, and myself. The President personally met and interviewed Justice Rehnquist and is convinced that he shares the President's views on many important legal issues.

We appreciate your taking the time to express your thoughts on the elevation of Justice Rehnquist.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Peter J. Wallison

Dear President Reagan,

As a native of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, it would be easy to be proud of William Rehnquist, the new Chief Justice of the U.S. Unfortunately, I cannot be proud of Mr. Rehnquist.

His past record indicates that he is not a very compassionate man. He has made some very disturbing remarks on racial issues.

At the time of the Supreme Court's Ruling of Brown vs. the Board of Education Mr. Rehnquist favored separate but equal.

Moreover, he would wink at government's intrusion into religious concerns.

President Reagan, I must express my profound disappointment with the nomination of William Rehnquist as Supreme Justice.

Sincerely,
Robert J. Beavmer

Dear Mr. President :

I am writing to commend you for your decision to appoint Antonin Scalia, Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court. We are truly grateful that you have recognized the remarkable talent of this outstanding jurist and, by doing so, you honor all Americans of Italian descent.

Your appointment of Judge Scalia has historic significance for Italian Americans who have heretofore been denied access to America's highest court. It is indeed a magnificent tribute to all Americans who take pride in their heritage.

Mr. President, please be assured that the membership of the Order Sons of Italy in America support your nomination of Judge Scalia. Further, we are grateful that, throughout your administration, you have been a good friend of the Italian American community. We especially appreciate your recognition and support of the programs of the Order.

We wish you and your family every future success.

Sincerely,

Dear President Reagan:

We wish to express our deep appreciation and gratitude for your choice of an Italian American to the Supreme Court of the United States.

Italian Americans throughout the nation are thrilled and over-joyed with this landmark decision - the appointment of a member of our ethnic group to this significant position in our government.

The appointment of Judge Scalia to the highest court in the land is an historic occasion and Italian Americans commend you and express their profound gratitude for your wisdom in this appointment.

Judge Scalia is eminently qualified and has the wholehearted support of all Italian Americans as well as the many ethnic groups in the country. Dear Assemblywoman Rettaliata:

Thank you for your recent letter to the President regarding his nomination of Judge Antonin Scalia to be an Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court.

The President chose Judge Scalia because of his distinguished judicial and academic career and after a careful evaluation and investigation conducted by the Attorney General, the President's Chief of Staff, and myself. The President personally met and interviewed Judge Scalia and is convinced the nominee shares the President's views on many important legal issues.

We appreciate your taking the time to express your thoughts on the nomination of Judge Scalia.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear President Reagan:

It was with extreme pleasure that I learned of your decision to nominate Antonin Scalia as the first Italian-American Justice of the United States Supreme Court.

As an Italian-American, I am proud that you have chosen Judge Scalia to sit on our nation's highest court. More importantly, you have selected a jurist of the most scholarly credentials and whose philosophy represents those values that you, I and most Americans of Italian descent share.

I commend you, Mr. President, for this outstanding appointment and for your constant efforts to uphold and further traditional Italian and American ideals.

Sincerely,
