Dear Reverend Bagby:

Thank you for your kind note.

I always enjoy discussing politics and philosophy whether it be in the government or the church. My only prayer is that both continue to stand for ideals that are worth believing in.

It was a wonderful Texas evening and I was a successful turkey hunter the next day.

Many thanks.

Sincerely,

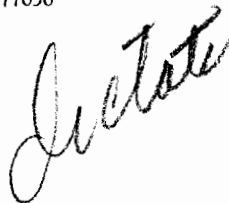

MICHAEL K. DEEVER

Dear Mr. Deaver,

It was a high honor to be seated by you at the Salute to a Stronger America.

If the President of the United States should make a decision with which you might not agree, you would continue to support him. If the General Convention of the Episcopal Church has made a decision with which I do not agree, I continue to support the Church. I have lost many battles in my forty-six years as a priest of the Church, but I always return to fight another day.

Faithfully yours,

The Reverend J. T. Bagby, D. D.

My Dear Sir:

In collecting historical data on Fannin County, Georgia, it is noted that one of her most distinguished citizens was the Honorable Bascomb Sine Deaver, a former Judge of the United States District Court of the Middle District of Georgia, appointed by President Calvin Coolidge in 1928.

It would be greatly appreciated and most helpful to me to know whether or not you are a descendant of or if you are related to Judge Deaver.

With very best wishes to you in your fine work with our President, I am

Dear Mike -

Today is Veterans Day - all federal gov't have the day off - right? Probably wrong for some of you! In any event, I hope today is a good day for you - as well as the others.

The latest news is that our office has completed its move and as you can see by the address, I'm pretty close to home. You may recall the building that once was a kitchen remodeling outlet near Womble's Drug Store and a Shell Station. We purchased the Shell Station property as well as the building so that we have the entire frontage between 46th & 47th facing H. Street. We intend to close the service station next June and develop it

Dear Mr. Dama:

Thank you for your recent message. I appreciate the concern which prompted you to write.

As you may know, President Reagan has made the revitalization of our National economy his top priority. Through a combination of budget reductions, tax cuts, and regulatory reform, the President's Program for Economic Recovery aims at reducing the level of inflation while providing for real growth in our economy.

Although in recent months there has been a downward trend, the level of interest rates continues to be a matter of concern. I was grateful to have the opportunity to review your comments of this topic and you can be sure that they will be brought to the attention of the appropriate members of this Administration.
