Mr. Mike Deaver
White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mike,

I cannot remember when we have received so many accolades for a program. The mail and phone calls have poured in. The ratings and share were superb... far more than 20/20 usually gets in the same time period...much higher than the program which preceded us (and which is usually higher). We received a 32% share of the audience, which is much higher by far than we have ever received before for a Presidential interview. It means that more than one in every three people who were watching television that night were tuned in to our interview. Everyone from Roone Arledge, who didn't see the program until it was aired, to Walter Annenberg called to tell us how happy they were with the program. Most of all, what we heard again and again were compliments for the President... for his ease, his warmth and his wisdom.

Thank you, Mike, for everything you and your staff did. You made us very proud of ourselves.

With affection,

Barbara Walters

Dear Mike:

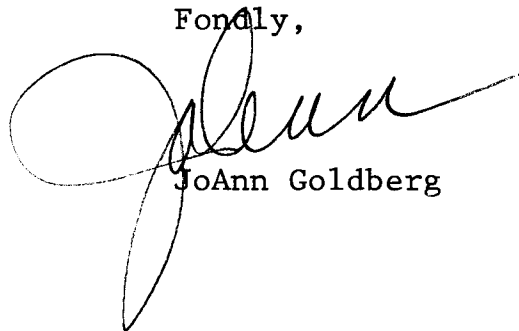

I hope you were pleased with the program. The response in my office was overwhelmingly favorable. The ratings were excellent and so were the reviews. Would you like to have cassettes for your files? If so, three-quarter inch or one half inch and where shall I send them?

It was, as they say, a pleasure doing business with you... and, as they rarely say, very nice knowing you.

I plan to be in New York over the holidays so please let me know if there is anything I can do to help with your family's visit. Tickets? Babysitters? Cars? Earmuffs? A kind word?

Thank you for your help.

Fondly,

JoAnn Goldberg

Dear Mike:

Please tell President Reagan to have courage -- and hang in there!

Don't give in to the controllers. We will NEVER have a better opportunity to stand up to the unions. If we lose this opportunity, we may not get another one for years. There is a big difference between what the union leaders want and what the union members want. I live in a strong union area -- and Senator McClure was told, by union members who could get no help from their union president, "We are against anyone FOR OSHA, and that includes Senator Frank Church, AND our union president. If we have to elect a new president -- or get a new union -- we will, but we are going to get rid of OSHA."

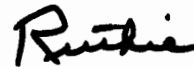

This was the union at the Bunker Hill Mine and Smelter (now closing), which is the second largest employer in the state of Idaho. Those union members said, "The more the company has to pay in fines to OSHA and EPA, the less they can pay us."

Another group of union men, in the lumber industry -- lumber mill workers -- chartered their own bus to go to a wilderness hearing in Boise, just so they could tell Frank Church, in person, "We don't need any more wilderness. We have enough wilderness areas. You are closing our mills, and costing us our jobs -- we don't WANT any more wilderness!"

The union MEMBERS are really beginning to see the whole picture. The UNIONS are losing memberships, nation-wide. The union LEADERS are desperate to hang on to THEIR jobs!

Don't be fooled by that. The men aren't.

Sincerely,

Ruthie Johnson

P. S. When the union leaders came out of the meeting today (Wednesday, Dec. 2) after President Reagan spoke to them, they were just as arrogant as the president of PATCO -- when he thought he had President Reagan over a barrel. He was terribly surprised, to discover how strong the President could be, and the support the President had in the country.

Don't back down now!!!!

Dear Mike:

I think this is the biggest fuss about absolutely nothing!

What did they expect you to do -- give your business away? Isn't the logical person to sell it to your partner? And who has enough cash sitting around to buy a business outright? ANYONE would be expected to pay payments on any business they buy! So what's the big deal?

Although we in this country have strayed from the time when a 'man was as good as his word,' there are still some honorable men left in this world. I think I'm a pretty good judge of character, too -- because I'm married to one (Wayne Johnson); I work for one (Jim McClure); and there are three others I'd stake my life on: Ronald Reagan, Mike Deaver, and Pete Hannaford.

Sincerely,

Ruthie

Another aide got payments

WASHINGTON (AP) — Michael K. Deaver, one of President Reagan's top three aides, has been receiving deferred payments on the pre-inaugural sale of a firm which, at the same time, bought out a similar enterprise headed by national security adviser Richard V. Allen.

Senate records show that since the Reagan administration took office, the firm, the Hannaford Co., Inc., has quadrupled the number of domestic and foreign groups for which it is a registered lobbyist.

DEAVER WAS A 40-percent owner of Hannaford, which in January bought out a similar firm, Potomac International Corp., headed by Allen. The national security adviser, who just took a "leave of absence" in the wake of an investigation over his receipt of $1,000 from Japanese journalists, also received deferred payments in his part of the deal.

The payments to Allen prompted questions about possible conflicts of interest in meetings between the national security adviser and past clients of Potomac International Corp., which now belongs to Hannaford, Inc.

On Sunday, Allen announced that he was taking a leave of absence from his White House post while the Justice Department completes a preliminary investigation of his receipt of $1,000 from two Japanese journalists who interviewed first lady Nancy Reagan on Jan. 21.

ALLEN, APPEARING on NBC's "Meet the Press," said the Hannaford Co. had "satisfied" its debt to him in recent days. He did not provide any details, but NSC spokesman Peter Dailey said Hannaford had just recently paid Allen $50,000 to terminate the debt.

Deaver, who reportedly wants Allen to resign, could not be reached for comment Monday on his financial arrangement with the Hannaford Co., which is headed by his former partner and one-time Reagan speechwriter, Peter Hannaford.

In his financial disclosure statement, filed last February, Deaver said he sold his 40 percent interest in the public relations firm to Hannaford for between $15,000 and $50,000 in January 1981, just prior to Reagan's swearing-in.

DEAVER ADDED that "payments to be received in future months will not exceed $50,000. Such payments are es-entially for buy-out of interest and do not require the rendering of current service."

Hannaford has refused to comment on his financial relationship with either Allen or Deaver.

According to Justice Department files, the Hannaford Co. is a registered foreign agent for the Taiwan government and for a conservative business group in Guatemala.

Dear Mr. Lewin:

I have just received your letters from Mr. Justin Dart and I want you to know how much I appreciate hearing from you. The comments and proposals of dedicated individuals like you add a needed balance to our deliberations here in Washington. I will be sure to discuss your views with the appropriate members of the White House staff.

Dear Mr. Wiesman:

Thank you for your recent letter. It was good to hear from you again.

Certainly the problems which face our Nation are difficult ones. As the Federal Government has grown larger and more burdensome, we have witnessed the zone of liberty for individuals and communities diminish and our economic productivity decline. Reversing these trends will not be easy, nor can it occur overnight. Although this Administration has already made unprecedented reductions in both the Federal budget and tax rates, more will need to be done.

Our goal must be a simple one: to return America to the principles of liberty and independence which made her great. Our success will depend upon the vision and strength of the American people. Throughout our history, the vitality of the American Republic has depended upon the desire of the people of our Nation to establish justice and to defend liberty. Ultimately, the success of popular government must rest upon the vitality of the people. I believe that Americans still strongly desire liberty and the ability to control their own lives and to have a voice in governing their communities. Though at times the choices will be difficult, our people will hold firm to the course which will revitalize our Nation and provide for a new era of greatness for America.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Dear Michael:

The issue I am writing about is nothing new to anyone at your level. But hearing about it again from someone exposed to the daily life of a community may add food for thought. At least I hope so.

We may be losing the battle in 1982 and '84 due to the often-discussed ignorance of millions of voters when it comes to economic matters.

I attended a conference on how to cope with cuts related to programs for the elderly this week. We heard from a cross-section of people at the local level. I finally had enough and said, "The next one saying "Now that Reagan has taken away our money" will cause me to leave this meeting." shocked some people.

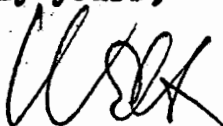

I mention just this one example without going into great detail. This attitude is rampant. Cities and even states are only now becoming aware just how much they depended on federal assistance, even for the most fundamental matters of purely local concern.

When speaking to the state-wide board of directors of a major bank holding company in Birmingham recently, I posed the question, "Did you really mean it last November?!" Even though I found amazed looks directed at me for a moment, I had quite a few comments after the speech about "the need to face up to reality."

Mike, after nearly 30 years of speaking - and usually at the level of just plain citizens - I have known about our "superficial" conservatism, or at least had every reason to suspect it. The chips are really down for the first time. "They" may have meant it, but did they have the comprehension of what it would and must mean?!

With all good wishes.

Sincerely yours,

If you have a chance, please convey our best to Helene.

Dear Mr. Deaver:

I thought that you might be interested in having a copy of the 1981 World Series Official Program in case you have not already seen one.

The Program has a very interesting Presidential article on pages 23-29.

We have fond memories of Baseball Day at The White House on March 28th of this year. Everyone was so nice to us on that occasion.

With best personal regards.

Sincerely yours,

Edward W. Stack

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Sholin:

Thank you for your nice letter. Yes, I certainly do remember the Sunday before I left for Washington and the lovely service at All Saints Memorial Episcopal Church in Sacramento.

We thank you for your wholehearted support and for your prayers.

I appreciate the time you took to make me aware of your views.

Sincerely,

MICHAEL K. DEEVER
Assistant to the President
Deputy Chief of Staff

Mr. Mike Deaver:
c/o The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Deaver:

In watching Barbara Walters TV interview with President Ronald Reagan last night and seeing you during one portion, my wife, Florence, and I were reminded of the Sunday just before you left for Washington. Perhaps you will recall the service at All Saints Memorial Episcopal Church in Sacramento that morning when Florence, who shares choir leadership with me, offered a soprano solo.

Following the service, during the coffee hour, I had the pleasure of talking to you briefly and introducing Florence. At that time I said our prayers would be with you and the President. This letter is to confirm and assure you that our prayers are sustained continually in your behalf.

Florence and I are wholeheartedly in support of everything that President Reagan is attempting in his administration. We admire the strength he displays, both spiritually and physically. His firmness in critical situations and his compassion for people, regardless of pressures, made him a great Governor in California and we believe he will be remembered as one of the finest Presidents this country has ever had.

As a retired government employee, I can fully appreciate the President's concern with excesses, red-tape, and waste. His handling of the Air Traffic Controller's strike showed courage. A weaker stand could certainly have snowballed through government agencies with interruptions of needed services everywhere. Government employees must be people of their word and deliberate violations of pledges should not be tolerated.

Please be assured that our prayers for you and the Administration will continue unabated. Extend to President Reagan and his wife, Nancy, our love and deepest regards. Even though we have never met, we consider them to be personal friends.

God bless you and keep you,

Sincerely,

George (and Florence) Sholin

Dear Mr. Davis:

Thank you for your recent message. It was good to hear from you again.

I appreciate your concern for the success of the Administration. You and I have labored for many years to advance the principles of a free society and limited government. Certainly, our primary consideration must be the implementation of President Reagan's programs and policies.

I value your perspective as one who has long worked on the local level. As we struggle to develop policies for the Nation, you will see their effects on the community and enlist the aid of individuals. The views of dedicated people in your position add a needed balance to our deliberations here in Washington.

Again, thank you for your letter.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

MICHAEL K. DEAVER

Dear Mike:

Remembering you as executive secretary of our Santa Clara County Republican Central Committee, may I offer a thought to you as a key member of President Reagan's staff?

The usefulness of both Stockman and Allen has passed. The public image of the Reagan presidency here at the grass roots is being injured.

Don't let too much time elapse before these two leave the front lines of the Administration. President Roosevelt survived because he knew when to replace men who had erred.

We all know that Ronald Reagan is the kindest and most thoughtful President this nation has had since Dwight Eisenhower. But there are times to act quickly and decisively. Richard Nixon probably could have survived Watergate if he had acted quickly -- disowning those who had participated in the scandal -- rather than waiting until the scandal had time to ferment and poison the minds of the American people.

As you must have guessed, I have supported Ronald Reagan every step of the way -- in his race for Governor and his campaigns for the Republican nomination for the Presidency. This is the only time in my life that I have felt that a man occupies the White House who totally reflects my philosophy and my aspirations for this country.

Let's show the door to those who would tarnish President Reagan's public image. President Reagan has made an excellent start in solving the economic problems of this nation. I would hate to see this noble effort fail because of the stupid mistakes of Stockman and Allen.

Keep up the good work,

Bob Davis

Dear Mike:

I want to tell you again how much I enjoyed visiting with you when I was at the White House several weeks ago. I was so happy to see you and you were most gracious to give me the beautiful cuff links, which I treasure very much, and Martha was delighted with the lovely jelly bean jar.

Thank you also, Mike, for letting me visit the Oval Office and be with you when the President and Senator Laxalt got off the helicopter. It was really a day I will always remember and cherish.

The President called me the Sunday after my return to tell me a thought he had regarding "Above and Beyond the Call of Duty". His idea was very good and I am most grateful for his continued interest in this project.

I am also most grateful, Mike, for your continued friendship. You are making such an important contribution to the Administration and we are all mighty proud of you.

Martha joins me in sending love to you and Carolyn.

As always,
