Dear Mr. Tucker:

Thank you for your April 30th letter to Mr. Deaver requesting a copy of the President's radio address on education. That speech as well all official statements, addresses and releases issued by the President are published in the Weekly Compilation of Presidential Documents. Individual subscriptions to this publication are available at a cost of $35.00 per year from the Superintendent of Documents, United States Government Printing Office, Washington, DC 20402. Your local library may maintain a subscription to this publication.

With best wishes and kind regards,

Sincerely,

Dear Michael:

Some weeks ago you sent me three of The President's Saturday morning addresses. I appreciated them so much. I wonder if you could now send me some more? Especially the one this morning on Education. You see, my wife is a teacher with 29 years under her belt and was impressed with his remarks.

I know there has been a report done for The President by a special task force on education. All we here is what a biased press wants us to hear. Mike, can you send my wife and me a copy of that report? We will make the best possible use of it.

Kindest personal regards.

Sincerely,

Ralph W. Tucker

Dear Bob:

Thanks for letting me know that you considered the briefing successful. We were very pleased with the meeting, too.

I agree that Bob Tuttle did a good job putting this together, and I am forwarding a copy of your letter to him for his information.

Sincerely,

Dear Mike:

Just a quick note to let you know that the "Reaganite"
briefing of April 20 was most informative and long overdue.
I cannot urge you enough to continue these and keep us informed -- particularly during the coming months.

I believe Bob Tuttle was coordinator for this event.
He, or whoever was responsible, did an excellent job.

With my best wishes I remain,

Most sincerely,

Dear Mike,

Sorry to impose on you again but I'd very much appreciate your slipping the enclosed photo by President Reagan for his signature. It's for a friend of mine, Russell S. Codman, Jr., President of the New Hampshire Chapter of the Society of the Cincinnati; the shot was taken in Washington at Anderson House on February 21 of this year.

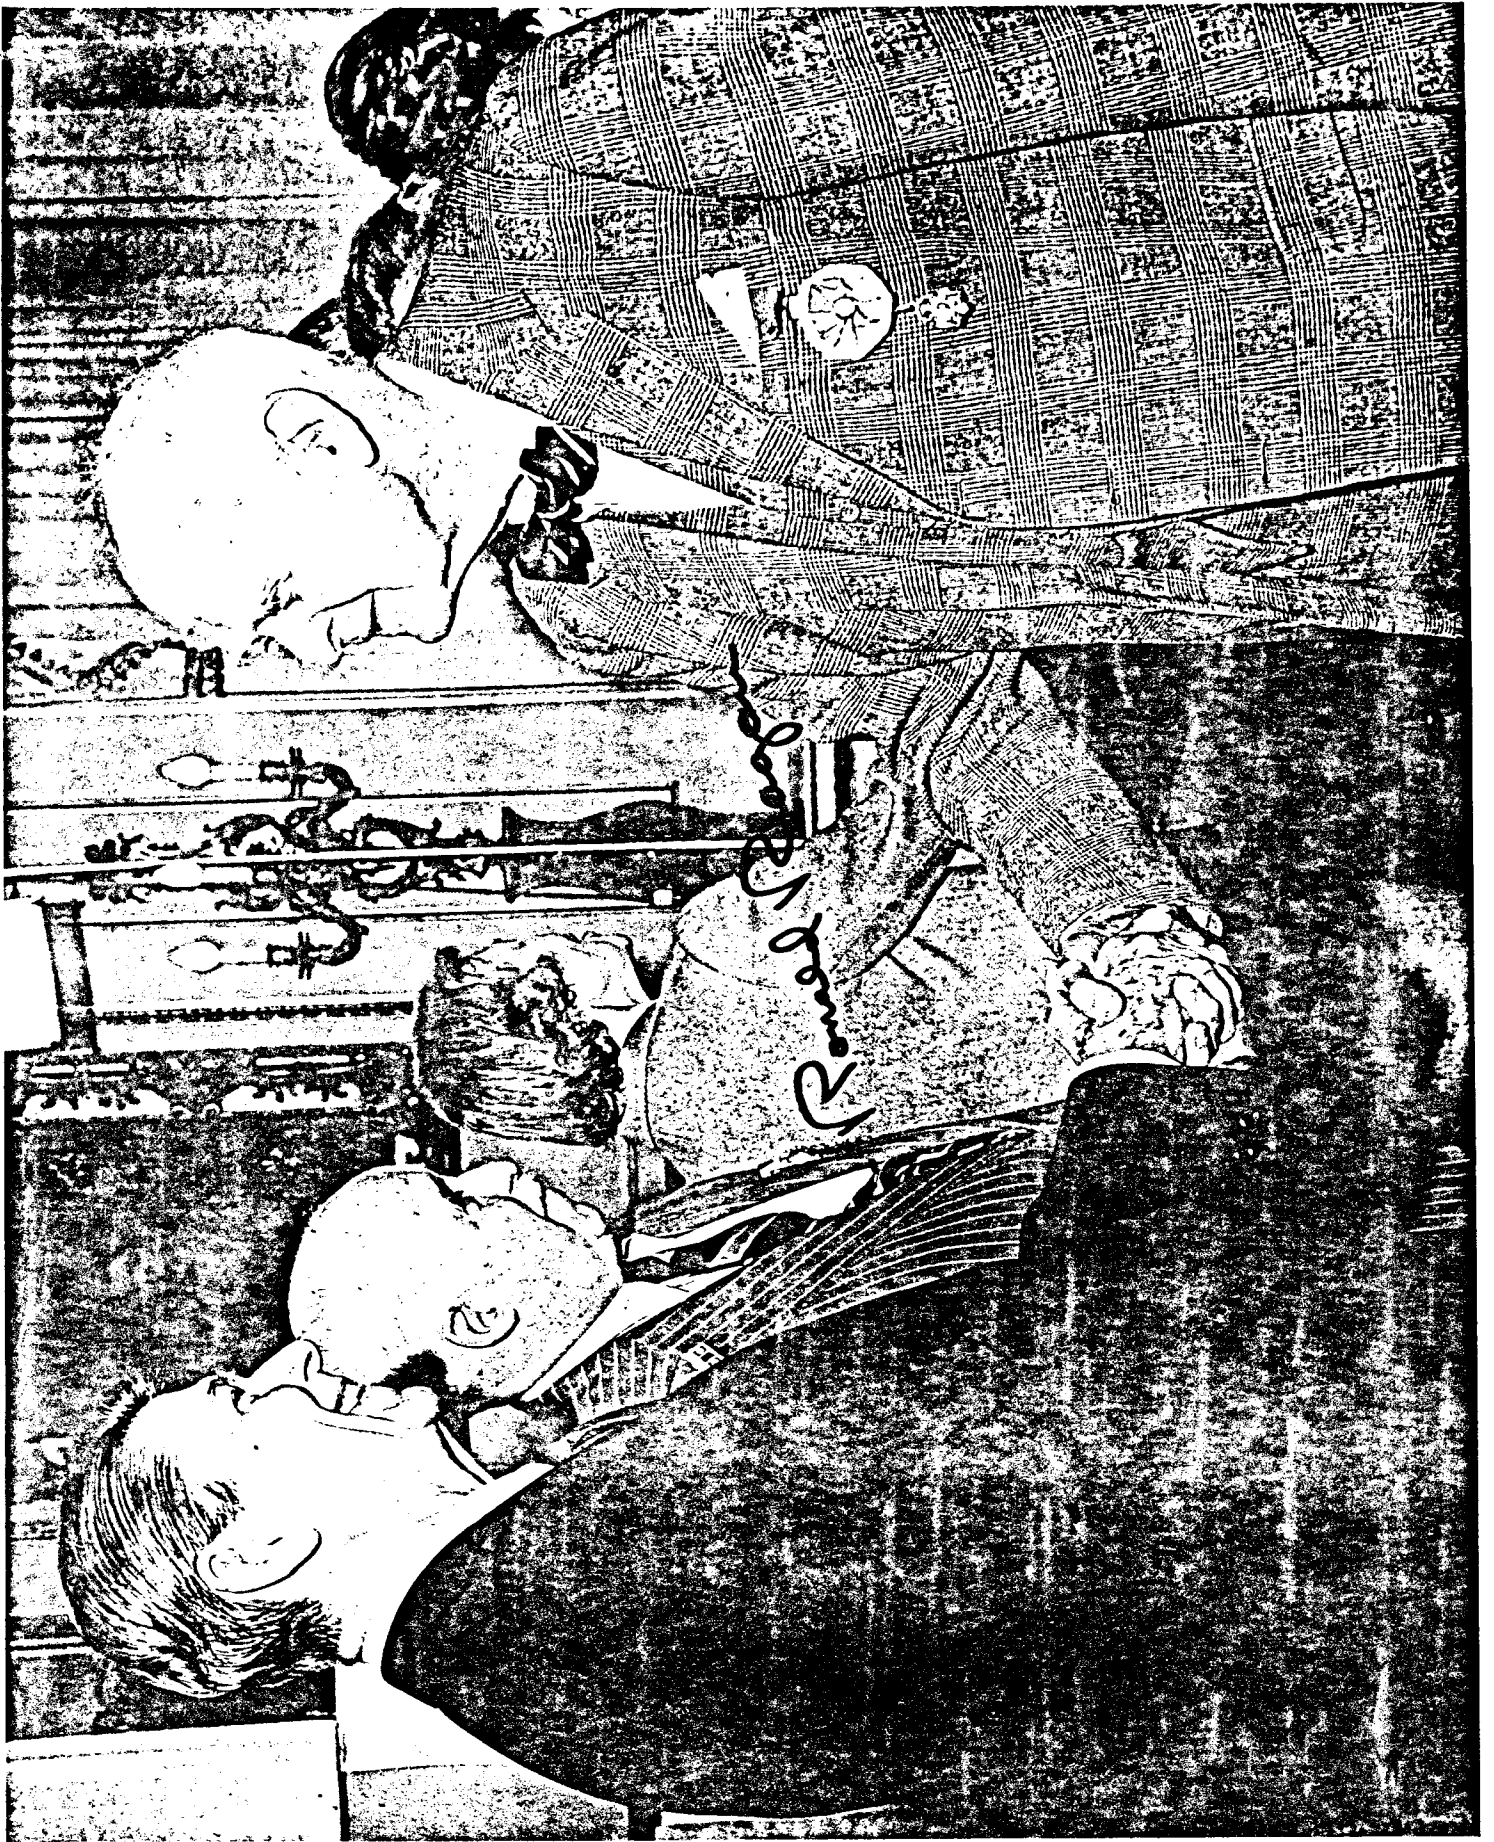

Anything you can do, Mike, will -- as always -- be appreciated.

The Honorable William Clark
National Security Advisor
The White House

Dear Judge Clark:

As a loyal Reagan supporter, I am concerned that the President's recent televised speeches on the Soviet military and Central America have not received the largest possible audience. The reason for this is that both have been held on Wednesday nights.

As you may know, many churches throughout the South hold mid-week services on Wednesday nights. Among the denominations that hold such services are: Methodist, Presbyterian, Churches of Christ, Church of God, Church of the Nazarene, Assemblies of God, and Seventh-Day Adventists.

The type of people who attend such services tend to be on the fundamentalist side and are natural Reagan supporters. Unfortunately, they miss the chance to hear the President on Wednesday night.

I hope that you will consider changing the time of the President's speeches. Surely a switch to either Tuesday or Thursday is warranted.

Sincerely,

John M. Davies

Dear Mr. Deaver,

After you mentioned that I might have the opportunity to meet briefly with the President I was very excited.

I went around campus for the next few days and had the chance to speak to many more students, and solícite their veivs on the current administration.

I think the President will be happy to hear some good news from the college ranks. Thank you very much for your time. I appreciate the opportunity you have given me.

Sincerely,

Steven Ross

I am certain the President hears the constant reports that there are many college students that are discontented with the Reagan Administration. But I doubt that the President hears the praise that many students give his administration.

After having the opportunity to speak with many fellow students I have summerized the major issues that students feel the President is handling well:

- A. Inflation: He has brought down the inflation rate and has put the country on the road to economic recovery.
- B. Congress: He knows how to work with the Congress and is effective in persuing and accomplishing his goals.
- C. Diplomacy: He is making a strong attempt at perserving world peace. And has a very well respected Secretary of State persuing peace in the Middle East.
- D. Leadership: He is not afraid to stick up for what he believes in. He does what is in the best interest of the country and he is decissive and takes action when necessary.

The First Lady was also complimented for her devoted work with:

- A. Adoptive Grandparent Program
- B. Anti-Drug Crusade

Re: Republican party idea passed to Sen. Laxalt

Good morning, Mike:

Recently passed along an idea I had that I feel so strongly about that it should be further shared.

The Democratic party and all its candidates have been and are repeating over and over that Blacks, Hispanics, and other minorities have no other place to go but to back the Democratic party. Since I was born and raised in Philadelphia I know for a fact that these minorities have a 25-35% group that have made it and are middle-class and upper average Americans.

My idea is to home in on that group by putting together a simple Radio, TV, and Newspaper ad together thru the Republican National committee that has impact. The ad would use the image of President Lincoln as a background and include former Presidents Nixon, Ford, and President Reagan all answering the question:

Does the Republican party want Blacks, Hispanics, and other minorities to join the Republican party? All Presidents answer firmly and positively..

Does the Republican party want Blacks, Hispanics, and other minorities to work within the Republican party and also seek out Blacks, Hispanics, and other minorities to run for political office as Republicans? all answer in the affirmative again.

That's it. It is simple and to the point; it should repeated and repeated. I believe it will immediately do great good for President Reagan and impact greatly on the next election. Hope you discuss it fully in the days ahead...

Cordially,

Bernie Webb
