Dear Ron:

It was nice to see you for a moment in Washington last week at the Citizens for America meeting.

Because Citizens for America and Freedoms Foundation tend to overlap in many directions, I was very hopeful in trying to put them together. As you know, we were successful in merging the American Council for Coordinated Action into Enterprise America and then putting those two into Freedoms Foundation just so there wouldn't be so many different solicitations to business and the faithful.

Bill Simon and I even went so far as to suggest that Lew Lehrman and Jack Hume take over Freedoms Foundation, Enterprise America and ACCA, all of which had been merged so that there would be only one powerful instrument in the marketplace. This thought we were unable to sell. The old cliché, "not invented here," is still with us.

I guess we'll have to let Freedoms Foundation and Citizens for America go their separate ways, but we will do everything possible to help Citizens for America and perhaps to divide some of the work load on a practical basis. We'll do everything we can to cooperate and to minimize as far as possible the duplication of effort.

Warm regards and love to Nancy,

Justin

Dear Mr. Deaver:

Please find enclosed our second "Insights" bonus tape for 1983, The Triple Revolution in Real Estate Finance, by Anthony Downs.

Dr. Downs is a Senior Fellow with the Brookings Institution, and in this essay he describes three profound changes that have radically altered real estate transactions. I think you will find that his insights on the consequences of these changes are both illuminating and highly readable.

We hope you enjoy this latest addition to the "Insights" collection of classic essays.

Dear Mike:

As per my last week's conversation with Donna Bloom of your office, I am enclosing information about Marjorie Bell Chambers.

She ran for Congress from New Mexico on the Republican ticket and was narrowly defeated, and is a political associate of Senator Domenici. She calls herself "mainstream republican", and has a very broad and interesting background. I've known her for several years.

She asked me to contact your office on her behalf. She will be in Washington on September 12th and 13th and would appreciate the opportunity to meet briefly with you. She would like to help the Administration in the area of women's issues.

Please notify my office if you can meet with her.

RE: Oral Roberts City of Faith
Cancer Research Center Dedication

Dear Mike:

This letter will follow up the Cancer Research Center Dedication project which you, Jesse Helms and I discussed in November, 1981.

This project is still alive and has merit for Ronald Reagan because:

1. Cancer strikes one in four families. This means high level of interest on the part of all Americans.
2. The City of Faith is one of the greatest examples of Free Enterprise in the world today, because it is:

$400 million of facilities paid for by private donations without government funds and totally debt free.
3. The one and one half million partners who supported this project with their small contributions are voters who can be voting for Ronald Reagan in 1984 if we give them an added point of interest.

Here's what I want to do to implement the situation:

I want to personally take your advance man to Tulsa in my Lear Jet and let him examine the opportunity. I will go with him and we will keep things low profile. If nothing comes up as potentially detrimental to Ronald Reagan, then the next step is yours.

September 7, 1983

Unless there are some substantial public relations risks, I feel strongly that this is a project worthy of Ronald Reagan's participation.

As a Reagan supporter and a member of Oral's Board of Regents, I want to do all in my power to pull it off.

You will receive a letter of invitation from Oral Roberts. This letter will arrive via Federal Express on September 8, 1983.

I need to come to your office and further explain this project and I will do so at your pleasure.

Sincerely,

Dear Mike:

With the long weekend and certain pressing events behind us, I hope you have had an opportunity to review the submitted request for an East Room or Blair House reception for our Women in Communications conference on September 22.

The goal of the symposium, which will take place at the Commission all day September 23, is to encourage an exchange among women who are business leaders in communications, including female broadcasters, investors, video and film producers and those getting involved in new and evolving communications services.

The reception on the 22nd will be a kickoff event for the conference the next day--appropriate in timing as that is the day the President declared in July as the National Women in Business Day. It would be a mutually beneficial event, I think, and a Presidential drop-in (5 minutes or less) would be a smart step. General media and broadcast media coverage is assured.

I hope you will give favorable consideration to our request.

Personal Advisor and Deputy
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Mike:

It is my understanding that Mr. Kevin Foley is being considered for the position of Chief of Staff to the First Lady.

I have known Kevin for several years and am well acquainted with the fine job he has been doing over the past three years as a member of the advance team for the President and First Lady, and Vice President and Mrs. Bush. Kevin also lent his time and energy to my 1982 campaign for the United States Congress.

It is my sincere hope that you will give careful consideration to Kevin's application for the position he seeks.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Tom Lewis".

Dear Mr. Deaver:

~~_____~~
~~_____~~ These women will be attending the Businesswomen west '83 Conference and would be among those women most likely to support President Reagan. These women are top corporate and entrepreneurial women and the BusinessWomen West '83 Conference will kick off President Reagan's National Initiative on the west coast. This event is sponsored by the University of Southern California's College of Continuing Education, the U.S. Small Business Administration, Defense Contract Administration Services Region, Los Angeles, and the National Association of Women Business Owners. We have invited President Reagan to deliver a keynote address and the SBA has gotten approval to include his name on our brochure as "Special Invited Guest...". Obviously we would be delighted if President Reagan could find time in his schedule to attend this event.

The Conference theme is "Taking the Initiative", with 50+ workshops to assist businesswomen in expanding their opportunities. Some of our speakers include Mary E. Cunningham, V.P. Joseph E. Seagram & Sons, Paula Nelson, author of "Joy of Money", Adele Scheele, author of "Skills For Success". Some co-sponsoring organizations include the California Commission On The Status of Women, Women in Business, The Society of Women Engineers, National Association of Bank Women, Women in Communications, Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, and many more.

I am sure you are aware of the National Initiative Program and most likely USC's commitment, along with SBA, DCASR, and NAWBO in making the kick-off a huge success. President Reagan's support would be a positive statement about his commitment to professional businesswomen.

Sincerely,

Melanie M. Wead
