Dear Mike,

Enclosed a little taste of some Swiss milk chocolate (the world's best and our favorite) along with best wishes for a new year of fulfillment!

I have also enclosed a similar sampling for the President and would be so grateful if you were to see that he receives it.

I hesitate to burden you with another pesty request but I have also enclosed for the President an announcement of my daughter's pending marriage. She was one of "his" pages at the '76 Convention and a volunteer in Los Angeles during the '80 campaign. Would it be possible to arrange a little note with his signature? It would mean much to them and would have a treasured place in their book of remembrance.

Again, as an American and a friend, I want to express gratitude to you for the unselfish contribution that you are making to preserve the liberties that we all hold so dear.

Cordially yours,

Douglas G. Bischoff, President

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

January 11, 1982

Dear June:

Thank you for your thoughtfulness in sending the straw Duck decoy. My collection is growing by leaps and bounds. It was wonderful talking to you and Judy the other night and I must say a very pleasant surprise for me.

I suppose by now that you know I did call Ed and he seemed pleased to hear from me. He's quite an inspiration for all of us, isn't he? I heard from Ronnie and look forward to seeing him back here this year. Everyone is well in the Deaver family and we're looking forward to surviving one more year in Washington. Please give my best to everyone.

Sincerely,

MICHAEL K. DEAVER

Dearest Michael -

At last, I finally got my hands on one of these original duck decoys for you. I hope you are still collecting them. On page 47 of the book enclosed is information regarding the construction. You have to kill your own duck to complete it. The decoy is old & authentic.

All of us are fine & looking forward to a merry Christmas. We were all together w/ the exception of one granddaughter @ Thablersgiving. Judy is grandma again. Her youngest son, Joe, became a papa to Joe, Jr.

Dad is perking along, but mostly house bound. He gets out occasionally.

Were you out here over

Intended for Michael K. Deaver, Deputy Chief of Staff and Assistant to the President; Valued at approx. $10 per memo. From Shirley Moore; Rec'd Christmas 1981; Not rec'd in Gift Unit.

I. handsgiving? I sorta figured you fly out w/ the president!

I have recently been helping the author of the books enclosed do cataloging of her endless research papers in conjunction w/ the local museum. Very interesting indeed.
Write when you have time.

INFORMATION

MEMORANDUM FOR MICHAEL K. DEEVER

FROM: ROBERT M. KIMMITT RMK

SUBJECT: Gift from PRC Ambassador

The National Security Council Staff perceives no objection to your returning the articles intended as gifts by Ambassador Zemin.

The State Department agrees and suggests a letter be sent thanking the Ambassador for his gesture but stating that it is your practice not to accept such gifts.

Merry Christmas!
