Dear Mr. Martin:

You really outdid yourself this time. The ham was delicious, as usual. Our family and friends marvel that anyone in Montana knows so much about ham, when that is fame claimed by the East.

Thank you so much for your thoughtfulness and generosity.

Dear Butch:

Mr. Deaver asked me to thank you so much for the lovely package of Christmas goodies. There certainly was a breath of California when he took the lid off. He said his grandmother used to take him to Dewar's candy store and it brought back many memories. We appreciate your thoughtfulness and generosity.

He has sent the other package to the President and First Lady. I know they will be as pleased as we are.

Thanks again - and thanks for your nice supportive message.

December 21, 1981

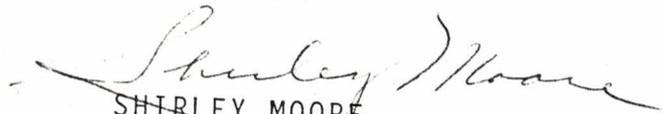

Dear Mr. Pao:

Your generous gift of the bracelet to Mrs. Deaver was very thoughtful and kind. It would please her to keep it as a remembrance of your friendship, but because of her husband's position in the United States government, I am obliged to return it, with her gratitude and respect.

The American Constitution and an Act of Congress prohibit not only federal officials, but also their families, from accepting gifts which are as generous as yours. I realize that customs vary in this regard throughout the world, but I am sure you understand that I must follow the law and custom of the United States.

Thank you again for honoring her with this gift.

MEMORANDUM FOR SHIRLEY MOORE

FROM: FRED F. FIELDING
SUBJECT: Gift -- Shaklee Corporation

The package of vitamins is, we understand, valued at $97.95. This would not be required to be reported on any financial disclosure form if it is the only gift received by Mike this year. The package is in the nature of an advertising sample, but it is not of "nominal value." It also comes from a regulated industry. However, I understand that Mike has no interest in keeping these. Thus, I recommend that the vitamins be returned, with thanks.

Thank you for bringing this to my attention.

Dear Mike:

It was a pleasure to see you once again during my trip to the White House last week. I have passed along your greetings to Mary Falvey Fuller here at Shaklee Corporation.

As you were leaving following lunch, we discussed vitamins briefly, and I am sending you under separate cover a supply of Shaklee's best. I hope that you'll take them with my continued best wishes for health and prosperity in the new year.

With best regards,
