Dear Mr. Garnero:

I was delighted to receive Arthur Moreira Lima's CHOPIN 21 Noturnos. Chopin is a favorite of mine, and I am most anxious to enjoy these records at home.

I, too, enjoyed our meeting in Brazil, and look forward to working with you during our visit to your country.

With best wishes.

Sincerely,

Dear M. De

I wish to express my pleasure in having met with you at the dinner event we both attended to during your recent visit to Brazil. May I comment on the straightforward manner of your examining the themes covering both our countries' interests which were very well accepted by the Brazilian authorities.

We can strongly feel the positive Brazilian public opinion towards the strengthening of relationship between Brazil and the United States. This attitude will surely be confirmed, by the forthcoming visit of President Reagan, which we hope will improve even more during the coming years.

My efforts are now aimed at working along with people of utmost responsibilities within the Government, to aid in objectively accomplishing some of the points brought up during dinner and any others which could be included in the agenda of mutual interests for our countries.

I look forward to seeing you during President Reagan's visit. Meanwhile please accept my best personal regards.

Sincerely,

Mario B. Garnero

I am sending you a record produced by Brasilinvest which I hope you will enjoy.

MEMORANDUM

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

December 22, 1982

TO: MR. DAVID WALLER Senior Associate Consul to the President

FROM: PAT BYE
Adm Assistant to the DCofS

SUBJECT: Receipt of Gift from Amway

Attached is White House Gift Unit form pertaining to the receipt of a gift from the Director of Amway Corp. to Mr. Michael K. Deaver.

Please advise as to the proper disposition.

Thank you.

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

January 7, 1983

MEMORANDUM FOR PATRICIA BYE

FROM: FRED F. FIELDING
COUNSEL TO THE PRESIDENT

SUBJECT: Amway Gift

By your memorandum of December 22, 1982 you requested our advice regarding proper disposition of the gift of certain Amway products received by Mr. Deaver from John Gartland of the Amway Corporation. You indicated that Mr. Deaver has no desire to retain the gift.

It is our opinion that despite the appraised $40 retail value of the gift (which, as you know, consists of powder, body cream, bath soap, etc.), it can be viewed, considering its donor, as an "advertising or promotional" item, receipt of which is not prohibited by Executive Order 11222 or the White House Standards of Conduct (3 C.F.R. 100.735-14).

In view of Mr. Deaver's desire not to retain the gift, there are two options under these circumstances. First, Mike can acknowledge and thank the donor for the gift but designate on our gift form that it be turned over to the government. Alternatively despite the fact that the gift is not strictly prohibited, it can be returned to the donor with a short note, a proposed draft of which we have attached.

Either disposition protects Mr. Deaver from any conflict or appearance thereof. Please notify me of his preference and I will complete the gift form accordingly.

1-12-83
Advised D. Waller
to turn into GSA
P. Bye

Dear Mr. Gartland:

I am most appreciative of the Amway products you forwarded as a holiday gift. The various restrictions regarding receipt of gifts by White House staff members, however, suggest that it is preferable that I not retain the gift. Accordingly, I have asked that it be returned to you.

Again, my sincere thanks for your thoughtfulness and my best wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year.

Sincerely,

Michael K. Deaver

Dear John:

It was certainly thoughtful of you and Mabel to send the "Ronald Reagan" wrist watch for Carolyn. Needless to say, we got a good chuckle out of it.

The numerous rules and regulations governing receipt of gifts by White House staff, however, make it advisable that I return the watch, and I am doing so under separate cover. Please understand that we very much appreciate the thought that was behind the gift.

We hope to see you soon.
