Opera Ball 1983
at
The Embassy of France

Cancelled

April 6, 1983

Carolyn & Mike
Dear Friends of the Opera,

We are delighted to announce that on Friday, June 10, Opera Ball 1983, "Bal des Etoiles," will take place at the Embassy of France. This year's Ball, a festive evening under the stars, celebrates the collaboration of The Washington Opera and L'Orchestre de Paris with a party in the grand style. Ambassador and Madame Vernier-Palliez have graciously offered their magnificent residence for this celebration.

As in the past, Ball subscribers will be invited to dinner at one of the participating Embassies preceding the Ball.

The generous support of Ball patrons continues to play a vital role in the growth and success of The Washington Opera. The 1983/84 season opens on November 5. It will include seven exciting productions, with 63 performances during the three month continuous season in the Kennedy Center Opera House and Terrace Theater.

We hope you will join us for this very special tribute to the stars both in Washington and Paris as we celebrate our "Bal des Etoiles" on June 10. Since attendance will be limited, please reply at your earliest convenience on the enclosed reservation card.

Sincerely,

Antonetti

THE SPIRIT OF SPECIAL OLYMPICS

"In a close 400 meter race one Special Olympian was about to cross the finish line. At the very moment of victory she saw that a friend, also in the race, had fallen. Without hesitation, she turned, ran back, and helped up her fallen friend. Hand-in-hand they crossed the finish line together. This is the Spirit of Special Olympics."
