MICHAEL DEEVER: KEY SUPPORTERS MEETING
FRIDAY, JUNE 24, 1983

The President has stirred up quite a ruckus with his idea of merit pay for teachers. Just wait till he proposes it for Congressmen.

Alan Cranston, of course, is riding the nuclear war issue. What can I say about Cranston, he looks like he's a victim of nuclear radiation.

I don't know why the environmentalists are always after James Watt. He was raised by a family of eagles -- even then he was bald and squawked a lot.

And he wasn't born, he was hatched.

There's still stories going around about friction on the White House staff. There isn't any more friction on the White House staff than there is on the Chicago City Council.

There's been a lot of speculation in the press about who gave us that copy of Jimmy Carter's debate book . . . it was Amy.

And why shouldn't she? She wrote it.

MEMORANDUM FOR ED MEESE
JIM BAKER
MIKE DEEVER

THRU: KEN DUBERSTEIN

FROM: M. B. OGLESBY, JR. MO
RANDALL E. DAVIS RD

SUBJECT: Women's Issues

On March 23, 1983, the President met with Republican women Members of Congress to discuss issues of particular importance to women. A number of these Members are very disappointed about the apparent lack of progress by the Administration in addressing these issues.

We recommend that the President have another meeting with this group to discuss the progress that has been made in this area. If it is not possible to have a meeting with President in the near future, we would recommend a meeting with senior staff.
