MEMORANDUM FOR MIKE DEAVER

FROM: DAVE GERGEN
SUBJECT: Coming European Trip

Jack Smith, Bureau Chief of CBS, called this evening with two concerns about the coming trip:

-- Whether Serrafin's crew is in effect knocking off other network teams who would like to go (I assured him this was not the case).

-- Whether Serrafin/Knowles would obey the rules that any news flowing from such a trip is either off-the-record or should be shared with all networks. (I said I would check with you but thought that CBS and NBC would be protected).

Smith would also like to see if the regular pre-advance can be set up prior to May ("historically we have needed more than 4 weeks to set up," he said).

MEMORANDUM FOR MICHAEL K. DEEVER

FROM: WILLIAM P. CLARK WPC

SUBJECT: Official Invitation for the President to address the German Bundestag

The German Embassy has delivered the attached (Tab A) formal invitation to the President to address the Bundestag on June 9. We have agreed with the Embassy that the invitation will not be made public until we make a final decision and the President formally replies to the invitation.

Invitation

COURTESY TRANSLATION

Mr. President:

The Federal Minister for Foreign Affairs has informed me that you will be visiting the Federal Republic of Germany to attend the meeting to be held in Bonn on June 10, 1982, by the heads of state and government of the member countries of the North Atlantic treaty organization.

In agreement with the parliamentary groups of the German Bundestag, I should like to invite you to speak to the members of the Bundestag on June 9, 1982, on the eve of the conference. The Bundestag would consider it a great privilege to be able to welcome the President of the United States of America.

It is therefore a special honour for me, Mr. President, to extend this invitation to you to visit the Bundestag and to address its members during your visit to Bonn.

Accept, Mr. President, the assurance of my highest consideration.

(sgd.) Richard Stuecklen

THE AMBASSADOR
OF THE
FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF GERMANY
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Dear Mr. President,

I have the honor to transmit to you the following message from the President of the German Bundestag, Richard Stuecklen:

"Sehr geehrter Herr Präsident, der Bundesminister des Auswärtigen hat mich wissen lassen, daß Sie im Zusammenhang mit dem Treffen der Staats- und Regierungschefs der Mitgliedstaaten der Organisation des Nordatlantikvertrages in Bonn am 10. Juni 1982 die Bundesrepublik Deutschland besuchen werden.

Ich stimme mit den Fraktionen des Deutschen Bundestages überein, Ihnen die Bitte vorzutragen, am 9. Juni 1982, am Vorabend der Konferenz, vor den Mitgliedern des Deutschen Bundestages zu sprechen. Der Deutsche Bundestag empfindet es als Auszeichnung, den Präsidenten der Vereinigten Staaten von Amerika bei sich begrüßen zu können.

Es ist mir daher eine besondere Ehre, Sie, sehr geehrter Herr Präsident, einzuladen, im Rahmen Ihres Aufenthalts in Bonn dem Deutschen Bundestag einen Besuch abzustatten und das Wort an seine Mitglieder zu richten.

Genehmigen Sie, sehr geehrter Herr Präsident, den Ausdruck meiner ausgezeichneten Hochachtung.

gez. Richard Stuecklen"

A courtesy translation is attached.

Respectfully yours,

26th March, 1982

Dear Mr. Coe,

I understand from a number of eminent people in Britain who have attended the National Prayer Breakfast that you are well placed to help me in approaching President Reagan about the possibility of a filmed interview for BBC Religious Broadcasting Department.

I believe that the opportunity to trace the religious insight, inspiration, and experience that sustain the President in his life would be a marvellous anticipation of his visit to Great Britain in June. It would provide an opportunity for a deeper understanding of the motivating forces of the President and would be a bold illustration of the power of faith in the most important job in the world today.

Our programme is called "Heart of the Matter" and is a 35 minute film series from the Religious Department of BBC Television. It will be transmitting on Sunday evenings on the major BBC channel from the 16 May to 27 June. It is now in its fourth series and has achieved a high reputation for the quality and honesty of its reports. Last year's film on the dilemma of Irish Catholics on hunger strike won the Current Affairs Award for Religious Broadcasting, and I believe that an understanding of the President's personal discovery of faith would be of immense value to the audience we have built up over the years.

Should the President feel that this might be a worthwhile project for his consideration, I would wish to transmit the interview on Sunday, 6 June - the eve of his arrival in England. Clearly we are now under some pressure of time, and I would most like to film towards the end of April, although we are, of course, entirely adaptable to President Reagan's own schedule. If you think it would facilitate in any way the successful achievement of such a venture, one of us would gladly fly to Washington to discuss our hopes and intentions further.

*With kind regards and every blessing.

Dear Monsignor Monduzzi:

On behalf of our entire group I would like to thank you for receiving us. The meeting was very valuable and gave us all good insights into the details of President Reagan's upcoming visit to the Vatican.

Mr. Wilson has told me of your long service as Regent of the Pontifical Household. I do not have such an exalted title but my job as Deputy Chief of Staff is similar to yours in many respects, and I can understand the pressures under which you work.

I hope in turn that you will understand some of the pressures we work under and will be patient with us as we approach June 7th. I know that you have prepared several Presidential visits and can probably anticipate better than we the type of questions we will ask and the requests we will be making of your office.

We will be sending a final advance team to Rome in the second half of May. They will at that time wish to work very closely with your office in preparing a detailed schedule for the President's visit.

As I mentioned to you in our meeting the President's audience with the Holy Father will be the highlight of his European trip. I know the President's visit to Vatican City will be a big success and on behalf of the President I want to thank you and your staff in advance for all your assistance.

Dear Jim:

Please accept my gratitude for your assistance to me on our recent survey trip to Europe.

I'm always impressed by the professionalism of the USSS and I certainly wasn't disappointed last week.

My sincere thanks.

Sincerely,

MICHAEL K. DEEVER
