MEMORANDUM FOR MIKE DEEVER

THROUGH: BILL SITTMAN
FROM: SHEILA TATE
SUBJECT: MRS. REAGAN'S CONVENTION INTERVIEWS

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 22

When Mrs. Reagan visits the convention floor Wednesday afternoon to familiarize herself with the podium from which she will speak Wednesday night, she will tape a 10-minute interview with CBS (probably Bill Plante) for use that evening.

After her remarks to the delegates Wednesday night we are planning to put AP writer, Larry Knudsen, in her limosine for an interview on the trip back to the Anatole.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 23

From 2:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m., Mrs. Reagan will tape three 10-minute interviews in succession with each network morning show for use Friday morning and one with CNN which is providing extensive convention coverage and drawing huge audiences:

ABC - David Hartman (Amy Hirsh, contact)
NBC - Bryant Gumbal (Margie Lehrman, contact)
CBS - Diane Sawyer or Bill Kurtis (Jim Miller, contact)
CNN - Bernard Shaw (Gail Evans, contact)

From approximately 8:00 p.m. to 8:18 p.m., Mrs. Reagan will visit the anchor booths at NBC and ABC to be interviewed during the live coverage before the President's acceptance speech:

8:02 p.m. - 8:08 p.m. - Tom Brokaw (Bill Wheatley, contact)
8:10 p.m. - 8:18 p.m. - Peter Jennings (John Armstrong, c.)

Mrs. Reagan will have had a pre-convention interview with Helen Thomas, UPI, at 2:30 p.m., Thursday, August 16 at the White House, and with Marilyn Schwartz, Dallas Morning News, for a "High Profile" piece to appear on the morning of August 22.

President Ronald Reagan
The White House
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. President:

The Texas Rangers of the American League will be playing the Chicago White Sox in Arlington Stadium, just halfway between Dallas and Fort Worth, on August 20, 21 and 22 at 7:30 p.m. Fran and I would very much like to have you and Mrs. Reagan attend a ball game and sit in the owner's box with us.

I know how very busy you will be, and how difficult it is for you to move from place to place, but I just wanted you to know you are invited. Your presence at such an event would be a great thing for the whole State of Texas, one that would certainly get lots of good publicity.

Our stadium is comparatively small, in an area that is easily protected. We have a parking lot of about 125 acres, which would provide ample space for a helicopter to land. The owner's box can be well protected and could be equipped with bullet-proof glass if necessary. We would, of course, like to have you throw out the first ball, but I am sure that would involve far too much exposure.

I feel somewhat apologetic about even inviting you to do this when your time is so valuable, but Fran and I both want you and Mrs. Reagan to know how important you are to us, and we want to do anything possible to help you in your reelection effort.

Our very, very best wishes and much love to you both. If there is anything at all we can do to help you during your Dallas visit, please let us know.

Sincerely,

H. E. Chiles

MEMORANDUM FOR MICHAEL K. DEEVER

FROM: MICHAEL A. McMANUS, JR. makm

SUBJECT: 1984 Republican National Convention

Attached is the list of people from your office which we have agreed will travel to the Convention as part of the White House Group. We will arrange the travel plans for these people and will make their hotel room assignments at the Anatole Hotel.

All of those people who do not regularly travel with the President on Air Force One will be departing Washington on Tuesday, August 21st from National Airport on Braniff #55 at 1:25 p.m. This flight also stops at Dulles departing there at 2:00 p.m. and arrives in Dallas at 4:15 p.m. Transportation will be provided from the Dallas Airport to the Anatole. Everyone will be pre-registered and will have information packets in their rooms as with any Presidential trip.

Assistants to the President will be provided with cars out of a motor pool. We encourage all others to use the readily available shuttle bus which will operate between the Anatole Hotel and the Convention Center. Information on passes and tickets to the center will be provided later.

Each Assistant to the President is also invited to bring his or her spouse.

Transportation back from Dallas for those not traveling with the President will be on Friday, August 24th departing Dallas Airport on Braniff #52 at 11:00 a.m., arriving at Dulles at 2:55 p.m.. and then onto National Airport arriving at 3:25 p.m.

We would appreciate it if you would check with the other members of your staff and let us know if they are planning to attend the Convention. If they are, the following information regarding their itinerary would be helpful:

- o dates of arrival and departure in Dallas;
- o who is paying for travel and accommodations,

- o where they are staying, and
- o their responsibility while at the Convention.

Please provide this information to Margie Crawford, extension 6687, by close-of-business Thursday, July 12th. This will avoid any White House member arriving in Dallas without accommodations or other travel arrangements.

Thank you for your cooperation.

MEMORANDUM FOR: THE HON. MICHAEL MCMANUS

FROM: WILLIAM E. TIMMONS BT

SUBJECT: Convention Program

It occurs to me we should try to work into the program several Senators who are in some re-election jeopardy. Therefore, I propose:

1. Sen. Percy to introduce the Cabinet members who will be seated in their VIP box. Maybe Monday.
2. Sen. Jepsen to introduce any Olympic winners who may be in a VIP box. Monday.
3. Rep. Gramm to nominate the Vice President on Wednesday.
4. Sen. Cochran to introduce the Vice President for his Acceptance Speech on Thursday.
5. Sen. Helms to introduce the U.S. Marine, wounded in Lebanon, who was dramatically visited in the hospital by General P.X. Kelly. Monday or Tuesday.
6. Sen. Goldwater be programmed for a five-minute speech segment on Monday night. This will surely be added later, so I recommend we do it now.

Rather than have a convention meeting, will you check this with all White House parties concerned?

Thanks, Mike.

Dear Sheila:

The TODAY Show would like to extend an early invitation to Mrs. Reagan to be a guest on our program from Dallas during the Republican National Convention in August.

I will be happy to provide details as we get closer to the convention, but I wanted to contact you now in the hope that TODAY could be the first morning program to talk with the First Lady in Dallas.

I will call you after you've completed the European trip so that we can talk further.

Sincerely,

Margie

FOR: MRS. REAGAN
FROM: SHEILA TATE
SUBJECT: Convention Interview Request

I have talked with Larry Speakes about helpful convention interviews and, since the President is having interviews with both Dallas papers the week before the convention, we think the attached request ought to be turned down.

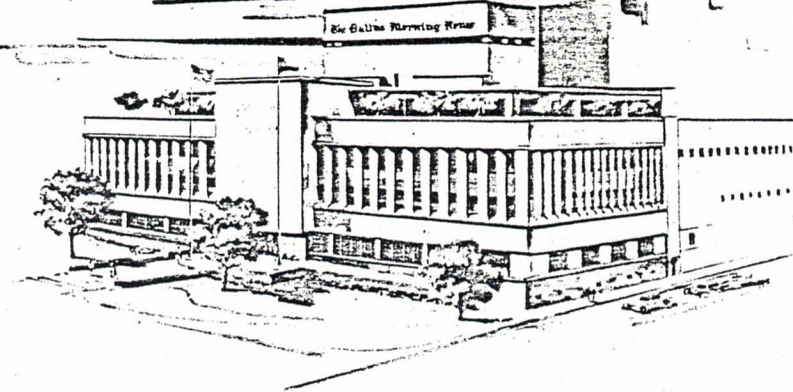

We'd like to "save" you for other opportunities.

Ms. Sheila Patton Tate
Press Secretary to the First Lady
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Sheila:

As I told you earlier today on the phone, The Dallas Morning News would like to interview Mrs. Reagan for a special "High Profile" section that we are planning to run during the Republican National Convention.

The interview would be conducted by Marlyn Schwartz, and we like the idea of timing the article for the paper of August 22, which would be the morning of the salute to Mrs. Reagan at the convention.

We would be able to meet our deadlines with an interview at the White House on Thursday August 16 or Friday August 17, though we would naturally prefer an earlier date. Ms. Schwartz is planning to be in California to cover the August 14th wedding of Patti Davis and would be interested in any possible access to Mrs. Reagan during that period. However, we understand how busy a period that will be for her.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Carl

First lady Nancy Reagan meets Tuesday in Dallas with members of Texans War on Drugs.

'Mother power' can help win drug war, Mrs. Reagan says

By Maryln Schwartz
Staff Writer of The News

First lady Nancy Reagan was in Dallas Tuesday and called for "mother power" as a major deterrent to drug abuse.

"When a woman gets aroused, watch out," she told committee members of the Texans War on Drugs, meeting in a private luncheon.

"A woman is like a teabag: You never know her strength until she's in hot water. A woman whose child is involved in drugs is in hot water."

The first lady was in Dallas as part of a 2-day anti-drug crusade in Florida and Texas.

In an interview with The Dallas Morning News, she said, "You've got to start your concern over drugs as soon as your child can walk or talk. All you have to do is

The drug problem
"crosses all social,
economic and color
lines."

— Nancy Reagan

go to some of these treatment centers or read in the paper to know that children are sniffing cocaine at 5 years old."

Mrs. Reagan called the drug struggle a "very democratic problem that crosses all social, economic and color lines."

No minorities were apparent among the well-dressed group that dined on pate, asparagus and raspberry sherbet at the luncheon at the Anatole Hotel. Nor were there any at her next stop in University Park where she met with representatives of a group called "Richardson Families in Action."

She acknowledged that she has been meeting just with middle-class whites on this trip. "It just happened that way," she said. "I've talked to many others that are not middle-class whites."

Mrs. Reagan said young people in low-income areas with drug problems face a "whole different set of problems."

"We don't know the answer to those problems yet," she said, "but we are certainly going to figure out something."

Mrs. Reagan said she did not feel cuts in federal funds will have any effect on drug-abuse programs.

"People are emotionally involved in these programs," she said.
