Dear First Family Friend:

If you are unable to attend the 50th American Presidential Inaugural, please disregard this mailgram.

If you are planning to attend any of the Inaugural Events, please note the following procedure for picking up your tickets:

Due to the special seating and other arrangements being provided for friends of the First Family, it has become necessary for us to request that you pick up all of your tickets for the various Inaugural Events at a special site located at the Ambassador Club in the Embassy Row Hotel, 2015 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. Your tickets may be picked up at this location between the hours of 10:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Friday, January 18th, through Sunday, January 20th only. We STRONGLY urge you to pick up your tickets on Friday so as to avoid any delay in your Inaugural Events schedule. (Please note that you do not go to the general "Will Call" area located at the Washington Convention Center.) If you are unable to pick up your tickets in person, your representative must present a letter from you authorizing him/her by name to receive your tickets. That person must also have proper identification.

If you have any questions concerning the above procedure, please call this office at (202) 433-7720. We hope that you are looking forward to a most enjoyable Inaugural celebration.

Sincerely,

Genevieve A. McSweeney

MILITARY AIDE ACCESS TO WHITE HOUSE

Washington, D.C.
20599

202/433-7100

In conversations with the Office of the First Lady, the Chief Usher's Office and the Armed Forces Inaugural Committee, the Protocol Office has reached the following understanding as to the Military Aide, driver and car gaining access to the White House and coordinating First Family member itineraries:

- A schedule of the First Family member requiring Military Aide assistance outside the White House and on White House grounds will be given the Chief Usher's Office.
- The Aide, car and driver will be cleared by the Usher's Office for all movements requiring the Aide or as requested by the First Family members.
- A listing of 24 hour contact numbers will be left with the Chief Usher's Office.
 - Inaugural Operations Center - 433-7866
 - VIP Coordination Center - 433-7330
 - Military Aide Home Number -
 - Director of Protocol Home Number -
- Entry for the Aide, driver and car will be at the South West Gate, South Portico and pick-up in the Diplomatic Reception Room.
- At the end of the day, each Aide will confirm next day pick-up time for the First Family member and will arrive 30 minutes prior to that agreed time.
- All vehicles will be staged at the Navy Yard. All drivers are in barracks at the Navy Yard or at Bolling A.F.B. (There is a 24 hour shuttle between the Navy Yard and Bolling.)

The Protocol Office recommends that this system be approved. This office solicits your suggestions.

The Honorable
Charles Z. Wick
Director, USIA
Room 800
301 Fourth Street, Northwest
Washington, D.C.

Dear Charlie:

Thank you for your call this morning. I spoke with Charles Holker regarding James King and informed him that Saturday Night, January 19, 1985, was fully booked. But, Friday Night, January 18, 1985, would be available. However, Mr. King had a prior commitment and could not accept for Friday Night. Jack Holker was most appreciative of our efforts on behalf of Mr. King.

We are having a tremendous success with our Foreign Sales on the Saturday Night TV GALA. This may be something useful for you to work into your USIA NETWORK for Foreign Broadcasts. The following countries are on our list:

East Germany	Australia	Finland	Turkey
West Germany	Austria	Spain	Greece (declined)
Hungary	Holland	France	Ireland (declined)
Czechoslovakia	Italy	Belgium	Israel
Taiwan	Saudi Arabia	Denmark
Poland	Japan (Pending)	Sweeden

With best wishes:

Sincerely,

Joseph W. Canzeri
