MEMORANDUM FOR MICHAEL K. DEEVER

VIA: RONALD H. WALKER

FROM: RED CAVANEY Red/KH

SUBJECT: 1985 PIC INVITATION/TICKET ALLOCATION

Attached you will find a "rough cut" at an allocation proposal which was developed by Margaret Tutwiler, Karen Hart and myself. It is presented in a "percent of total distribution" format and is based on the historical levels of the 1973 and 1981 Inaugurals. It is envisioned that 400,000 Commemoratives will be printed. The quantities of all other categories and actual invitation list development must await event and site selections.

For the allocation within the 50-states category, we recommend using the RNC formula for delegate selection. This formula takes into account relative state size, percent of Republican office holders in the state, and percent of total state votes accorded President Reagan. The RNC has agreed to update this for us with the 1984 results.

Obviously, these ratios would undergo some adjustment as the fulfillment and capacity figures become more firm. At this juncture, we ask for approval of this general approach. If approved, refined versions, including specific numbers in each category, would be provided for review.

RODGERS, WICK TO WORK ON INAUGURAL

WASHINGTON -- Michael K. Deaver and Ronald H. Walker, respectively the General Chairman and the Chairman of the Committee for the 50th American Presidential Inaugural, today announced Joe M. Rodgers to serve as the Finance Chairman and Mary Jane Wick to serve as a Special Advisor to the General Chairman.

Mr. Rodgers will work to raise the necessary funds to augment the revenue from the sale of tickets to the Gala events and the Inaugural Balls, commemorative items, and television rights, so that the Inaugural is financially solvent. He is the former Finance Chairman of the Republican National Committee, and was Finance Chairman of Reagan-Bush '84. He is the President of JMR Investments in Nashville, Tennessee, where he resides.

Said Mr. Deaver, "Joe Rodgers' hard work on behalf of President Reagan and Republican causes has made him a legend in his own time. We are very fortunate to have him working on behalf of the President's second Inauguration."

Mrs. Wick will advise the General Chairman on all aspects of the Inaugural. The current Finance Chairman of Republicans Abroad, she was Executive Advisor to the Co-Chairman of the 1981 Presidential Inaugural Committee.

Said Mr. Deaver, "Mary Jane Wick's experience in the 1981 Presidential Inaugural will add an element of expertise that will vastly assist this Inaugural. It is very fortunate that we have such a close friend of the President and the First Lady working to assist us this year."

FRANK SINATRA TO CHAIR INAUGURAL GALAS

WASHINGTON -- Michael K. Deaver and Ronald H. Walker, respectively General Chairman and Chairman of the Committee for the 50th American Presidential Inaugural, today announced that entertainment superstar Frank Sinatra would serve as Honorary Chairman of both the American Showcase Inaugural Gala and the 50th American Presidential Inaugural Gala.

In addition to serving as Honorary Chairman and Entertainment Chairman, Mr. Sinatra will perform at the two galas.

The American Showcase Inaugural Gala, which will be held on Friday, January 18, 1985, at the Washington D.C. Convention Center, is billed as a "Salute to the Vice President."

The 50th American Presidential Inaugural Gala, which will be held on Monday, January 21, 1985, at the Washington D.C. Convention Center, is a salute to the President.

Mr. Deaver and Mr. Walker announced today that Joe Canzeri would serve as Gala Chairman working with Frank Sinatra to oversee both the American Showcase Inaugural Gala and the 50th American Presidential Inaugural Gala.

Said Mr. Deaver, "Having Frank Sinatra producing these two events, as well as performing in them, will make them both historic and extremely entertaining. And there is no one who brings such skill to assisting Mr. Sinatra than Joe Canzeri."

Mr. Canzeri, the former Assistant to President Reagan, was for 16 years Executive Assistant to Nelson Rockefeller, during his tenure as both Governor of New York and Vice President of the United States. He is the President of the Canzeri Company, an events management and public relations firm based in Washington, D.C.
