MEMORANDUM FOR MICHAEL K. DEAVER

FROM: WILLIAM HENKEL
SUBJECT: MAGNETOMETERS ON CAPITOL HILL

As of 5:00 p.m. today, the magnetometer situation at the Capitol seems to have been resolved to the satisfaction of the Joint Congressional Inaugural Committee. The Secret Service has agreed to the following:

A total of 66 walk through magnetometers will be dedicated to screening of crowd only. Thirteen magnetometers will be positioned on the North side and thirteen will be positioned on the South Side. These 26 magnetometers will be dedicated to the screening of the 25,000 seated guests and the 10,000 preferred standees.

The remaining 40 magnetometers will be located on the Lower West Drive and will be dedicated to all other spectators. As you know, a total of 145,000 tickets will be distributed. Therefore, these 40 magnetometers are dedicated to approximately 110,000 guests.

The 66 walk through magnetometers will be supplemented by 100 hand held magnetometers. If a serious logjam arises, these hand held magnetometers will be pressed into service.

If the logjam continues, the Service has agreed and committed to opening all magnetometers at 11:30 A.M. and those remaining in line will be permitted to proceed through the gates without being screened. This should insure that all guests will be able to reach their seats or standing areas without difficulty in time for the ceremony.

I have requested that these commitments be confirmed in writing.

Michael K. Deaver, General Chairman of the Committee for the 50th American Presidential Inaugural, today announced the procedures for the general public to purchase tickets to the 1985 Inaugural Parade.

There will be three categories of seats for the Inaugural Parade:

- Reserved seats at $12.50 per ticket;
- Preferred seats at $75 per ticket; and,
- Premium seats at $100 per ticket.

Reserved seats run along the Parade route. Preferred and Premium tickets allow access to a special viewing area on Pennsylvania Avenue across the street from the White House and the Presidential reviewing stand.

Ticket sales will begin Monday, December 17, 1984, and requests will be filled on a first come, first served basis.

Tickets for Reserved seats only will be sold through Ticketron at their outlets across the country or by calling the toll-free number 1-800-445-9574 [States that do not have toll-free 800 service may direct dial (312) 853-3636.]

Tickets for Preferred and Premium seats can be purchased directly from the Presidential Inaugural Committee at (202) 433-7160 or by writing:

Inaugural Parade Tickets
Box 1985
Washington, D.C. 20013-1985

There is no limit to the number of tickets a person can purchase, but all sales are final.

The Inaugural Parade, one of the most colorful and delightful traditions associated with the Inaugural, dates from the first Inauguration of George Washington in 1789.

This year the 50th Presidential Inaugural Parade will take place on Monday, January 21, 1985, beginning at 2 o'clock at the U.S. Capitol and proceeding down Pennsylvania Avenue past the White House. Award-winning bands, marching units, floats and equestrian teams representing all 50 states will participate with military units in the Parade.

Parade participants will be announced at a later date.

The public is encouraged to purchase tickets early to insure a reserved seat.

THE COMMITTEE FOR THE 50TH AMERICAN
PRESIDENTIAL INAUGURAL

Contact: Media Credentials Office
202/433-7775

For Release: IMMEDIATE

Washington, D.C.
20599
202/433-7100

Washington--The Committee for the 50th American Presidential Inaugural is now accepting requests for media credentials for all inaugural events beyond the grounds of the U.S. Capitol. These include the parade, galas, official receptions, concerts, the inaugural balls, and any other official committee events.

The contact office for media credentialing at the committee is:

MEDIA CREDENTIALS OFFICE
COMMITTEE FOR THE 50TH AMERICAN PRESIDENTIAL INAUGURAL
1900 ANACOSTIA DRIVE, S.E. (ROOM 306)
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20599
Telephone: 202/433-7775

The swearing-in ceremonies at the Capitol will be credentialed by the Congressional Press Galleries. Instructions for obtaining credentials from the Congressional Press Galleries are covered in a separate advisory issued by the Galleries.

The Inaugural Committee hopes to make the credentialing process work quickly and smoothly by minimizing the flow of paperwork. To help us do this, please clip and reproduce the following form, and fill out one for each person you wish to have credentialed. Return the completed forms to this office so they arrive not later than December 31, 1984. Incomplete forms cannot be processed, so please be thorough. When you return the forms, include a cover letter on your organization's letterhead, with the name and social security number or campaign pass number (or passport number for foreign journalists) of each person for whom you are submitting a form.

Freelance photographers must include a letter of assignment, on a news organization's letterhead, and signed by an editor.

Foreign news organizations should submit their completed materials directly to:

Tom Swinson, Deputy Director
Foreign Press Center
808 National Press Building
Washington, D.C. 20547
Telephone: 202-662-7115/6/7/8

The information requested is basically the same as that required for inaugural credentials in the past. However, this year we ask that you rank the various events in order of importance to you. This will assist us in allocating space and setting priorities. We urge you to get the cover letter and completed forms to us as quickly as possible. We will try to assign local news organizations to those inaugural balls where their home state delegation is assigned.
