PRESIDENT

CARL SHIPLEY,
CHAIRMAN

December 3, 1984

Honorable Michael K. Deaver
Assistant to the President and
Deputy Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D. C. 20500

Dear Mike:

I was glad to see you are going to take charge of the Inaugural. With you on the job maybe some of the "snafus" of other inaugurations will be avoided, and everyone can have a good time without getting caught up in a mob scene! You are always on the job for America, and I know you are playing an important part in President Reagan's budget "core group" working on deficit-reduction proposals. Nothing is more important for America than working out some way to cut spending without turning the country upside down, so the budget can be reduced without tax rate increases.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mike -

I do not like to bother you with my requests, because I know how pressed you are; but people keep asking me questions regarding the Inaugural. Some are writing the National Committee; however, I am enclosing a small list of seriously interested people, who have expressed their desire to go. Since they may not be on your regular lists; and are loyal volunteers, as well as contributors, would appreciate your sending it along to whoever. Thank you.

Too bad we had rain last week when you were out here - today is beautiful!

P.S. Since this will be my first Inaugural, do we make our own hotel reservations; or will a list of hotels be issued, designating states, etc. ????
