Dear Mike:

Thank you for making the reservations for Laurie and me at the Ritz-Carlton; we really appreciate it.

I talked with Gail Ledwig this morning and she suggested that I send the ticket order form and my check to your office and they are enclosed. Also, if any openings occur for either or both of the galas please put us on the waiting list as we would like to attend if possible.

Thank you again for your help. See you soon.

Best regards,

MEMORANDUM

TO: Michael K. Deaver
FROM: Marc L. Holtzman m
RE: Inaugural Ball Invitations
DATE: December 20, 1984

Knowing how busy you are, I am reluctant to bring this to your attention but I need a personal favor. Enclosed please find a list of twenty-six (26) individuals with whom I worked closely on the 1980 campaign that apparently have not received Inaugural ball invitations. I would be most grateful if you would be kind enough to include these individuals on the appropriate lists to receive Inaugural ball invitations.

I have presented the enclosed list in the form which I believe the Inaugural Committee requires (both on computer disk and in list form).

Thank you very much, Mike.

Dec. 14, 1984

Dear Mike:

A long time since Hollister and Frank Murphy's campaign for the Assembly---good memories!

Wilma and I will be in Washington in January for the inauguration. Of course, we plan to take in the parade, swearing in and other public functions, but we would appreciate it very much if you would let us know the procedure for getting into a "special" event or two.

Any assistance or suggestions would be appreciated.

We're still in Modesto. I'm features editor of the Modesto Bee, and travel and entertainment writer for all three Bees. This trip, though, is strictly for fun. We're combining Washington with a few days with friends in New York.

Holiday greetings, and thanks for anything you can do to help make our stay in Washington a memorable one.

Sincerely,

Walt

WRM FINANCIAL CORPORATION

Mr. Michael Deaver
Deputy Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20520

Dear Mike:

I couldn't have been more over-joyed at the result of the election. I am confident that the President will enjoy a successful second term, provided he can retain his long time aides, such as yourself.

At the moment, I am disconcerted and perplexed with the Treasury Department's tax reform proposals. I am sure that you are kept busy with respect to digesting this material.

Darlene and I and two other couples have confirmed our travel arrangements for the Inaugural. Darlene and I arrive at Dulles in the late afternoon on Thursday, January 17, 1985 and are scheduled to leave the Washington area in the afternoon on Tuesday, January 22nd. We hold confirmed reservations at the Gramacy Hotel.

If you recall, during President Reagan's first inaugural, we traveled in a party with Tommy Walker and the Osmond family. Unfortunately, we will not be so lucky this time. We are in the process of attempting to determine the most efficient manner to obtain tickets to the various events. I was pleased to note your appointment of the Chairman of the Inaugural Committee and could think of no better person to ask for advice and suggestions concerning the purchase of tickets. I would appreciate whatever guidance you can provide, since at the moment, I have no sources for tickets.

As we have both mentioned several times, it would be a welcome opportunity if we could possibly get together during our Washington visit. I recognize that with your normal duties and particularly with a view toward your responsibilities as the Chairman of the Inauguration, your time must be very precious. However, if we could make some arrangement to meet, I would gladly plan my itinerary around your availability. Perhaps it may be easiest for you if we considered the day after the inauguration itself. In any event, I would look forward to your suggestions.

Please let me know at your earliest convenience, your suggestions concerning tickets and your schedule.
