WASHINGTON

Dear Pierre:

You did a truly remarkable job in the preparations and chairmanship of the Ottawa Summit. Largely due to your personal efforts and those of your many countrymen, this Summit was a resounding success, and we all emerged with a renewed sense of common purpose and perspective.

Your idea of holding the Summit at Chateau Montebello was particularly imaginative. That beautiful setting in the Quebec countryside provided all the incentive and informality we needed for these important conversations.

Much that we achieved is a tribute to you personally. On behalf of all members of the U.S. delegation, let me extend to you our warmest appreciation.

Sincerely,

Ron

Dear Pierre:

Just a line to tell you how very grateful I am for your note and for the recording by our mutual friend, Robert W. Service. I am answering before I've even had an opportunity to play it, but I look forward to doing that very quickly. You were more than kind to send this, and I assure you I shall treasure it.

Let me also again thank you for all the great hospitality you and your countrymen gave us at the Summit. I think it was most successful and, in large part, due to your handling of all of the meetings, including the informal dinner meetings.

Again, my heartfelt thanks and best regards.

Sincerely,

COMMENTS

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

December 18, 1981

Dear Pierre:

I want to share with you my satisfaction over two recent events in our bilateral relations.

The passage by the Congress on December 9 of the Alaska Natural Gas Transportation System waivers is a tangible demonstration of U.S. support for the project, based on private financing. It is my hope that with these waivers of U.S. law the project sponsors and producers will be able to arrange with the financial community the necessary financing to ensure the completion of this important project.

Also, the exchange of ratifications on November 20 of our treaty to resolve our differences concerning the boundary in the Gulf of Maine demonstrates once more the ability of our two countries to settle important differences in a cooperative and constructive spirit.

I am sure that our efforts to resolve outstanding economic issues in the same spirit will be met with success.

With best personal regards.

Sincerely,

Ron

MEMORANDUM FOR THE PRESIDENT

FROM: JAMES W. NANCE Bud

SUBJECT: Letter to Prime Minister Trudeau (U)

On December 9 the Congress passed your package of waivers of U.S. law designed to facilitate the private financing of the Alaska Natural Gas Transportation System (ANGTS). When you submitted the waivers to Congress in October, you informed Prime Minister Trudeau of your action. (U)

US-Canadian relations have been troubled in recent months by differences over energy, investment and trade policy. However, two positive steps have been taken: the U.S. and Canada exchanged ratifications of the East Coast Boundary Treaty, and the Congress approved the pipeline waivers. (e)

The enclosed draft letter signals your satisfaction at these positives steps, and notes the need to work on ongoing issues. The State Department and Speechwriters have cleared the text of the letter. (e)

That you sign the letter to Canadian Prime Minister Trudeau at Tab A.
