MEMORANDUM FOR WILLIAM F. MARTIN

FROM: STEPHEN I. DANZANSKY

SUBJECT: Exchange of Letters Between Canadian Prime Minister and the President

In a memo sent to the President last Friday, (#7675), two attachments were enclosed including a draft letter from the Prime Minister to the President and a Presidential response.

Responding to a Canadian request to renegotiate the contents of those letters, we asked Dave Chew to hold the memo until today. Over the weekend, at the State Department's request, we met with the Canadians and each made certain changes in the proposed letters to be exchanged on Tuesday or Wednesday.

State and USTR have approved these alterations and the letters and covering memo (changed to reflect the new dates) are enclosed to forward to Chew as a substitute for the package which is being held in his safe.

Please have Bud resign (or John for him) the memo to the President and forward this to Dave immediately.

Ty Cobb concurs.

RECOMMENDATION

That you obtain signature and forward Mr. McFarlane's memo to the President.
