Director

Dear Pat:

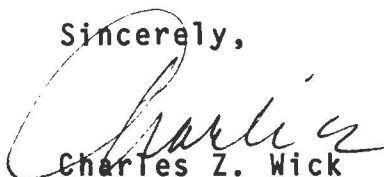

As you know, WORLDNET has enjoyed resounding success in the year and a half it has been in operation. WORLDNET has received unprecedented media usage, more than the Agency has achieved in the past 30 years.

Because of this effectiveness, we are going to inaugurate our WORLDNET service on April 22 to up to 60 U.S. Embassies in Europe on a two hour daily schedule.

Because of the importance of our inaugural daily program, I would like to request that The President tape a brief statement that we may show on opening day. I have enclosed a draft for your consideration.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

Charles Z. Wick
Director

DRAFT SPEECH FOR WORLDNET DAILY INAUGURAL

The information explosion in the communication field is providing material and data to people throughout the world in extraordinary quantity and unbelievable speed. This TV satellite transmission you are watching is an example of state-of-the-art technology, of practically instantaneous flow of words and pictures, that now is becoming commonplace.

A few years ago, little consideration was given to communicating by satellite. It is now a reality, as can be seen by this telecast. This inauguration of America's daily WORLDNET program to our embassies in Europe is dedicated to a better exchange of ideas and information in the interest of peace and understanding among our people.

We must stay in closer touch with those nations which share our ideals and concern for human welfare. We must also attempt to communicate with nations which maintain a diplomatic distance from us because of differences in social and political structures. The need to talk to each other, to stay in touch with each other on cultural, informational or political issues, is extremely important. It will be another step in the many that we and other nations have already taken toward peace and understanding.

WORLDNET symbolizes a step in that direction. I am particularly pleased that so many European nations are taking this step with us, linked by satellite, toward exchanging ideas and information about each other. I look forward to other nations joining WORLDNET, or instituting similar international conferences of their own in the near future.

I wish to congratulate the United States Information Agency and its Television Service on this memorable occasion and inauguration of daily WORLDNET broadcasts to Europe. May God bless all participants in this endeavor and may we continue to share with all nations freedom of expression and continue to work together in the interest of creating means of talking to each other openly and honestly.

MEMORANDUM FOR ADMIRAL JOHN POINDEXTER

FROM:

DAVID LAUX DL

NOTE

SUBJECT:

Request for Meeting by New Zealand Director of Prime Minister's Office

New Zealand Prime Minister David Lange is sending Gerald Hensley to Washington on short notice in the hope that he can see Bud McFarlane and other senior U.S. officials (see Ambassador Monroe's telegram at Tab A for details). Hensley, a pro-American career government official who has been helpful to us, is the permanent head of the Prime Minister's Department and also Chairman of the New Zealand Intelligence Council.

Lange hopes that Hensley can meet with U.S. officials on Friday and Saturday, February 22 and 23 and then travel to Los Angeles to meet with Lange before Lange's luncheon speech Tuesday, February 26. The main object of Hensley's visit is to forestall a cut-off of U.S. intelligence, and he hopes for meetings with Bill Casey, John McMahon, Abramowitz and the head of NSA, in addition to McFarlane. At a mini-IG on New Zealand at State last night and in further discussions with State, Defense and CIA this morning, we concluded with recommendations for appointments with John McMahon, Mike Armacost, and yourself. McMahon intends to speak for the Intelligence Community and Hensley would not be given appointments with Casey, the head of NSA, or Abramowitz. The intention, of course, is to proceed with a curtailment of intelligence along with other measures, assuming the President approves the IG recommendations, and also to give Hensley a strong exposition of the U.S. position on the port access issue to carry back to Lange.

I recommend that you see Hensley Friday afternoon or Saturday morning and be firm but cordial with him in explaining the U.S. posture over the ship access issue. It is important that he bring the right message back to Lange before Lange's Tuesday luncheon speech. If you agree, talking points will be provided.

State, Defense and CIA endorse this recommendation and Gaston Sigur concurs.

RECOMMENDATION

That you agree to meet with Gerald Hensley for 30 minutes on Friday afternoon or Saturday morning, February 22-23.

Dear Colonel Mills:

message I want to wish you continuing success in your important work to establish a Berlin Airlift Memorial at Rhein-Main Air Base, West Germany.

It is very important that we remember the triumphant air bridge known as the Berlin Airlift. The American and allied airmen who provided a technological and human miracle as they strove to keep the airways open through even the most difficult flying conditions remain an inspiration to us today.

OPERATION VITTLES reverberates through history as the suprema peacetime air transport operation. Crews flying from the vital base at Rhein-Main refused to give in to mechanical or human frailties as they sought to keep the peace in Europe through a cooperative effort.

It is fitting that we remember their heroic efforts to maintain peace and friendship.

Sincerely,

A

MEMORANDUM FOR ANNE HIGGINS

FROM: ROBERT M. KIMMITT
SUBJECT: Berlin Airlift Memorial at Rhein-Main Air Base

Some time ago, USAF Colonel Billie Mills (Ret) wrote Bud McFarlane seeking support for the Berlin Airlift Memorial at Rhein-Main Air Base (Tab C). Bud replied on March 11 (Tab B). We also asked the Defense Department to see if it could provide further support to this worthy cause. We expressed, as well, willingness to consider a Presidential letter of support, if Defense felt one would be appropriate.

Defense has now provided us a suggested text (Tab A) for a Presidential letter to Colonel Mills. We ask that you arrange for its dispatch. Please provide us a copy. Thank you.

Dear Colonel Mills,

Thank you very much for your kind letter. The President truly appreciates your warm words of support.

We applaud your efforts to establish a Berlin Airlift Memorial at Rhein-Main Air Base, and understand that the United States Air Force is collaborating with you toward fulfilling this important goal.

I regret, but the President's tight schedule on his European trip will not allow him to stop at Rhein-Main Air Base.

We are asking the Department of Defense to respond to your other questions, and wish you continuing success in this important endeavor.

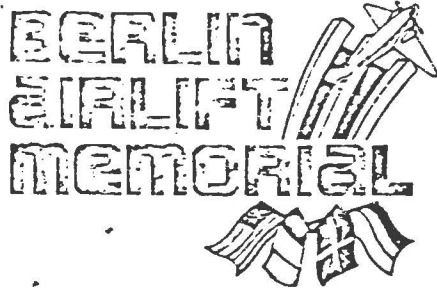

Sincerely,

The Honorable Robert McFarlane
Assistant to the President
National Security Affairs

FEB 13 1985

Dear Mr. McFarlane,

The Berlin Airlift Memorial at Rhein-Main Air Base is moving along at a great pace. Recent events here lead me to write to you again concerning the project. In December we were invited to visit Chancellor Kohl and President von Weizsaecker in Bonn. Following those visits we received letters of support from both of those distinguished statesmen. In addition, Dr. Dollinger, Minister for Transport, FRG, has joined our group as an Honorary Director, providing vocal and written support for the Berlin Airlift Memorial. President von Weizsaecker has under consideration the Honorary Co-Chairman position for the project. A concern was voiced that there should be an Honorary Co-Chairman from America. All that leads me to seek your guidance or thoughts. Immediately one thinks of President Reagan, Vice President Bush, You, or a most important Cabinet or Congressional Leader. I realize that this is far out of my realm and can have deep implications. I do believe it offers an opportunity to highlight peace, freedom and international cooperation. I enclose copies of the letters described for your review.

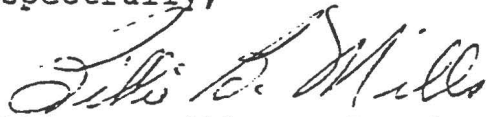

A second event concerns a call I received last week from my Bonn contact. There has been some concern about what might be planned for the MAY 1985 trip to Germany. The desire was expressed to relay that a short stopover by the President with his German counterparts, possibly accompanied by other national leaders involved in the Berlin Airlift, at Rhein-Main Air Base which is jointly located with the Frankfurt International Airport might be desirable. My only opportunity to relay that is to mention it to you. As a sidelight, the DoDDS Rhein-Main Elementary School will be named for Colonel Gail Halverson, USAF Retired, the famous "candy bomber" of the Berlin Airlift. The Junior High School will be named for Lt. Gen. William H. Tunner, Commander of the Combined Airlift Task Force. Those events might be timed to offer some advantage for such a visit. The Memorial itself will be under construction, but might offer an opportunity for displaying a unity of freedom for the nations concerned.

Mr. Jack Benanty, our Washington and Senior Funds Advisor, a devoted Republican, will be in Washington very soon. He is working with several leaders in both New York and Washington on behalf of the Berlin Airlift Memorial. We are moving along very well in all aspects of financial and construction matters. Our goal is Memorial unveiling on 30 September 1985. We have a C-54 donated and are in progress of acquiring a C-47 through the help of the Air Force Museum.

I congratulate you for your role in disarmament talks. We appreciate the strenuous workload and the national burdens you carry. My wife and I were fortunate to be in Washington during the Inaugural activities and we were delighted and impressed with all the programs we attended. The President is truly a remarkable Leader and carries the prayers of all. It was our goal to share a few hours with you while we were in Washington but unfortunately your schedule was already packed. Maybe at a later Inner Circle event we may be able to share a few moments. Please give your wife our best wishes.

Keep us in mind. We would appreciate any comments you may have concerning a visit or our progress.

Respectfully,

Billie B. Mills, Colonel USAF (Retired)
Executive Director.
