THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

Dear Jim:

On October 28, 1986, I was pleased to sign into law H.R. 2205, the Korean War Memorial Act.

When the North Korean Army attacked across the 38th parallel on June 25, 1950, with 100,000 troops armed and ~~trained~~ supported by the Soviet Union and Communist China, America and many of our allies responded to the crisis. The world saw, once again, the ability and determination of our Nation to live up to its commitment to defend freedom in the face of stark aggression.

Three years later, ~~a peace~~ an armistice agreement was signed, but the price paid for that peace was high:

~~34,246~~ Americans lost their lives during the Korean conflict, ~~4,000~~ were taken prisoner and over ~~103,000~~ were wounded. 8,157 Americans are still missing.

more than 7,000
- only 4,108 returned -

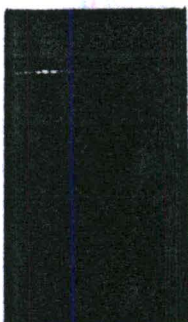

H.R. 2205 authorizes the American Battle Monuments Commission to establish a memorial in honor of the members of the Armed Forces who served in the Korean War. This memorial will stand as a reminder to future generations of the human cost of war, and will symbolize the Nation's recognition and gratitude to those veterans who honorably served our Nation and the cause of freedom.

In recognition of your contribution and leadership on this historic legislation, I am pleased to present to you the enclosed pen commemorating the signing of H.R. 2205.

Sincerely,

The Honorable James Florio

When the North Korean Army attacked across the 38th parallel on June 25, 1950, with 100,000 troops armed and trained by the Soviet Union and Communist China, America and many of our allies responded to the crisis. The world saw, once again, the ability and determination of our Nation to live up to its commitment to defend freedom in the face of stark aggression.

Three years later, a peace agreement was signed, but the price paid for that peace was high: 54,246 Americans lost their lives during the Korean conflict, 4,600 were taken prisoner and over 103,000 were wounded.

H.R. 2205 authorizes the American Battle Monuments Commission to establish a memorial in honor of the members of the Armed Forces who served in the Korean War. This memorial will stand as a reminder to future generations of the human cost of war, and will symbolize the Nation's recognition and gratitude to those veterans who honorably served our Nation and the cause of freedom.
