Reykjavik

Dear Mr. Minister:

I was very pleased to meet you during my call on President Finnbogadottir. Although our discussion was brief, I want you to know how much I valued the opportunity to hear Iceland's views on bilateral and East-West issues.

In addition, I would like to ask you to express my thanks to the members of the Foreign Ministry for their outstanding work in support of the meetings between General Secretary Gorbachev and me. There was little time to prepare, and I know they had to put in many long hours. I have heard nothing but praise for the exceptional courtesy and efficiency of everyone involved, and I am deeply grateful for their efforts.

I look forward to meeting you again and send you my warmest good wishes for the future.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Sigmundsson:

Thank you for your work as Deputy Coordinator for the Government of Iceland's efforts in support of my meetings with General Secretary Gorbachev. I was particularly impressed by the attention to detail and cooperative spirit of all the Icelanders involved in that huge task. The success of the discussions was due in no small part to the preparations made by the people and Government of Iceland. Please convey my appreciation to all who assisted you, especially those in the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

As you probably know, this was my first visit to Iceland. The warmth of the people and the natural beauty of the countryside made a lasting impression on me, and I hope to be able to return someday.

Dear Ambassador Chapman:

I write to thank you for making your residence available to members of my staff during my visit to Iceland to meet with General Secretary Gorbachev. Your generosity and graciousness were greatly appreciated, particularly by Don Regan, my Chief of Staff, and John Poindexter, my National Security Adviser.

Your hospitality is in keeping with the spirit of friendship and cooperation our two countries have enjoyed over long years. If we have a "special relationship," I think it is because we share the same values and sense of right conduct, not only in the life of our countries, but among nations as well.

I must say, however, that putting up houseguests on such short notice goes above and beyond the call of duty or even the ideal of promoting peace and goodwill between nations.

Know that we will always be grateful for your exceptional kindness and understanding and that you have provided an example of the diplomatic corps at its best.

You have my warmest good wishes for your health and happiness in the years ahead.

Washington, D.C. 20547

November 25, 1986

Mr. W. Robert Pearson
Deputy Executive Secretary
National Security Council

Mr. Pearson,

Here's the list for which you asked.

Some of the people (marked in yellow) were not really part of our contingent, but were part of the White House contingent.

Ivory and Gangstead are based in Reykjavik.

Those listed as White House Press Monitors were not doing the main USIA tasks: they came from Europe to be part of Speakes' team, at his request.

Two TV technicians (Beaudin and Goosman) were added by the Director after he got to Andrews Air Force base on October 9 and learned of the need for two more technicians.

Please note also that we only took three seats on the official plane and only took nine "accommodations", while handling all other transportation and housing outside White House support.

I think that these, plus the 22 authorized on the original paper, account for most of those who went.

We are simply too busy with current business to stop and do a full nose-counting and then, if we come up over some number, grill people to try to reconstruct some last-minute phone conversations. The heads of this Agency were working, at the end, on the basis of informal guidance to them which specified that, if proper travel and accommodations were available through our means, we should send the appropriate number of people for the doing of our assigned tasks. That's what, in good faith and effectively, we did.

Counselor

SUBJECT: Summit Related Presidential Activities

The President's Fall calendar is already tight, particularly in view of his campaign commitments. Although no firm date has been set for a Soviet-American Summit, I am concerned that if we do not lay down some markers at this time regarding Presidential involvement in pre-summit activities that we will be in a position of trying to squeeze events onto an already crowded calendar.

Attached at Tab I is a memorandum from you to Don Regan outlining what we consider to be the most important events involving the President in preparation for the Summit.

FROM: PETER R. SOMMER PS

SUBJECT: Travel Request: Wick to Reykjavik?

The first of what may be many travel requests associated with the Reykjavik preparatory meeting has arrived. At Tab I is a memo to you for USIA's Executive Secretary stating that Director Wick plans to be in Reykjavik from October 9 to 13 "to coordinate the USIA effort for the meeting that is to take place ..."

My understanding is that we plan to discourage a big US delegation. The draft NSDD makes this clear. I do not think, however, that we can rely on the NSDD to turn Wick off.

That you call Larry Taylor, USIA's Executive Secretary to explain the President's desire to keep the numbers down in Reykjavik, or alternatively have Al Keel call USIA's Deputy Director, Marvin Stone:

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. LARRY R. TAYLOR
Executive Secretary
U.S. Information Agency

SUBJECT: Travel to Reykjavik

USIA is allocated a total of 14 spaces in Reykjavik in support of the President's trip. Accommodations will be provided only for Director Wick, his two accompanying assistants and those 6 (Snow, Allin, Callahan, Sigmund, Salvatera, and Beckwith) who are already occupying hotel rooms in Reykjavik. We understand a 7th person to support the White House Press Operations -- Brown -- is already present in Reykjavik and that he has no hotel requirement, i.e., he has private accommodations.

The total of 14 also includes 4 people, not yet in Iceland, to support the White House Press Operations. These people must make their own travel and accommodations arrangements. There are no additional hotel rooms for these 4.

Apart from the authorized USIA presence in Reykjavik (the 14 spaces), the White House Press Office has asked and the NSC has agreed that 5 VOA and 4 WORLDNET personnel can go to Reykjavik on the understanding that the White House will provide neither transportation, administrative, nor hotel support. To reemphasize, there are no hotel rooms available for these people in Reykjavik.

No other travel to Reykjavik is authorized.
