GREECEGOVERNMENT PROTESTS TO ALBANIA OVER BORDER SHOOTING

NC171346 Athens Domestic Service in Greek 1130 GMT 17 Sep 84

[Text] Alternate Foreign Minister Karolos Papoulias this morning invited Albanian Ambassador to Greece Xenophon Nushi to the Foreign Ministry to lodge a protest and ask for an explanation concerning the murder of Greek Rural Constable Pavlos Lolis that took place Saturday morning [15 September] on the Greek-Albanian border.

Yesterday afternoon the Albanian authorities returned Lolis' body, while the Greek authorities continued investigating the circumstances surrounding the constable's killing. The investigation is being handled by the Gendarmerie and the 8th Army Corps.

The Albanian allegation that the rural constable entered Albanian territory has been rejected. According to reports, at approximately 0900 on Saturday, Lolis left his village, Molivdhoskepastos of Konitsa, which is 250 meters from the border, on a hunting expedition. A short time later, according to villagers, two shots were heard from the rural constables' gun, which were immediately followed by a burst of fire from an automatic weapon.

DEPARTMENT OF STATE
BRIEFING PAPER

US-Canadian Economic Issues

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
- Canada

The Canadian economic recovery this year is fairly strong, with GNP expected to be up 4%. The best performance is in the export sector, benefitting from the strong rise in US demand and a Canadian dollar at record lows. Weaker elements include Canada's high unemployment (around 11%) and a lag in investment demand.

Two-way trade between our countries is flourishing, expected to be over $120 billion this year. Canada will have a bilateral trade surplus of almost $20 billion, but this is expected to be nearly offset by our surplus on services. With trade of this magnitude (80% of Canadian exports and almost 20% of US exports), there are bound to be trade disputes -- most US actions affecting trade involve Canada. The major action this year was the President's decision on carbon steel imports, which was welcomed in Canada. Steel imports from Canada, while large ($2 billion), have not been accused of unfair trade practices, and have not been surging. Consequently, the Canadians do not anticipate the President's decision will result in restrictions on their trade.

Canadian energy policy is evolving toward a more market-oriented approach which corresponds better with our own policy. Bilateral consultation mechanisms on energy and trade are working well. Responding to a Canadian initiative last year, Ambassador Brock has been holding talks with them on free trade arrangements in selected sectors (agricultural equipment, informatics, transit equipment, etc.) We welcome this initiative as an opportunity for trade liberalization at a time when multilateral progress seems blocked. While Mulroney has spoken in favor of trade expansion, he has not specifically endorsed the bilateral talks.

Canadian policy toward foreign investment has also been evolving favorably. The approval rate of the Foreign Investment Review Agency (FIRA) has gone up while delays have gone down. On the campaign trail, Mulroney recognized the need to attract investment and suggested revamping FIRA. Although short on specifics, this could include an investment promotion function. Canada's national energy policy involves, perhaps most egregiously, the retroactive "back-in" which gives the Government the right to take 25% of certain petroleum finds from foreign-owned firms. Mulroney sharply criticized this, and has promised to do away with the back-in. Canada's need to increase investment spending is a powerful lever favoring lower discrimination against foreign investors.

Recent developments in the transportation sector are also favorable. The GOC has taken the first steps toward deregulation of air services. If the new government continues this policy, (popular with the Canadian public), it could ease bilateral route negotiations and present opportunities for new transborder services.

The Environment/Acid Rain

The United States and Canada have a full and generally productive environmental relationship. Many water issues are handled routinely through the International Joint Commission (IJC), a binational advisory body. Other issues of mutual concern, now being managed with considerable success, include the Garrison Diversion Project, Great Lakes pollution, and Niagara River toxic chemical pollution.

The most visible item on the Canadian environmental agenda -- acid rain -- is also the one where US-Canadian differences are widest. Canadian public concern has been aroused by the threat to lakes, steams, and possibly forest resources. The Canadian Government advocates immediate steps leading to a 50 percent cut in sulphur dioxide emissions by 1994. Although funding for additional research into acid rain continues, the Canadians publicly assert that enough is known to begin a cleanup now. The US, by contrast, ended an extensive policy review in January 1984 by rejecting for now any additional cleanup plan, but significantly increasing research efforts. Remaining scientific uncertainties about acid rain are so large, in the judgment of US experts, that heavy additional cleanup expenses cannot be justified at this time. However, this US position remains subject to review, as new scientific evidence accumulates.

Canada's acid rain policy is a reasonable reflection of its national interest and enjoys wide support. Canada is very dependent on forest resources and has large areas with acid-sensitive geology. In our judgment, the Mulroney government is unlikely to make substantive changes in the acid rain positions inherited from the Liberals. After a "honeymoon" period with the US, we foresee a real chance that Mulroney will pick this topic as suitable to demonstrate his independence of Washington. His recent appointment of an obscure freshman M.P. as Environment Minister may indicate his intention to manage the acid rain issue personally. During his June visit to Washington, acid rain was the one topic on which he expressed criticism of US policy.

REASON AND BECAUSE OF WIDESPREAD PUBLIC CONCERN HERE ABOUT POSSIBLE UNDUE U.S. DOMINATION OF CANADIAN INTERESTS,
MULRONEY'S ADVENT TO POWER DOES NOT SIGNAL THE MILLENNIUM
IN US-CANADIAN ECONOMIC RELATIONS.

-- MOST EFFECTIVE PROMOTION OF U.S. ECONOMIC INTERESTS
WILL RESULT FROM FIRM BUT DISCREET PRIVATE DIPLOMACY.
MEETINGS THIS NEXT MONTH - INCLUDING SCHEDULED OR PLANNED
MEETINGS WITH THE PRESIDENT, SECRETARIES OF STATE,
TREASURY, AND COMMERCE AND THE USTR AND OTHERS - OFFER
VALUABLE OCCASIONS TO UNDERSCORE U.S. PRIORITIES AND ELICIT A CLEARER VIEW OF THE NEW GOC ECONOMIC PROGRAM.

4. ON SPECIFIC ECONOMIC ISSUES, THE FOLLOWING POINTS
APPEAR MOST SALIENT FOR U.S. INTERESTS AND USG FOLLOWUP:

-- MACRO-ECONOMIC POLICY, INVESTMENT AND FINANCE: TOP
TORY PRIORITY IS JOB GENERATION, BUT CANADA'S HUGE FEDERAL BUDGET DEFICIT (PROJECTED TO BE 7-7.5 PERCENT OF GNP)
CONSTRAINS MAKING A SIGNIFICANT DENT IN DOUBLE-DIGIT
UNEMPLOYMENT. LIKELY MEDIUM-TERM ECONOMIC STRATEGY
IS TO BE PRO-PRIVATE SECTOR - WITH BOOST TO INVESTMENT AND BOOT TO SOME GOVERNMENT INTERVENTION AND SPENDING - AND PRO-CONSENSUS-BUILDING - WITH INCREASED PURSUIT OF
FEDERAL-PROVINCIAL AND LABOR-GOVERNMENT-BUSINESS COOPERA-TION. USG SHOULD APPLAUD MULRONEY'S EFFORTS ALONG THESE LINES, BUT WEIGH IN MOST DIRECTLY ON INTERNATIONAL

HOWEVER, THE TORIES FACE A TOUGH TASK GIVEN THE MASSIVE FEDERAL BUDGET DEFICIT (PROJECTED U.S. DOLS 25-BILLION FOR 1984), HIGH REAL INTEREST RATES, REGIONAL ECONOMIC DISPARITIES, AND THE WEAK CANADIAN DOLLAR (COMPARED TO THE U.S.) THAT THWARTED THEIR LIBERAL PREDECESSORS.

GIVEN THOSE CONSTRAINTS, THE PROGRESSIVE CONSERVATIVE
GOVERNMENT IS NOT LIKELY TO SEEK AN OUTRIGHT INCREASE IN FISCAL OR MONETARY STIMULUS. MULRONEY SAYS HE WANTS TO REDUCE THE GOVERNMENT SECTOR DEFICIT SLOWLY, AND HE HAS INDIRECTLY ENDORSED THE BANK OF CANADA'S MONETARY POLICIES.

7. HOWEVER THE TORIES PROCEED ON THESE BROADER QUESTIONS
OF ECONOMIC STRATEGY, THEY MAY ENJOY A SURPRISINGLY SHORT
POLITICAL HONEYMOON. THEY FACE IMMINENT DECISIONS ON THE
RESCUE OF PETROMONT, SYMBOL OF CENTRAL CANADA'S TOTTERING
PETROCHEMICAL INDUSTRY; A CONSUMER TAX INCREASE ON
GASOLINE TO STEM THE DEFICIT ON COMPENSATION TO OIL
IMPORTS; A MOVE TO WORLD OIL PRICES; MORE BAILOUTS FOR CROWN-OWNED AIRCRAFT COMPANIES; AND A FEDERAL SALES TAX INCREASE.

8. MUCH OF MULRONEY'S OVERALL ECONOMIC STRATEGY IS LIKELY TO REFLECT THE "FOUR PILLARS OF A NATIONAL RECON-STRUCTION AND RENEWAL PLAN" - REDUCED INTEREST RATES,
TECHNOLOGICAL INNOVATION, JOB TRAINING, AND EXPANDED
FOREIGN TRADE - NOTED IN HIS MAJOR POLICY STATEMENTS THIS
LAST YEAR. IT WILL ALSO REFLECT THE ECONOMIC PHILOSOPHY
OF ONE OF HIS CLOSET ECONOMIC ADVISORS, CHARLES MCMILLAN - AN ACADEMIC SPECIALIST ON THE JAPANESE ECONOMY AND ADVOCATE OF MORE EFFECTIVE INDUSTRIAL POLICY THROUGH ENHANCED LABOR-MANAGEMENT-GOVERNMENT AND FEDERAL-PROVIN-CIAL COOPERATION.

9. MICHAEL WILSON, THE HIGHLY REGARDED NEW FINANCE
MINISTER, HOPES TO BEGIN TO TRANSLATE THIS BROADER ECONOMIC THEORY INTO PRACTICE BY BRINGING DOWN A BUDGET

SUBJECT: NEW MULRONEY GOVERNMENT - SIGNIFICANCE FOR TIONALLY WITHIN EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (WHERE TRADE WAS SHIFTED LESS THAN TWO YEARS AGO), BUT WHO REPORTS FOR POLICY
AND BUDGETARY SUPPORT THROUGH STEVENS' CABINET COMMITTEE.

16. RUMORS REMAIN RIFE IN OTTAWA, SUGGESTING THAT THE TRADE FUNCTION WILL BE PULLED OUT OF EXTARF AGAIN TO BECOME PART OF A CANADIAN MITI. STEVENS AND OTHER
CABINET OFFICIALS CONCERNED WITH TRADE CAN BE EXPECTED,
WITH OR WITHOUT THAT TIME-CONSUMING ORGANIZATIONAL SHIFT,
TO ENCOURAGE A STRONG PUSH FOR BILATERAL AND MULTILATERAL
TRADE LIBERALIZATION. BUT, THEIR EFFORTS WILL, PREDICT-ABLY, BE KEYED TO AREAS WHERE CANADIAN INDUSTRY IS OR CAN BE MOST COMPETITIVE.

17. ALTHOUGH THE TORIES HUNKERED DOWN DURING THE ELECTION
CAMPAIGN ON THE QUESTION OF SECTORAL TRADE WITH THE US -
LEST THE GOC'S EARLIER INITIATIVE BECOME POLITICALLY
CONTENTIOUS - THEY HAVE EXPRESSED CAUTIOUS INTEREST
TO EMBOFFS IN PURSUING TALKS. THE USG SHOULD QUIETLY
ENCOURAGE THE MULRONEY GOVERNMENT TO TURN ITS ATTENTION
TO RENEWAL OF DISCUSSIONS ON EXPANDED TRADE AND MAKE CLEAR THAT WE REMAIN RECEPTIVE TO REACTIVATION OF BILATERAL TRADE TALKS - SECTORAL OR, PREFERABLY, A BROADER APPROACH TO ENHANCED TRADE.

18. PRESIDENT REAGAN'S RECENT DECISION ON CARBON STEEL
IN PARTICULAR HELPED AVERT A ROCKY START TO U.S.
RELATIONS WITH THE NEW GOC. IT HAS HELPED ENGENDER
WIDESPREAD GOODWILL IN CANADA BECAUSE OF APPRECIATION
HERE FOR THE COURAGE OF THE PRESIDENT'S DECISION IN AN ELECTION YEAR. WE CAN AND SHOULD CAPITALIZE ON THAT GOODWILL AND GOOD U.S. FREE TRADE RECORD BY PRESSING THE
CANADIANS PROMPTLY IN SENIOR-LEVEL TRADE CONSULTATIONS
FOR CANADIAN RESOLUTION OF SEVERAL LONG-STANDING U.S.
BILATERAL TRADE GRIEVANCES, SUCH AS BORDER BROADCASTING,
PHARMACEUTICAL PATENTS AND TAX ON U.S. TOURIST LITERATURE.

19. PRIORITY USG-GOC ATTENTION TO MILITARILY-SENSITIVE

ORDER. WE SHOULD MAKE OUR CONCERNS KNOWN PROMPTLY TO

REASSESSMENT OF CONTROVERSIAL ENERGY POLICY

20. CANADA'S NEW MINISTER OF ENERGY, MINES AND RESOURCES
- PAT GARNEY - FACES A BUMPY ROAD. THE TWENTY-YEAR FORE-CAST OF CANADA'S ENERGY NEEDS, JUST RELEASED BY THE NATIONAL ENERGY BOARD, INDICATES THAT THERE IS LITTLE TIME TO LOSE IN DEVELOPING NEW OIL SUPPLIES TO EXPLORE
FAST-DEPLETING CONVENTIONAL RESERVES. THE FORMER BRITISH COLUMBIA BUSINESS EXECUTIVE AND JOURNALIST HAS TOLD EMOFFS THAT SHE WANTS TO ADJUST THE NEP - INCLUDING A MOVE TO WORLD PRICES FOR OIL, A REDUCED PETROLEUM AND GAS REVENUE TAX, CHANGES IN PETROLEUM INCENTIVE GRANTS, AND RELAXED RULES FOR FOREIGN INVESTMENT. BUT, SHE KNOWS THAT IT WILL NOT BE EASY TO BALANCE PRODUCER AND
CONSUMER INTERESTS OR FEDERAL AND PROVINCIAL CONCERNS
(MOST NOTABLY, OTTAWA'S OIL PRICING AGREEMENT WITH ALBERTA, WHICH IS DUE TO EXPIRE AT THE END OF 1984, AND
THE TORIES' PROMISES TO THE MARITIMES ON THEIR SHARE OF OFFSHORE RESOURCES).

21. THE USG SHOULD STRESS SEVERAL POINTS IN THE ENERGY
AREA. WE SHOULD SEIZE ON THE OPENING TO WALK BACK DIS-
CRIMINATORY FEATURES OF THE NEP, WITH A FIRM EXPRESSION
ON ALL APPROPRIATE OCCASIONS OF U.S. CONCERNS. WE SHOULD ENCOURAGE CONTINUING CANADIAN FLEXIBILITY IN PRICING FOR GAS EXPORTS. AND, WE SHOULD SHIFT THE BILATERAL ENERGY
DIALOGUE TO LONGER-TERM ISSUES, SO THAT WE CAPITALIZE ON THIS RELATIVELY HARMONIOUS INTERLUDE TO BUILD THE FOUNDA-TION FOR PROMOTION OF BOTH NATIONS' ECONOMIC INTERESTS.
IN THAT CONTEXT, MORE ATTENTION TO ELECTRICITY TRADE IS IN ORDER GIVEN CANADA'S CHEAP SURPLUS HYDROELECTRIC POWER AND THE NEED OF THE U.S. "FROST BELT" TO REDUCE ENERGY COSTS.

MEETING WITH CANADIAN PRIME MINISTER BRIAN MULRONEY

DATE: September 25, 1984
LOCATION: Oval Office/Family Dining Room
TIME: 11:00-11:15 a.m.- Pre-Briefing (Oval Office)
11:15-11:18 a.m.- Photo Opportunity (Oval Office)
11:18-11:45 a.m.- Meeting (Oval Office)

12:00- 1:00 p.m.- Lunch (Family Dining Room)
1:00- 1:10 p.m.- Departure Statements

FROM: ROBERT C. McFARLANE

I. PURPOSE

To congratulate Prime Minister Mulroney on his election; to express appreciation for his pro-U.S. stance during his campaign; to exchange views on major global issues (East-West, Arms Control, and Alliance Cohesion); and to discuss ways of better managing U.S.-Canadian relations in the future.

II. BACKGROUND

Brian Mulroney campaigned heavily on the theme of the necessity for closer U.S.-Canadian ties and the need to eliminate irritants in our historically close relationship. Mulroney stressed that he intended to give the U.S. the "benefit of the doubt," in contrast to the confrontational Canadian stance of the Trudeau era. Your meeting, which will build on the excellent rapport you established with Mulroney in June, will focus on global strategic issues, your UNGA address, and your important bilateral with Gromyko on Friday. Mulroney will touch lightly on bilateral trade and investment issues, where his campaign statements were very positive, and on the environment, where acid rain remains an irritant.

Canada has not had an official working visit here in nearly a decade, although Prime Minister Trudeau met with you in the Oval Office last December to discuss his "peace initiatives." Mulroney has personally stressed the necessity for more frequent meetings between two historically close allies and this visit will be his first abroad since his inauguration last Monday.

Mulroney has maintained a busy first week in office -- he has met extensively with the Pope and will be coming to Washington immediately following a meeting with the Queen. He does not expect any commitment or formal agreement to result from any of the subjects addressed during this meeting.

You will want to stress to Mulroney your earnest intent to establish a serious, more productive dialogue with the Soviet Union. You may wish to mention many of the difficulties you have encountered in your attempts to overcome Soviet intransigence -- the apparent leadership vacuum in Moscow, the rapid turnover in the Kremlin, traditional Russian suspicion and their obvious discomfort with the success you have enjoyed in reversing the so-called "correlation of forces." You may wish to reiterate many of the themes you stressed in your UNGA speech, particularly our commitment to seek genuine and verifiable arms reductions and strategic stability.

Economic irritants have dominated our bilateral agenda in the past, but you have taken many positive steps that have served to improve our trade relationship. Our recovery has served as a tremendous boost to Canadian exports and accelerated their recovery (unemployment, however, continues to be high at 11%). Despite tremendous domestic pressure, you have courageously resisted protectionist demands and will want to point to your refusal to place quotas on steel and copper imports as an indicator of our dedication to a free trade regime (both actions have been very helpful to Canada). The U.S. and Canada have the largest bilateral trading relationship in the world, over $90 billion in 1983. You may wish to remind Mulroney that we account for about 70% of Canada's total trade, and our bilateral trade deficit of $14 billion is second only to Japan's. As the largest foreign investor in Canada (almost $50 billion at the end of 1983), we should endorse Mulroney's campaign commitment to relax the restrictive policy toward foreign direct investment put in place by the Trudeau Government.

We have received assurances that Mulroney will not seek to discuss any bilateral issue in detail, leaving that to the Foreign Ministers at their next quarterly meeting in October. He will, however, want to focus attention on how best to manage the Canadian-U.S. bilateral agenda in the future. He may feel impelled, for domestic political reasons, to lay a marker down on the contentious acid rain issue. You may wish to express our concern over Canadian failure, under the Liberals, to maintain reasonable levels of defense spending, especially in comparison to its NATO Allies.

George Shultz's comprehensive memorandum is at Tab A. Your talking points and Mulroney's Bio are at Tab B. Your remarks for the Astronaut Ceremony and departure statement will be forwarded separately.

From: George P. Shultz GP
Subject: Your Meeting with Brian Mulroney, Prime Minister of Canada, September 25, 1984

I. OBJECTIVES

1. To congratulate Mulroney on his election as Prime Minister of Canada and to express appreciation for his pro-US stance during his campaign.
2. To exchange views on major global issues (East-West, arms control, Atlantic Alliance, Middle East, Central America, and economics).
3. To touch briefly on key bilateral topics (investment, trade, acid rain, fisheries).
4. To discuss ways of better managing US-Canadian relations in the future.

II. SETTING

Brian Mulroney's dramatic victory over Liberal John Turner in Canada's September 4 elections opens a new and promising chapter in US-Canadian relations. Mulroney campaigned on a platform calling for better links with the United States and a closer personal association with the President. He termed the US Canada's "ally, neighbor and best friend," and he appealed to Canadians to give us more often "the benefit of the doubt." Mulroney also resisted pressure to back a nuclear freeze, a position supported by some of his party's opponents and, according to opinion polls, by 85% of Canadian citizens. This meeting, therefore, underscores our reciprocal willingness to move toward a closer relationship with Canada. It will build on the excellent beginning you and Mulroney had when he called on you as Opposition Leader in June. We have agreed with the Canadians that this get-together will focus mainly on global issues.

One of our objectives during this meeting is to discuss ways to keep our ties on a positive note and to manage them better in the future. I plan to continue my four-a-year meetings with the Canadian Foreign Minister. Beyond that, we and the Canadians should undertake to consult with each other on a regular basis as befits the extensive and unique character of our relationship.

A note of caution: While quite sincere in his desire to establish a better working arrangement with the US, Mulroney, like any Canadian leader, has to avoid any appearance of being a junior partner of the Americans. He will, therefore, feel compelled to raise at least one contentious bilateral issue: acid rain, on which we continue to see the problem differently. We expect him to touch lightly on the subject, however. Otherwise, on the bilateral side, Mulroney will wish to comment in passing on two other subjects, both in a positive vein: foreign investment, where he has promised to liberalize Canadian controls, and trade, which has reached an all-time high between our two countries.

III. ISSUES

East-West and Arms Control

You might refer to your upcoming meeting with Andrei Gromyko, sketching out US expectations and inviting Mulroney's comments on priorities and tactics. I suggest you underscore your commitment to arms control and your readiness to tackle the problems of verification and compliance, a comprehensive nuclear test ban, and the outer space issues.

Atlantic Alliance

You could stress our upbeat view of NATO unity in the wake of successful INF deployment and the need to turn our energies now increasingly to correcting the imbalance in conventional forces.

Central America

Over recent decades, Canada has taken a special interest in the Caribbean and Central America. You could have a useful exchange of views with the Prime Minister on current developments.

Middle East

Before he comes to Washington, Mulroney will not have had time to mount a wholesale review of Canada's Middle East policy. You might therefore brief him on how you see developments.

Economic Issues (Global and Bilateral)

At the risk of prompting a Mulroney complaint about US interest rates, you could discuss the contribution strong US economic performance is making to global recovery. In the bilateral framework, I suggest you probe Mulroney's intentions with regard to liberalizing Canadian restrictions on foreign investment. You might also wish to cite our support for trade liberalization, including continuation of the sectoral free trade talks Bill Brock has been holding with Canada. We welcomed Canada's initiative in proposing these talks, but Mulroney has not gone beyond a general endorsement of trade expansion.

Acid Rain

As mentioned earlier, Mulroney will feel obliged to mention acid rain. You could hold to our established policy, but phrased in a manner that avoids embarrassing Mulroney with his public.

Managing the Relationship

I suggest you stress your desire to meet frequently and productively with Mulroney -- without going into details -- and also confirm my willingness to continue meeting four times yearly with the Canadian Foreign Minister.

TALKING POINTS FOR THE PRESIDENT'S MEETING AND LUNCHEON
WITH CANADIAN PRIME MINISTER BRIAN MULRONEY

- Pleasure to welcome you back to Washington as Prime Minister. As you predicted, the Irish are now in control from the Arctic to the Mexican border. I hope your landslide conservative victory is an omen.

- I followed the Canadian campaign, and was particularly pleased to hear your strong defense of free-market principles, expanded international trade, and private investment. More importantly, I share your emphasis on the necessity for close Canadian-U.S. ties.

- My meeting with Gromyko will underline the necessity of placing our relations on a more constructive and productive basis. We want Gromyko to carry back to the Politburo a clear understanding that we can and should do business with each other.

- We remain ready to open discussions with the Soviets on the militarization of outer space and have no preconditions. We will discuss this with Gromyko, but will emphasize the need to negotiate other nuclear arms control issues.

- Soviets seem determined to ensure that there are no negotiations on major arms control issues before our election. Frankly, I believe the Soviet leadership vacuum has constrained them from taking any positive initiatives in the arms control area. However, I believe that the Soviets will have to reconsider their obstinacy soon and more actively seek opportunities for serious dialogue.

- I would be interested in gaining your advice on how best to deal with the Soviets and to promote global peace.

- Lord Carrington just completed a useful visit to Washington. I believe he will take vigorous charge of the NATO Alliance, particularly on enhancement of conventional forces. I hope Canada will be a leader in the effort to upgrade conventional deterrence.

- (If Asked) Our policy in Central America has been to encourage democratic institutions, provide increased economic aid, use active diplomacy to bring about peace, if possible, and provide security assistance to help friendly governments defend against Soviet/Cuban/Nicaraguan supported guerrillas.

- We favor movement toward trade liberalization and the elimination of protectionism. Against tremendous domestic pressure, I resisted the protection recommended to me on your steel and copper exports to the U.S.

- I am personally committed to responsible stewardship of our common environment. On acid rain, I have directed Bill Ruckelshaus to pursue this issue with his new Canadian counterpart as soon as possible.

- I'm pleased, also, that talks will resume in December on managing West Coast salmon fisheries.

- I look forward to meeting frequently and productively with you, as we work together to manage the broad agenda of global and bilateral issues. I know that Secretary Shultz intends to continue his recent tradition of meeting four times yearly with the Canadian Foreign Minister, if you agree that this remains helpful.

TALKING POINTS FOR MEETING WITH PRIME MINISTER
BRIAN MULRONEY

-- WELCOME BACK TO WASHINGTON. HOPE YOUR LANDSLIDE, CONSERVATIVE VICTORY IS AN OMEN. PLEASED THAT YOU CAMPAIGNED FOR FREE MARKET, EXPANDED TRADE AND LIBERALIZED INVESTMENT. SHARE YOUR EMPHASIS ON NEED FOR CLOSE CANADA-U.S. TIES.

-- GROMYKO MEETING WILL STRESS NEED TO PUT RELATIONS ON MORE CONSTRUCTIVE AND PRODUCTIVE BASIS. WE ARE READY TO DISCUSS SPACE ARMS CONTROL WITHOUT PRE-CONDITIONS. THEY MUST RETURN TO OFFENSIVE NUCLEAR NEGOTIATIONS.

-- SOVIET LEADERSHIP VACUUM HAMPERS PROGRESS. I WOULD APPRECIATE YOUR ADVICE ON HOW TO DEAL WITH THE SOVIETS.

-- LORD CARRINGTON WILL INVIGORATE NATO ALLIANCE. I HOPE CANADA WILL BE A LEADER IN THE EFFORT TO UP-GRADE CONVENTIONAL DETERRENCE.

-- WE FAVOR TRADE LIBERALIZATION AND ELIMINATION OF PROTECTIONISM. DESPITE DOMESTIC PRESSURE, I DECLINED TO PLACE RESTRICTIONS ON YOUR STEEL AND COPPER EXPORTS.

-- I LOOK FORWARD TO MEETING FREQUENTLY WITH YOU TO MANAGE THE AGENDA OF GLOBAL AND BILATERAL ISSUES.
