THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

Thursday, February 5, 1981

MEETING WITH: Boy Scouts of America

LOCATION: Oval Office

TIME: 11:00 AM - 11:10 AM

FROM: Elizabeth H. Dole

PURPOSE: To accept annual "Report to the Nation", Honorary National President membership card, Scouting jacket, Norman Rockwell Scouting Plate and the thirty-millionth Scouting Handbook.

BACKGROUND: The "Report to the Nation" Ceremony has been an annual event since 1910 when President Taft and every subsequent President has invited the Boy Scouts of America to the White House to make their annual report. The report is required by Congress, since the Boy Scouts of America is chartered by Congress. The presentation occurs during national anniversary celebration of the Boy Scouts.

PARTICIPANTS: See attached sheet

PRESS PLAN: Press Photo Coverage

SEQUENCE OF EVENTS:

11:00 The Scout group will join you in the Oval Office to make the presentations and invite you to view the 1981 Scout Jamboree in Fredricksburg, Virginia, this summer. Upon completion of the presentations, you express your support of scouting and ask the scouts to redouble their efforts to preserve our resources through such efforts as recycling of aluminum cans and papers as indicated on the attached sheet.

Upon completion of the ceremony, press will enter for brief photos with the group and depart.

11:10 The Scout group will take their leave.

PARTICIPANTS FOR MEETING WITH

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

Doyle Hodges (Rockville, MD)	National Youth Representative Cub Scouts
Grant Swartzwelder (Duncanville, TX)	National Youth Representative Boy Scouts
Danny Perez (Riverton, UT)	Medal of Merit for Lifesaving Representative
Bradley Starr (Wilmington, NC)	Order of the Arrow National Chief
Jeffrey Shimer (Clearwater, FL)	Explorer National President
Mrs. Joanne Rupp (Clifton, NJ)	Adult Advisor for Delegation
Mr. Donald Rupp (Clifton, NJ)	National Council
A. Zach Hirsch, Jr. (Duncanville, TX)	Activities Service Director
Marvin Hodges & Marjorie Hodges (Rockville, MD)	National Youth Representative Parents Cub Scouts
J. L. Tarr (Dallas, TX)	Chief Scout Executive
Dr. Thomas MacAvoy (Corning, TX)	President of the Boy Scouts of America

SUGGESTED TALKING POINTS FOR MEETING WITH
BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

- I have been an enthusiastic supporter of the Scouting Program through the years and, as President, will continue both my interest and involvement.

- I challenge each of you to redouble your work in guarding our American resources. I hope the ingenuity and creativity of scouting can expand efforts at recycling items such as aluminum cans, papers and other items. I feel there are other real opportunities in this area and look to you to help pioneer the way.

- The influence of the Scouting movement on the American scene will continue to become even stronger because "Scouting is ... the Better Life."

(Note: Present national theme is "Scouting ... the Better Life")

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 5, 1981

MEETING WITH: Student Leaders
LOCATION: Rose Garden
TIME: 11:10 AM - 11:15 AM
FROM: Elizabeth H. Dole END

PURPOSE: To greet and welcome the 102 high school student delegates to the United States Senate Youth Program, and the staff of the Hearst Foundation.

BACKGROUND: Founded in 1962, and endorsed unanimously by the U.S. Senate each year, the U.S. Senate Youth Program is funded by the William Randolph Hearst Foundation. Each year two delegates are chosen by school superintendents of the 50 states and the District of Columbia. Each February, the new class spends one week in Washington learning about government and how it works. Every President since John Kennedy has greeted the delegates.

PARTICIPANTS: See attached sheet

PRESS PLAN: No coverage

SEQUENCE OF EVENTS:

- 11:00 AM Students enter South-West Gate and are led to Rose Garden.
- 11:10 AM The President enters the Rose Garden, greets the group and makes brief remarks.
- 11:15 AM The President thanks the guests, and departs.

Attachment: Participants
Talking Points

SUGGESTED TALKING POINTS FOR MEETING WITH

Senate Youth Groups

- - Welcome to Washington. Nancy and I extend our very best to all of you.
- - I want to commend the United States Senate Youth Program for continuing to arrange these important programs.
- - You were picked because you each are outstanding students, with recognized qualities for leadership. And leadership is what America needs today more than ever.
- - I am encouraged by seeing you, the next generation of leadership for America. Last week I was deeply moved by 53 brave men and women who served their country in the great tradition of America.
- - I want each of you to learn and prepare yourselves so that when your country's call comes, you will all, each one of you, answer it with honor.
- - Thanks, and have a fine week.
