TALKING POINTS:

1. Thank all of you for accepting your appointment to this important advisory board. I look forward to receiving your advice and working closely with you in the years ahead.
2. I understand you have been discussing the status of the Economic Recovery Program.
 - *How do you see the program as progressing?
 - *Do you have any recommendations for improving its chances of enactment?
3. I understand you have also been considering the question of restraining the importation of foreign autos coming into the U. S.
 - *What would be the short- and long-term economic effect of restraint?
 - *Will restraint actually improve the conditions of the U. S. auto industry?
 - *How would foreign governments likely react to restraint by the U. S.?
 - *And what impact would auto restraint have on the chances of enactment and success of our Economic Recovery Program?
