THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

MEETING WITH THE REPUBLICAN MEMBERS OF THE SENATE
LABOR AND HUMAN RESOURCES COMMITTEE

DATE: Thursday, May 14, 1981
LOCATION: The Cabinet Room
TIME: 11:00 a.m. (one-half hour)
FROM: Max L. Friedersdorf mf

I. PURPOSE

To emphasize the importance of the Administration's proposed block grants in education and health, and to encourage Republican members of the Labor and Human Resources Committee to stand together to report the President's legislation to the full Senate.

II. BACKGROUND

The Labor and Human Resources Committee has jurisdiction over the health block grants. The legislative outlook in the Committee is not good.

Senator Weicker has an understanding with Senator Kennedy, the ranking Democrat on the Committee, to support his efforts to continue existing categorical health programs. Senator Stafford, senior Republican in service on the Committee and co-author of much of the education legislation of the last decade, chairs the Education Subcommittee and is hostile toward the Administration's education block grant. Senator Paula Hawkins is openly opposing Administration plans to include community mental health centers in block grants.

The opposition appears to be succeeding in its strategy of "peeling away" individual Republicans from the block grant concept, by encouraging members to protect their favorite programs as presently constituted. This drift must be reversed.

It is hoped that a strong statement by the President will bolster Republican senators committed to the block grant concept and make it more difficult for others to oppose it. Moreover, the Committee needs to understand that the President cannot accept (and thus may veto) bills which reauthorize programs in defiance of his block grant concept.

SUGGESTED TALKING POINTS FOR MEETING WITH REPUBLICAN MEMBERS OF SENATE LABOR AND HUMAN RESOURCES COMMITTEE

- The Administration's block grants are every bit as important as the other components of the President's economic package. They are the vital means of giving states and localities the flexibility necessary to deal with the budgetary reductions already approved by the Congress.
- Block grants are essential to the Administration's policy of federalism, gradually returning to the States both the responsibilities and resources which they have lost to the Federal Government.
- Block grants reflect a cardinal principle of this Administration: that state and local officials should be accountable to their own citizens, rather than to federal officials, for the way they expend tax money.
- While our block grants are flexible in maximizing state discretion, they are designed to ensure continued funding for essential health, education, and social services. In fact, the needs of the poor, the sick, students, and others will be better met by block grants because funding decisions will be made by officials closer to those needs.
- The Administration wants to work with Senators, especially those on the Labor and Human Resources Committee, to ensure that the block grants voted on by the Senate reflect their individual concerns.
- But at the same time, it should be understood that any legislation which contradicts the block grant concept, by extending programs which are slated for one or another of the blocks, will pass the Congress only under serious risk of veto by the President.

DATE: Thursday, May 14, 1981

LOCATION: The Oval Office

TIME: 11:40 AM (5 minutes)

FROM: Max L. Friedersdorf ml-6

I. PURPOSE

To respond to a request from the Congressman for a photo opportunity with the President.

II. BACKGROUND

Congressman LeBoutillier is the youngest Member of the House. He won his upset election over a veteran incumbent by waging a very aggressive and hard-hitting campaign, contrasting his responsible Republicanism against a business-as-usual Democrat. He represents the 6th District, northern Nassau and Queens Counties including Great Neck and Flushing. He is a member of the Foreign Affairs Committee. He has supported the Administration's position on El Salvador but opposed the lifting of the grain embargo.

He did not attend the breakfast for freshman Republicans, because he was making a speech at the request of the Republican Congressional Committee.

- Acknowledge that Members from the Northeast have expressed concern that the budget neglects their region.
- Stress your commitment to the economic health of the entire nation and your particular sensitivity to the needs of older cities like New York.

MEETING WITH THE CABINET

DATE May 14, 1981
LOCATION Cabinet Room
TIME 12 noon (90 minutes)

FROM: CRAIG L. FULLER

I. PURPOSE

This will be a working lunch with the full Cabinet. The focus will be on the economic program and the economic outlook that could affect the program.

II. BACKGROUND

Although major victories have been won on your Economic Recovery Program on the Hill, the hundreds of individual changes necessary to implement the program as proposed must be won subcommittee by subcommittee. There is increasing recognition that this difficult task will require the all out effort of each department.

Additionally, each department needs to understand the economic outlook for the months ahead and how it impacts on FY 81 and future budget outlays. The major concern now is the FY 81 budget overruns about which Dave Stockman briefed you on Tuesday. The budget overruns need immediate attention. Talking points have been prepared for you on this matter. (You will receive tomorrow a.m.)

The agenda for the meeting is as follows:

- |   |                                   |
|---|-----------------------------------|
| 1. Review of the Economic Outlook(Papers attached.) | Donald ReganMurray Weidenbaum |
| 2. Economic Program Legislative Strategy                | David Stockman                    |
| 3. Fiscal Year 1981 Budget                              | David Stockman                    |

III. PARTICIPANTS

Full Cabinet. Others to be announced.

IV. PRESS PLAN

Photo opportunity at the beginning of the meeting.

V. SEQUENCE OF EVENTS

After calling the meeting to order, the President should ask Donald Regan to begin with a report on the economic outlook. During Dave Stockman's discussion of FY 81 Budget Overruns, refer to talking points.
