THANK YOU REMARKS TO ROBERT GOULET AT OFFICIAL DINNER
NOVEMBER 17, 1981

I want to thank Robert Goulet for his wonderful performance tonight. He made his Broadway debut in "Camelot" back in 1960. Over the years the Kennedy Administration has been compared to "Camelot." Sometimes I sit and wonder what play or film my Administration will be compared to. I'll let you answer that for yourselves.

Bob has recorded more than 36 albums during his career and won numerous awards for his performances, including an Emmy for "Brigadoon." Back when I was in the film business, the one thing they never tried to make me do was sing. So now you know why I so admire a man who has the kind of talent Robert Goulet demonstrated for us tonight.

So thank you Bob for sharing yourself with us.
