Questions and Answers

Response to AIR CONTROLLERS question

I deeply regret the personal hardships and sacrifices borne by the former air controllers and their families. My heart especially goes out to their families for the additional burden brought about by a holiday season so enjoyed by others.

Response to DAVIS-BACON question

I continue to support my campaign pledge not to seek repeal of the Davis-Bacon Act.

Response to CENTRAL STATES PENSION FUND question

It would be inappropriate for me to comment, since such could affect litigation.

Response to HOBBS ACT question

We have yet to take a position, per se, however I have not seen convincing evidence for new federal crime prosecutions.

Response to TEAMSTER CONTRACT NEGOTIATIONS question

The Administration is relying on the parties involved, rather than the government, to determine our final outcome.

Response to TRUCKING DEREGULATION question

Your transportation policy statement of 9/80: "Deregulate the transportation industry wherever possible, removing outmoded rules which reduce competition and delay innovation and upkeep. Such a deregulation program should offer reasonable assurance that adequate service will continue, and protect the investment of those who have invested in good faith reliance on the regulations."

In your campaign address before the Ohio Conference of Teamsters you stated, "Although I have been long opposed to increased and unnecessary government regulations, the current policy of the Carter Administration on deregulation of the trucking industry is ill-conceived and not in the best interest of the transportation requirements of the country.

"Any industry as vital to the national economy and the national defense as trucking is, cannot be deregulated in one stroke without tremendous dislocation of individuals and organizations.

"Trucking deregulation should be phased in over a long period with consultation with the affected parties as each step is taken. I would proceed no further without such consultation."

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

November 30, 1981

MEETING WITH INTERNATIONAL BROTHERHOOD OF TEAMSTERS GENERAL BOARD

DATE: December 1, 1981

LOCATION: Cabinet Room

TIME: 10:45 a.m.

FROM: Elizabeth H. Dole

I. PURPOSE

To emphasize your willingness to listen to and to work with the labor community and to demonstrate your interest in the concerns of working people.

II. BACKGROUND

The Teamsters have been very supportive of you, since endorsing your candidacy in 1980. They provided visible support for your economic renewal program, and this meeting is to continue the Administration dialogue with them. The meeting has been billed as a "listening" session.

Among topics the Teamsters will raise are: unemployment problems in the trucking industry and the airline industry, trucking deregulation, nominees to the ICC, proposed amendments to the Hobbs Act, and the need for more air traffic controllers. Another possible topic is the Labor Department's investigation of the Teamsters Central States Pension Fund.

Your guests will have assembled in the Cabinet Room at 10:30 a.m. for a welcome and discussion involving the Vice President, Elizabeth Dole, Secretary Donovan and Bob Bonitati. Teamsters President, Roy Williams, will be seated to your left in the Cabinet Room.

III. PARTICIPANTS

Aforementioned briefers, Ed Meese, Jim Baker and attached guests.

IV. PRESS PLAN

Press Pool Photo Coverage.

V. SEQUENCE OF EVENTS

- 10:45 a.m. You enter the Cabinet Room greeting each guest individually prior to taking your seat.
- 10:48 a.m. The press pool will enter for brief photos and depart.
- 10:50 a.m. You offer brief remarks and ask for questions and comments.
- 11:10 a.m. You thank your guests and depart.

TALKING POINTS

- - I am pleased you could take time from your schedules to meet with me this morning. I won't ask you to sit through a long-winded speech because I prefer two-way communication. I appreciated your endorsement and support during my campaign and I am particularly grateful for your continued support and the leadership you have provided, as we strive to revitalize the nation's economy and strengthen our nation's military preparedness.

I know all of us share the same foreign policy goals of peace through strength. For far too long, allies and adversaries alike have viewed our foreign policy as one of ambivalence. I intend to end that and have committed the full resolve of my Administration to a revitalization of our defense readiness posture.

In this regard, I would like to call upon your assistance in encouraging the Senate to vote out our Defense Appropriation Bill this week. Our increased defense expenditures have a twofold benefit: increased national defense strength and job creation. And, as you are aware, the number one goal of my Economic Recovery Program is private sector job creation. Jobs, jobs, jobs for every U.S. citizen who wants to work.

- - To each of you, I want to emphasize the commitment of my Administration to seeking the advice and counsel of organized labor on public policy issues. As you are aware, I recently issued a Memorandum to Heads of all Departments and Agencies urging that they adopt an open door policy toward organized labor.

- - I have also asked the Vice President and Secretary Donovan to meet regularly with a broad variety of labor leaders, so they can personally keep me informed of your views and concerns. In short, I look to an environment of improved understanding.

- - I promised that there wouldn't be a long-winded speech, so Roy (Williams) let me ask you to kick off this portion. And please feel free to give me your ideas.
