PORTRAIT SESSION WITH YUSEF KARSH

DATE: Tuesday, January 5, 1982

LOCATION: Oval Office

TIME: 3:45 p.m.

I. PURPOSE

Photographic Portrait Session with the President

II. BACKGROUND AND TALKING POINTS

The President has sat for Karsh at least twice to my knowledge, once while Governor of California, and once while President-elect.

Karsh is probably the single most famous photographer in the world today. (This is because Yusef is a better self-promoter than an photographer.) However, Karsh has over the years done the definitive portraits of Winston Churchill, Ernest Hemingway, Georgia O'Keefe, Robert Frost, Pablo Casals amongst others. Karsh is notorious for taking more time than he has been given for his sessions.

III. PARTICIPANTS

Yusef Karsh and assistants
Michael Evans
