February 5, 1982

MEETING WITH HOUSE AND SENATE BIPARTISAN LEADERSHIP

DATE: Monday, February 8, 1982
LOCATION: The Oval Office
TIME: 9:30 - 9:45 a.m. (15 minutes)
FROM: Kenneth M. Duberstein KMD

I. PURPOSE

To discuss your FY '83 budget.

II. BACKGROUND

The FY '83 budget will be formally submitted at noon today. The support and cooperation of both Houses of Congress is essential. It is appropriate for you to commence our work with the Congress on this important issue by personally encouraging the leadership to work with the Administration in an effort to assure expeditious consideration of your package. You will recall that you held a similar meeting with these leaders last year before presenting your FY '82 budget.

It is anticipated that there will be a good deal of discussion and debate on certain aspects of the proposed FY '83 budget, and it is important to stress with these Congressional leaders the fact that this program is key to your efforts to seek a full economic recovery. Acknowledge the fact that we face many hard decisions on budget issues, and assure these members that you are anxious to work closely with them in the months ahead to reach an agreement that will benefit the economy of the American people.

III. PARTICIPANTS

List attached.

IV. PRESS PLAN

White House photographer only.

V. SEQUENCE OF EVENTS

Members of the leadership to arrive Northwest Gate and be escorted to the Oval Office for a 15-minute meeting with the President. At the conclusion of this meeting, Speaker O'Neill and Majority Leader Wright will be escorted to the Northwest Gate and leave the White House. Senator Baker and Thurmond, along with Congressman Michel, will walk with the President from the Oval Office to the Family Theater for the 10:00 briefing on the budget for the expanded GOP leadership.

SUGGESTED TALKING POINTS FOR MEETING WITH HOUSE AND SENATE BIPARTISAN LEADERSHIP

- Point out that your FY '83 budget package is being released today at noon and mention that you wanted an opportunity to meet with the Congressional leadership before Congress begins its consideration of this important subject.

- Remind the members that you held a similar meeting with them last year before presenting your FY '82 budget.

- Without going into detail on numbers and programs, explain to the leadership that your FY '83 budget proposals are the result of long and detailed consultation which involved many difficult decisions. Acknowledge the fact that some of the provisions will generate a good deal of discussion on Capitol Hill but that you believe these difficult choices are a part of the price we must pay to bring us back to a sound economy.

- Indicate your desire to work closely with the Congress on this issue, and encourage the leadership to consult with you at every step along the way. Stress your desire to proceed with expeditious action on the budget, and ask these leaders for their cooperation.

SUGGESTED TALKING POINTS FOR MEETING WITH
GOP LEADERSHIP OF CONGRESS AND CHAIRMEN AND RANKING
REPUBLICAN MEMBERS OF HOUSE AND SENATE COMMITTEES

- Point out that Don Regan, Murray Weidenbaum and Dave Stockman will discuss the details of the budget.

- Remind the Senators and Representatives that almost a year ago (February 18, 1981) this same group met in the Family Theater to discuss your economic package and you asked for their help and support at that time.

- Acknowledge that their leadership and teamwork brought about the successes of last year.

- Indicate that you know the budget process this year will be arduous and you are counting on them for their support as we continue the important next step in our economic recovery program.

- Recognize the outstanding leadership of Howard Baker and Bob Michel and point out that, by continuing to work as a team, we will be successful again this year.
